PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

PUBLISHED BY E. BIDDLE & CO.

D. L. EATON, RUSSELL KERRETT, } EDITORS.

PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 28, 1856.

Terms:

DAILY—Six Dollars per annum, payable in advance.
WEEKLY—Two Dollars per annum, in advance.
Clubs will be supplied on the following conditions:
Four Copies per annum $5 00
Ten Copies per annum 10 00
Payment can be admitted into a club, where one exists at any Post Office, at any time, by sending one dollar.
Advance payments are strictly required, and the paper stopped when the year is out, unless it is renewed.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One square, (10 lines of Nonpareil or Agate,) one insertion	$ 0 50
Do each additional insertion	0 25
Do one week	1 75
Do two weeks	3 00
Do three weeks	4 00
Do one month	5 00
Do two months	7 00
Do three months	9 00
Do four months	10 00
Do six months	11 00
Do twelve months	18 00
Standing Cards, (5 lines or less) per annum	6 00
One dollar for each additional line.
One square, changeable at pleasure, (per annum,) exclusive of paper	20 00

☞ The County Executive Committee will meet daily at 2 o'clock, P. M. at Head Quarters, Corner Fourth and Wood streets.

Fremont Electoral Ticket.

John C. Fremont,	Russell F. Lord,
James Irvin,	Frederick E. Smith,
Joseph Edwards,	Abraham Updegraff,
Geo. N. Eckert,	Joseph D. Simpson,
Mahlon H. Dickinson,	Hezekiah Easton,
Wilson Jewell,	Edward Scull,
Albert G. Rowland,	Wm. M. Stewart,
Caleb N. Taylor,	Alfred Patterson,
Wm. Darlington, M. D.	Benaiz C. Sawyer,
Wm. M. Baird,	Jacob Painter,
Michael H. Shirk,	Lawrence L. McGuffin,
Simon Cameron,	Geo. W. Arnold,
John M'Cormick,	James Skinner,
Smith B.	Thompson.

FRIENDS OF FREEDOM!—But one week remains for active labor. The day of decision is fast approaching. Naturally, all are glad that it is so near, and that the shock of the encounter will so soon be over. It has been a long, harrassing and turbulent campaign; and the reckless conduct of our enemies has been so disgraceful to human nature and the name of Republicanism, that the end of the period for witnessing their degradation is looked forward to with pleasure.

But, in the few days that are left, it behooves you not to be idle. There is no time now to stop and argue with the obstinate or bandy words with the determined enemies of Liberty. Our task is to rally our friends in solid phalanx and trust to the invincible strength of their array. In every election district there are men upon our side who did not vote before. These must be got out on Tuesday next. A few may feel discouraged; these must be seen and brought out. Others may have voted wrong at the last election through misapprehension and deceit; and these must be set right. It is your duty to stir up the sluggish, encourage the despondent, strengthen the weak and enlighten those who may have been led astray. A full vote is a certain victory, and this we can have if we will.

READER! do not say it is none of your business. It is as much yours as that of any man. The common interest you have in humanity and the success of free principles should be sufficient to prompt any one to whatever work is necessary in this crisis. Do you live in one of the two cities? See that your own ward is duly organized; that it has been blocked and canvassed; that challenging committees have been appointed; that vigilant men have been detailed to watch the polls; that the voters on your side are all known; and that no pains are spared to bring them all out. Do you live in a borough? Take precisely the same course. Do you live in the country? Jump on your horse and visit every man in the township, if need be. See that there are vigilant committees appointed in each school district, who will give themselves no rest until every voter is out. Provide wagons and carriages for the sick, the old, and the infirm; and have a poll list made out, and a man provided to check off the names as voted, so that you may know early in the afternoon who you will have to send for. Many other things your own good sense and energy will suggest; all that is wanting is the will; for where there is a will there is a way. In such a contest as this, whatsoever your hands find to do, that do, and do it with all your might.

The Locofoco majority on Canal Commissioner was only 2,753, while on Congressman it was only 1800—a trifling majority, which we can easily overcome. There is every thing therefore, to urge us on—a holy cause, a bright prospect of success, and the hope of snatching victory from the insulting mouths of our enemies. Their premature and insolent yells of triumph ought to prove one of the strongest incentives. Which the wicked bear rule, the people will have abundant cause to mourn.

Whether we are to prove victorious or not, a high sense of duty calls upon us to be active, vigilant and energetic. Let us all have the pleasant consciousness, whatever may be the result, of having met our responsibilities fairly and squarely. We shall then have nothing to reproach ourselves with; if we succeed, our triumph will be all the greater; if we fail, the whole burden of the wrong will fall upon other shoulders.

THE official vote of the State shows the total vote to be 422,993. The highest vote ever polled before was for President in 1852, when the total reached 387,884. Between this and our present total there is a difference of 35,114. Such a vote as the Opposition has polled this year, 210,712, would in any former contest have given them the State by a large majority. In 1854 Pollock received but 205,511 for Governor and yet had near 28,000 majority. The highest Democratic vote ever polled before was for President in 1852, when it reached 198,668. Now the same party polls 212,886 votes, a difference of 14,318. Nearly the half of this latter increase is in Philadelphia; and of the total increase in the State, Philadelphia shows more than one-third. In some of the counties the increase is exceedingly light, and in none is it large. The inference seems irresistible that the large new vote in Philadelphia was fraudulent, and the fact is apparent that but for it we should have carried the State triumphantly.

LOOK OUT, COMMITTEE MEN.—A reliable friend sends us the following communication, for which the vouchers are unquestionable. There can be no doubt that Ohio has been emptied of railroad hands, that State being given up to Fremont, that their vote may be concentrated on Pennsylvania. Challenge all doubtful votes, and be particular in your inquiries as to the vocation of persons offering to vote, and where they worked last. There are, beyond question, many hundred in this city who are in the same predicament as those mentioned below:

Editors Pittsburgh Daily Gazette.

Below I send you a list of Catholic railroaders, who arrived here on Sunday morning, 26th inst., by Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad—probably with the intention to vote—and as ten days residence is required, the different election districts should be on the watch:

Peter Gillen,	Jas. McNauney,
Francis Kavanah,	Martin McLaughlin,
Walter Hopkins,	John Blister, Dough
Anthony Calligan,	Peter O'Filon,
Mike McMahon,	Martin Callen,
	Martin Hallen.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 27, 1856.

THE GERMAN VOTE OF PHILADELPHIA, we are happy to learn, will not be lost to us, as our enemies hoped. The new ticket put in the field by them has been withdrawn, and they have resolved to support the Electoral ticket as nominated on the 16th. The Republikaner, of October 25, edited by Wilhelm Rapp, and which is published by the Central Club of German Republicans in Philadelphia, has at its head the Union Electoral Ticket, followed by a vigorous editorial, the first sentence of which is as follows:

"After mature and conscientious reflection, we have determined to vindicate, in every particular, the priority of the Union Electoral Ticket."

These facts, in connection with other particulars which we receive from reliable sources, authorize us to state that, at the coming election, the German opposition vote will, with trifling exceptions, be given for our ticket.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE for October has just been received and is for sale by Gildemeesty & Co. and Minor & Co. Its contents are rich and racy, as usual.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.—A friend in Cleveland writes us that at a previous Presidential Election, when fraud and violence were anticipated at the polls, the merchants, business men and men of property and standing gave up business for the day, suspended all active operations, and attended at the polls in mass. The result was that those who contemplated fraud and violence were overawed. The presence of the substantial men of the community at the polls operated as a complete check upon them, and the day passed off peaceably. He suggests that a similar plan should be adopted next Tuesday, and we second his suggestion. If the men upon whom the welfare of this city and its neighborhood depends will suspend business on Tuesday next, and give the friends of Freedom and order the benefit of their countenance at the polls, much illegal voting may be prevented and all danger of violence be removed. We commend the matter to their consideration.

THE PEOPLE WHO STAY AT HOME ON ELECTION DAY.—According to the Census returns there ought to be 480,000 voters in Pennsylvania; yet the vote has never, except until the present year, exceeded 400,000, and would have been but little over that, now, but for the frauds in Philadelphia, the vote elsewhere in the State showing but a slight increase. In general, about one-fifth of the voters stay at home, careless of the result, for good or evil, to themselves, the State or Nation. The following judicious remarks upon this subject are from the Albany Evening Journal:

This neglect of political duty is the great evil of American Politics. To it is due most of the bad legislation, and the corruption at the Polls. For it is the intelligent and educated part of the community, that in this case, are most culpable. Men who have the deepest interest in the preservation of Law and Order are those who most neglect to preserve them by their votes. It is a part of the people whose sympathies are almost uniformly with Freedom and Public Justice, who yet neglect to use the only means of making that sympathy effective.

It is the Merchant, who is detained to sell a customer a pound of tea. It is the Lawyer, who is busy in the Clerk's Office searching title to a city lot. It is the Clergyman, who is deep in a sermon on the national sins of the Children of Israel. It is the man of leisure, who is driving on Newport beach for his health. It is the Student, who is grazing in some musty library for metaphysical truth. It is the Doctor, who has gone to prescribe for Mrs. Flighty's headache. It is the Farmer, who is busy mending fences.—It is the Master Mechanic, who is superintending the nailing of a floor. The Union gave these men their liberty to study and to speak, saved them from burdensome taxation, and crowned their work with reputation and opulence. In return, they let the Union go, if it will,—to ruin, rather than go themselves to the Polls.

But the Roper is there, to vote for eternal spree and no more fines. The Thief is there to vote his "pal" into the police. The Prize-fighter is there to vote for his bottle-holder for Judge. The Slave Driver is there to vote for more Territorial markets and a higher price of niggers. The Office Seeker is there to put himself in communication with the $10,000 checks of the Comptroller's Office; and the Dog-Fancier is there to earn his thirty pieces of silver. If the good will not take the control of Government, the bad will.

If it be a heinous crime for an ignorant, half-starved wretch to sell his vote to get his dinner, what is it for an educated, prosperous gentleman to fling away the priceless birthright of an American citizen, and by his inaction, liberately consign the government of his country to those he knows to be venal villains?

Citizens! for this once and this one day, spare half an hour from Self and give it to your Country. You will not repent it. Put by your ledger, Mr. Credit; come up to the polls and invest in a Stock that will pay compound interest to your children's children. Break the bonds of red tape for once, Mr. Certiorari; come up and help try the great cause of Freedom, pleading at the Bar of Eternal Justice for her defrauded Right of Dower. Send your carriage, Mr. Million, for the lame and the sick and neglected voters; foot it yourself to deposit your ballot, and we will warrant you health beyond the gift of the hare-brea-breezes or sea bathing-houses. Shelve your dictionary, Mr. Bookworm, and come here if you want to find Truth, not in musty physical disguise, but with her homely working-day clothes on. Spare only ten minutes, Doctor, for a prescription for the Body Politic.—And you too, Rev. Sir, see if there be no misguided Nation Astray in a Wilderness of Sin, nearer than Palestine.

No better time to atone for past negligence ever occurred than this. A vote given now by every man who has neglected to give one hitherto, would end all this turmoil of agitation, and secure the National Peace and Freedom.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

THE LIFE OF ROBERT FULTON; By J. Franklin Belgart, author of U. S. "Autography," "The Inventors and Patentees' Guide, etc., Philada. C. G. Henderson & Co. 1856.

While we commend this valuable addition to the literature of the times for the much more than ordinary beautiful style in which it is executed, being illustrated by numerous colored and tinted engravings, paper white and heavy, and type that will make age throw aside its glasses, we much more commend it as a just tribute to the undying fame of Robert Fulton, to whom the United States and the world owe an everlasting debt of gratitude as the inventor of Steam. Washington county, Pa., it seems, was his birthplace.

THIRTY YEARS OF THE BORDER OF KANSAS. By a Clergyman of the Episcopal Church. "In perils by mine own countrymen." "What judgment shall I dread, doing no harm." New York and Auburn, Miller, Orton & Mulligan, 1856.

A book for the times. Read it and smile, and jeer at "Bleeding Kansas."

OLIVER CROMWELL ENGLAND'S GREAT PROTECTOR; By Henry William Herbert, New York and Auburn: Miller, Orton & Mulligan, 1856.

The author tells us that he has thoroughly revised and corrected the present edition of his work on the great old Puritan. The ability and style of Mr. Herbert is now well known to the reading community, and we bespeak a favorable reception for the present issue. The above are for sale by J. L. Read, 78 Fourth-st.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

Speech delivered to the Young Fremonters on Saturday, Oct. 25,—By a Lad of Thirteen.

Young Fremonters: The present Presidential campaign is one of all absorbing interest. The issue is, whether or not Slavery shall be extended over what is now free soil. There is one candidate, who pretends to be conservative, but he has allied himself to the South, and cannot be trusted by the North. But a short time have the people to deliberate,—the eventful 4th of November is drawing near, which shall decide the fate of millions of people. Then arouse ye freemen of the North, and such of the South as are true to the Union and Liberty, and decide by your votes, whether the dark Moloch Slavery shall be permitted to spread his wings over, and darken with his shadow, land which is now devoted to Freedom.

Col. John C. Fremont, the Republican candidate, was born in one of the Southern Atlantic States, and is connected with some of the most respectable families of Virginia. From his youth he was trained to daring adventure, and in his expeditions across the Rocky Mountains, he has shown neither a want of bravery, skill and courage, nor a deficiency in civil or military capacities. And if we are to judge from past experience, and things which he has done, and not promises for future good which form the basis of the principles of most of our political candidates now a days, he will make a wise, judicious and impartial administrator of justice, to all classes, and as he was mainly instrumental in making California a Free State, he will make a suitable candidate for the purposes and principles of his party.

James Buchanan, the Democratic nominee, stands upon a rotten platform, with Slavery and extension of Slavery engraved on every plank, and supported only by the desperadoes of the South, and such of the North as, we might say, seek to betray their country's interests.

The South says that our candidate is sectional and that we are trying to undermine her peculiar institution, Slavery.

I answer we respect the South, we respect her people, but we do not respect their peculiar institution. Our candidate is not sectional, for as long as the South will keep quiet, we will let her, and her peculiar institution alone, but we are opposed to the extension of Slavery.

Pennsylvania, of the Democracy, is to be the battleground, the forces are nearly equal, and the struggle will be severe. The Democracy will rally around the polls and they will not yield an inch of ground. Already in this State elections, they have beaten us by a small majority, but it will only tend to make the contest more terrible. They think that they have escaped out of the flames, but they have only made the fire burn more fiercely. You well know the character of your foes, obstinate, determined and persevering, but they are fast losing ground, all the wise and true hearted men are leaving them, they will not vote for a candidate who endorses the corrupt and partial administration of President Pierce, and soon they will have none but the raw and the undisciplined forces in their ranks, fit only to be shivered to pieces by the victorious forces of Fremont and Freedom. R. S. M.

ALLEGHENY CITY, Oct. 25.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

TO THE FRIENDS OF CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY.—At no time since the formation of the Government have our Liberties been in such imminent danger as they are at present. They have been of late so furiously assailed, and so often stricken down by tyrants in authority, that they may be said to exist only in name.—We are no longer permitted to enjoy the freedom of speech or of the press, and there have been instances, of recent date, in which the sacred privileges of worshipping God according to the dictates of conscience has been interfered with, if not prevented.

Dare the citizens of the Free States proclaim in the Slave States their abhorrence of human bondage? Would not a word in opposition to the domestic Institution be likely to subject them to a violent death, without even a mock trial, or to a coat of tar and feathers? Even the people of the Slave States dare not breathe a syllable against the shocking evils and cruelties of the horrible system, in the midst of which it is their misfortune to live, lest they should be banished from their homes, have their property confiscated, or be murdered in cold blood.

The lips, however, are not only sealed, but the Press is muzzled. How many editors admirably qualified to enlighten the public mind, promote the general welfare, and defend the citadel of freedom, have been constrained to fly from the domestic hearth, and leave their beloved wives and tender offspring to the cruel mercies of the savage and bloodthirsty mob. Not only the lives of these accomplished conductors of the Press have been threatened, but their property has been destroyed. That through the medium of which they made a comfortable living for themselves and families, was with a fiend-like malice, cast into the river, and irrecoverably lost. When, oh! when will our beloved country be no longer disgraced by such wanton acts of heaven-daring iniquity!

Quite recently, in Washington county a congregation of Protestant Methodists, peacefully engaged in the worship of God, were furiously assailed by a gang of unmitigated scoundrels, who supposed the preacher and his people were holding a Fremont meeting. But a little while previous, in the town of New Brighton, an unprincipled politician attempted, in the most violent manner, at the top of his voice, that any minister who would introduce politics into the pulpit, should be whipped, like a hound, from the sacred desk to his dwelling, whatever the distance by which they were separated. Have we not fallen on evil times?

Friends of civil and religious liberty! you can, if you will, put an end to these disgraceful proceedings. The faithful performance of your duty at the ballot-box, will effectually accomplish the object. Let no circumstance prevent you from attending the polls on the 4th of November, and depositing your ballots for Fremont and Liberty. For the sake of peace, of order, of your country and your God, neglect not this injunction. If ever vigilance was necessary on your part, it is emphatically so now. Every thing dear to the heart of the true patriot is now at stake. The price includes almost all that the friend of his country can well desire. Victory, if true to yourselves, will crown your efforts with glorious success.

Should Mr. Buchanan be elected, it is almost morally certain that Slavery will be perpetuated in the United States. There is quite a probability that it will be re-established in the States now free, and that it will be extended over the territory no man of common sense, acquainted with the political history of the candidate referred to, can for a moment doubt. Has not Mr. Buchanan sold the basest servility to the South, abandoned his identity? Are not his bones, and muscles, and brain and blood, all concentrated in the Cincinnati Platform? Who does not know that the platform in question was constructed at the suggestion, and adopted by the votes of the Southern members of the Convention. And yet there are many Anti-Slavery men, who will vote for Buchanan. How are we to account for a course so inconsistent? The most charitable explanation we can give it is to attribute it solely to infatuation. J. M.

For the Gazette.

GREAT MASS MEETING OF THE FRIENDS OF FREEMONT AND FREEDOM, HELD IN HARMONY, BUTLER CO.—Messrs. Editors:—I had the pleasure of attending a Mass Convention at Harmony, Butler County, on Wednesday 22d inst., which for numbers, enthusiasm, and display, certainly exceeded any political demonstration made in Butler county the present canvass. The procession numbered 32 wagons and 35 on horseback—There was other 400 people in the procession; we will venture to say such a procession was never before seen in that part of the country; the banners, flags, music, and vociferous cheers, added to the enthusiastic responses from the people along the route, sounded as the death-knell to the Buchanites. The procession reached the commons between Harmony and Zelionople about 2 o'clock, headed by Kotzel's brass band and the Harmony and Butler martial bands; the large assemblage was soon called to order by John Lewis, Esq., of Zelienople, and the following officers were chosen:

President.—Hon. Jacob Mecklin.

Vice Presidents:—C. Black, A. Zeigler, W. W. Dodd, Maj. A. Gillespie, T. Swarts, A. Hagle, N. Waightman, H. Stratt.

Secretaries—Maj. John Grim, R. T. Boggs. G. W. Smith of Butler was now called for and responded in a forcible speech of near two hours duration on the outrages and injustice of the Pierce administration towards Kansas, some of which outrages the speaker was an eye witness to; he was followed by Mr. Shinn in English and Mr. Waldberger in German.

WALL STREET ON THE UNION.—It is understood that one object of Gov. Floyd's late visit to this city, was to negotiate or obtain advances upon Virginia bonds of the par value of $300,000.—He applied to a well known broker, who readily agreed to procure the money; but before the transaction was completed, the Governor's disunion speech at Lynchburg was published, and the man of money hesitated. The Governor was sent for, when the following colloquy is reported to have taken place:

Gov. FLOYD.—"Mr. T——, what is the matter? We depended upon you. The first families will not submit to such treatments. They must have the money."

BROKER.—"But, Governor, I have read your speech. Do you intend to dissolve the Union?"

Gov. FLOYD.—"What is that to you? Fulfil your contract."

BROKER.—"A great deal. It is every thing to me, because, you see, Governor, your bonds are now worth 90 cents on the dollar; if you will break up the Union, they will not be worth ten cents."

Gov. F.—"Hum-um-m! That did not occur to me! Go ahead—we won't dissolve."—N. Y. Courier.

CANVASSING SCENE.—Not long since, a Buchanneer was canvassing in a certain ward in this city, when he enquired of a lady at one of the houses at which he called, which side she or her husband took in politics. "My husband goes for the party that goes for Freedom, sir," was the reply. "Ah! a Fremonter then," and the canvasser left.

Fremont party is the only one "for Freedom," shows a great deal of candor for a Buchanan man.—Hartford Rep.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

M'Lane's Worm Specific, prepared by FLEMING BROS.—The following, from a customer, shows the demand which this great medicine has created wherever it has been introduced:

BLOOMSBURG, Tioga Co., Pa., March 31, 1856.

MESSRS. FLEMING BROS: Gentlemen:—In consequence of the great consumption of your "Worm Specific" in this and vicinity, we have entirely exhausted our stock. We should feel obliged by your forwarding us a Gross, or two, or three, as may suit your convenience, and we will remit you the money.

Having seen the wonderful effects of said "Specific" in this neighborhood, I consider it an invaluable remedy for Worms; it is to be had, (wholesale and retail) from some local agent in almost every town in the country, not in need, and a help to the great cause of Freedom, pleading at the Bar of Eternal Justice for her defrauded Right of Dower. Send your carriage, Mr. Million, for the lame and the sick and neglected voters; foot it yourself to deposit your ballot, and we will warrant you health beyond the gift of the hare-brea-breezes or sea bathing-houses. Shelve your dictionary, Mr. Bookworm, and come here if you want to find Truth, not in musty physical disguise, but with her homely working-day clothes on. Spare only ten minutes, Doctor, for a prescription for the Body Politic.—And you too, Rev. Sir, see if there be no misguided Nation Astray in a Wilderness of Sin, nearer than Palestine.

No better time to atone for past negligence ever occurred than this. A vote given now by every man who has neglected to give one hitherto, would end all this turmoil of agitation, and secure the National Peace and Freedom.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

THE LIFE OF ROBERT FULTON; By J. Franklin Belgart, author of U. S. "Autography," "The Inventors and Patentees' Guide, etc., Philada. C. G. Henderson & Co. 1856.

While we commend this valuable addition to the literature of the times for the much more than ordinary beautiful style in which it is executed, being illustrated by numerous colored and tinted engravings, paper white and heavy, and type that will make age throw aside its glasses, we much more commend it as a just tribute to the undying fame of Robert Fulton, to whom the United States and the world owe an everlasting debt of gratitude as the inventor of Steam. Washington county, Pa., it seems, was his birthplace.

THIRTY YEARS OF THE BORDER OF KANSAS. By a Clergyman of the Episcopal Church. "In perils by mine own countrymen." "What judgment shall I dread, doing no harm." New York and Auburn, Miller, Orton & Mulligan, 1856.

A book for the times. Read it and smile, and jeer at "Bleeding Kansas."

OLIVER CROMWELL ENGLAND'S GREAT PROTECTOR; By Henry William Herbert, New York and Auburn: Miller, Orton & Mulligan, 1856.

The author tells us that he has thoroughly revised and corrected the present edition of his work on the great old Puritan. The ability and style of Mr. Herbert is now well known to the reading community, and we bespeak a favorable reception for the present issue. The above are for sale by J. L. Read, 78 Fourth-st.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

Speech delivered to the Young Fremonters on Saturday, Oct. 25,—By a Lad of Thirteen.

Young Fremonters: The present Presidential campaign is one of all absorbing interest. The issue is, whether or not Slavery shall be extended over what is now freesoil. There is one candidate, who pretends to be conservative, but he has allied himself to the South, and cannot be trusted by the North. But a short time have the people to deliberate,—the eventful 4th of November is drawing near, which shall decide the fate of millions of people. Then arouse ye freemen of the North, and such of the South as are true to the Union and Liberty, and decide by your votes, whether the dark Moloch Slavery shall be permitted to spread his wings over, and darken with his shadow, land which is now devoted to Freedom.

Col. John C. Fremont, the Republican candidate, was born in one of the Southern Atlantic States, and is connected with some of the most respectable families of Virginia. From his youth he was trained to daring adventure, and in his expeditions across the Rocky Mountains, he has shown neither a want of bravery, skill and courage, nor a deficiency in civil or military capacities. And if we are to judge from past experience, and things which he has done, and not promises for future good which form the basis of the principles of most of our political candidates now a days, he will make a wise, judicious and impartial administrator of justice, to all classes, and as he was mainly instrumental in making California a Free State, he will make a suitable candidate for the purposes and principles of his party.

James Buchanan, the Democratic nominee, stands upon a rotten platform, with Slavery and extension of Slavery engraved on every plank, and supported only by the desperadoes of the South, and such of the North as, we might say, seek to betray their country's interests.

The South says that our candidate is sectional and that we are trying to undermine her peculiar institution, Slavery.

I answer we respect the South, we respect her people, but we do not respect their peculiar institution. Our candidate is not sectional, for as long as the South will keep quiet, we will let her, and her peculiar institution alone, but we are opposed to the extension of Slavery.

Pennsylvania, of the Democracy, is to be the battleground, the forces are nearly equal, and the struggle will be severe. The Democracy will rally around the polls and they will not yield an inch of ground. Already in this State elections, they have beaten us by a small majority, but it will only tend to make the contest more terrible. They think that they have escaped out of the flames, but they have only made the fire burn more fiercely. You well know the character of your foes, obstinate, determined and persevering, but they are fast losing ground, all the wise and true hearted men are leaving them, they will not vote for a candidate who endorses the corrupt and partial administration of President Pierce, and soon they will have none but the raw and the undisciplined forces in their ranks, fit only to be shivered to pieces by the victorious forces of Fremont and Freedom. R. S. M.

ALLEGHENY CITY, Oct. 25.

Unequalled Demand.—Dr. McLane's Improved Vermifuge is all the go. Everybody wants it, and no wonder,—when it is THE Vermifuge of the age. Be sure to get the IMPROVED VERMIFUGE, prepared by Dr. I. Scott & Co., Bank Place, Morgantown, Va. Dr. McLane's Improved Liver Pills and Improved Vermifuge, also Dr. I. Scott's Celebrated White Circassian Liniment, prepared solely under the supervision of Dr. Scott, a Regular Medical Graduate and Physician of extensive practice.

None genuine only as prepared by Dr. I. Scott & Co., sole Proprietors, Bank Place, Morgantown, Va. Dr. McLane's Improved Liver Pills and Improved Vermifuge accompanied by certificate of G. Helmer.

All the above Medicines for sale by Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, Wholesale agent for Pittsburgh, and by druggists generally.

JAS. F. FLEMING, Allegheny, near R. R. Depot, whole sale agent.

oct14:lwdawt.

British and Continental Exchange.

RIGHT BILLS DRAWN BY

DUNCAN, SHERMAN & CO.,

ON THE UNION BANK, LONDON,

IN SUMS OF $1 AND UPWARDS.

These Drafts are available at all the principal Towns of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the Continent.

We also draw SIGHT BILLS on

M. A. Grunebaum & Bailin,

FRANKFORT A MAIN,

Which serve as a Remittance to all parts of Germany Switzerland and Holland.

Persons intending to travel abroad may procure through us Letters of Credit, on which Money can be obtained, as needed, in any part of Europe.

Collections of Bills, Notes, and other securities in Europe, will receive prompt attention.

WM. H. WILLIAMS & CO.,
Wood, corner Third street.

oct8:lyd

PITTSBURGH STEEL WORKS

ISAAC JONES,

MANUFACTURER OF

CAST STEEL.

ALSO,

SPRING, PLOW AND A. B. STEEL,

SPRINGS AND AXLES.

Corner Ross and First Streets,

jy21:lyr PITTSBURGH, PA.

ISAAC JONES. D. B. ROGERS

D. B. ROGERS & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

ROGERS' IMPROVED PATENT

Steel Cultivator Teeth,

CORNER ROSS AND FIRST STREETS,

jun21:lyr PITTSBURGH, PA.

Dr. Geo. W. Phillips'

COUGH SYRUP

FOR THE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Croup, Hoarseness, Bleeding Lungs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, Spreken Sore Throat, Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat and Chest

AND

Dr. Geo. Phillips'

RHEUMATIC LINIMENT

AND

PAIN PANACEA,

FOR THE RELIEF AND CURE OF

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Pleuratic Pains, Pains in the Side, Chest, Back and Face, Swelled and Painful Joints, Weak Back, Cramp, Sore Throat, Sprains, &c.

The thousands of those who have used these Medicines testify to their excellent merits by a continuance of their use. To those who have not used them we would say TRY THEM and they will find them to be all they are represented, and that they will act with magic-like effect.

DR. GEO. W. PHILLIPS, Sole Proprietor, Cincinnati, Ohio.

For sale wholesale and retail by

BECKHAM & McKENNAN,
Allegheny City.

fe20:lyr

For Consumption, Scrofula, &c.

BAKER & CO'S

Medicinal Transparent Cod Liver Oil

Highly esteemed by the Medical Faculty throughout the United States for its purity, sweetness and uniformity, immediate and superior energy.

A majority of the resident physicians of Philadelphia give this Oil the sanction of their high approval, and a test of their confidence, recommend it to their patients and prescribe it in their practice.

As a remedy for Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma Gout, Rheumatism, General Debility, and all Scrofulous affections, it stands unrivalled, effecting a cure, or allevia ating sufferings when other medicines have failed.

Manufactured only by JOHN C. BAKER & CO., No. 100 S. 3d street, Philadelphia, and sold by the Druggists in this city and elsewhere.

se25:6md&w

Important Notice to those Afflicted

WITH CHRONIC DISEASES, by Dr. A. S. HEATH, New York City. Finding it impossible to attend personally to all my patients, and being unwilling to trust such responsible duties to assistants or students, and for the protection of the public against worthless and injurious quack medicines, as well as the impositions advertising under fictitious names, offering to send recipes gratis; or on receipt of letter stamps or one dollar, &c.—to obviate the above, and to accommodate patients in all parts of the country, I send medicines, with full directions, to cure any disease, for $5, unless treatment is required for a longer period than one month, when the fee is the same for each month. The fee for all curatal operations, including that for the radical cure of secret diseases, is based upon the peculiarity of the case. Patients will give a full statement of all their symptoms, as the remedies are prepared with an especial reference to each case. All money letters should be registered. The first part of my medicated work will be sent to any address on the receipt of 10 cents. A. S. HEATH, 10 Spring street, opposite the St. Nicholas Hotel, New York.

oct1:lyd&w

The only Medal Awarded by the New York Exhibition to the English or foreign Saxe Manufacturers has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, of their whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE,

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal.

"I can with truth say there is nothing in a traveler's baggage so essential to his comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce.

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Lea & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most Palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and a universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed on the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.

Sole Agents for the United States,

JOHN DUNCAN & SONS,
29 Broadway, New York.

sp2:lyr

Have you a Rupture of the Bowels?—I would most respectfully invite the attention of the afflicted with hernia or rupture of the bowels to my splendid assortment of Trusses of various patterns, and to submit every case, applied and satisfaction guaranteed in every case, at my office, No. 140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., sign of the Golden Mortar. Among the Trusses sold by me will be found

Marsh's Radical Cure Truss;
French Trusses, very light springs;
Coes Elastic Trusses;
Children's Trusses, single and double;
Pinkerton Trusses, children's and adults';
Eberle's Elastic Spring Truss;
Dr. S. S. Fitch's Supporter Truss;

The price of Trusses vary from $2 to $30. Hernial or Ruptured patients can be suited by remitting money and sending the measure around the hips, stating whether the rupture is on the right or left side. Letters must be addressed to

Dr. Benning's Lace or Body Brace, for the cure of Prolapsus Uteri, Weakness of the Chest or Abdomen, Piles Chronic Diarrhœa, and any weakness depending on a weak and debilitated condition of the abdominal muscles.

Dr. Fitch's Abdominal Supporter.
English Elastic Abdominal Belts;
Silk Elastic Belts;

And nearly every kind of Supporter now in use. I also sell

Shoulder Braces of every style, for weak chested and stoop shouldered persons,

Elastic Stockings, for broken and varicose veins.

Suspensory Bandages, of all kinds.

Syringes of every variety and pattern, and in fact every kind of mechanical appliance used in the cure of diseases of the human frame. Should any state to persons in want of Trusses or Trusses that he can often send to suit the patient by writing, but it is always better to see the patient and apply the Truss or Brace personally. Address

Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER, 140 Wood st.,
Sign of the Golden Mortar.

my10:d6w

HATS, CAPS AND FURS,

M'COORD & CO.,

WHOLESALE & RETAIL

HATTERS,

131 Wood Street,

Have always on hand a full and complete stock of HATS, CAPS, AND FURS,

Wholesale and Retail

sold at the LOWEST HARVEST PRICES, to which they invite the attention of all purchasers.

oct2:dly

EAGLE STEEL WORKS

JOSEPH DILWORTH & CO.,

(SUCCESSORS TO HOLMES, M'KEEVY & CO.,)

MANUFACTURERS OF

Cast Steel, German, Saw, Blister, Plough AND SPRING STEEL;

AXLES, VICES, SPRINGS, PICKS,

Mattocks, Wedges, Harrow Tooth, &c.

WAREHOUSE, No. 119 WATER STREET,

Between Wood and Smithfield,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

January 1 1856:dly

J. J. GILLESPIE & CO.,

LOOKING GLASS MANUFACTURERS,

AND DEALERS IN

Looking Glass Plates, Plate Glass and ENGRAVINGS,

No. 76 WOOD STREET,

J. J. GILLESPIE, } PITTSBURGH, PA.
A. FLEMING, }

On hand and made to order, Gilt Pier and Fancy Mantle Glasses; Mahogany, Rosewood, Walnut and Gilt Frames, or Moulding of every description.

☞ Steamboat Cabins Decorated and Gilt.—NEW

oct3:lmdis

Dr. Keyser's Shoulder Braces—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than 3 years past we have constantly worn the Washington Suspender Brace, manufactur'd by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood st., in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to its merits, it answers for a brace and suspenders, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to continually tend to bring the shoulders to their natural position and expand the chest. Women, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of enormous "skirts," should also procure these braces. Be particular in procuring the kind mentioned, as many of the braces sold are humbug. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Druggist; 140 Wood st, sign of the Golden Mortar.

feb5:lyd&w2

ICE CREAM AND OYSTER SALOON

BY MAURICE KUNZ.

[Nova Front Building]

SMITHFIELD STREET,

BETWEEN FOURTH AND DIAMOND ALLEY.

oct8:fod1f PITTSBURGH.

W. H. KNOX. W. W. HAIR. JOS. S. HUNTER

SMITH, HAIR & HUNTER,

WHOLESALE

GROCERS,

129 Second and 151 Front Streets,

my29 PITTSBURGH, PA.

DENTISTRY.

DR. J. MALMEEN,

SURGEON DENTIST,

FROM NEW YORK,

Extracts Teeth Without Pain,

By a Local Benumbing Agent to the Gums only.

☞ Inserts Teeth on Gold, Silver, Platina and Gutta Percha, and performs all Dental operations in a scientific manner.

☞ Cards and Circulars at his office,

54 SMITHFIELD STREET, PITTSBURGH.

oct5:lmdis

J. M. LITTLE,

MERCHANT TAILOR,

NO. 54 ST. CLAIR STREET,

(Dr. Irish's New Building.)

se30:lyd5 PITTSBURGH.

PITTSBURGH, FORT WAYNE