GAZETTE—CITY DEPARTMENT.

PITTSBURGH:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 5, 1856.

PROBABLE MURDER.—About eleven o'clock, on Monday night a man named John McCleary, a resident of 1st ward, Allegheny, was stabbed by a cripple, named John McCullum. It appears that McCleary and his brother were setting on a box on the sidewalk, adjoining Mercer & Robinson's store on Federal street, Allegheny, for the purpose of discovering an expected incendiary, who had posted a placard on the store door giving warning that the store would be destroyed that night. While sitting there, a crowd in which McCullum passed up Federal street, shouting for Buchanan. McCleary shouted for Fremont when McCullum came up and struck and cut him at the same time. The knife in the left side under the arm, penetrating the lung. The wounded man was taken home, and Dr. McCook, jr., sent for. The physician thinks that the chances are against his recovery. Shortly after McCullum was arrested by officers Scott, and committed by Alderman Nellitie for a hearing on Saturday.

FRAUDULENT VOTING.—An Irishman who gave the name of Sullivan presented himself at the 6th Ward Polls yesterday, to vote, and, being challenged, gave the Judge a tax receipt written in lead pencil, signed by C. W. Lewis, Tax Collector of the 3d Ward, one of the stolen receipts! The name on the receipt was not Sullivan, showing at once the intention of voting fraudulently upon the part of Sullivan. He was accordingly taken into custody, alderman Hastings of the 6th Ward became his bail for his appearance for trial.

Shortly afterwards a body of one hundred and fifty men came up from the 3d Ward precinct, but fortunately there was no disturbance.—About fifty Irishmen who were hanging around the polls with the intention of voting illegally, took warning by the arrest of Sullivan and left.

PLANK ROAD ELECTION.—At the annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Lawrenceville and Sharpsburgh Plank Road Co., held on Monday, the 3d inst., at the office of the President, the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year:

President—James Blakeley.

Managers—Thomas Wallace, Lewis C. Noble, James C. Richey, John W. Duncan, James Sharp.

Treasurer—George E. Arnold.

THE attention of purchasers is requested to the large and valuable assortment of ladies' velvet and cloth cloaks, brooks, stella and wool plaid shawls, together with a splendid display of British, French, India and American fancy and staple dry goods, now being received from New York, and for sale at A. M'Tighe's corner of Grant and Fifth streets. The inducements now offered by M'Tighe in style and price exceed anything offered in Pittsburgh this season.

THE ELECTION.—There was some little fighting done yesterday at the Third, Fifth and Sixth Ward Polls. In the other Wards, as far as we are able to learn, the day passed quietly.

The returns show a largely increased vote in nearly every district.

Many of the drinking houses were closed, in pursuance of the published request of Mayor Bingham, and that will account in part for the quietness of the day.

CHILD RUN OVER.—A little boy named Frank Beale, son of the late George Beale, jr., was run over by a four-horse coalcart, at the First Ward Polls, yesterday. The team was turning the corner. The scalp of the child was cut open from the ear to the top of his head and down to the nape of the neck. It is not expected to recover.

GAVE BAIL VOLUNTARILY.—Andrew McClowry who was implicated in the Riot and Robbery case alluded to in yesterday's paper, appeared before Mayor Bingham, yesterday, voluntarily and gave bail to stand trial. He denies positively knowing anything of the robbery.

COUNTERFEITS AND IMPOSTORS.—The public are cautioned against purchasing articles pretending to be of the nature of the "Balm of Thousand Flowers," for perfuming the breath and beautifying the complexion. The popularity of that article has brought forward a host of counterfeiters. None is genuine unless signed by FETRIDGE & Co. For sale by all respectable druggists who frown down counterfeiters and impostors.

FREMONT, THE MUSTANG CANDIDATE.—If Col. Fremont had as many friends as the Mustang Liniment, the opposition could not draw a corporal's guard. Mr. Fremont remarked, in his dispatches to President Fillmore, while transporting horses and cattle over the plains of Mexico, "That if the Government would send on a liberal supply of Mustang Liniment, it would save 25 per cent. of his losses." This is very important for all Farmers and Liverymen to know. The Mustang Liniment is a wonderful article for man or beast. It should always be used for Sores, Swellings, Stiff Joints, Burns, Bruises, Rheumatic Pains, &c., and for Galds, Sprains, Spavins, Ringbone, &c., upon horses. Beware of imitations. The Mustang is sold by all respectable dealers everywhere.

REVIEW OF THE PITTSBURGH MARKET.

For the Week ending Nov. 5, 1856.

Business is still dull, owing to the low rivers. We were favored with a heavy rain on Monday, and the weather is still warm and showery; but we must have a rain of several days to effect what we need.

There is very little change in the rates of produce prices being well maintained and the supply light. In the present restricted state of supplies there can be but few transactions, and none of any moment. We notice, however, sales to arrive of flour at full rates.

Money is in brisk demand, and the banks are unable to answer all the calls upon them. The indications all admonish caution and a contraction of the discount lines, and we presume they are not slow to avail themselves of such admonitions. No paper which finds its way to the street is rather harder to place than it was a week or two since, and 12 per cent is not an unusual rate.

The news from Europe concerning financial matters is not encouraging. The European continent is evidently passing through a severe financial crisis, which is likely to end in a revulsion that must lead to some embarrassment and derangement on this side of the water. The drain of specie is likely to be heavy and constant for some time. The shipments from New York last week were nearly two millions, and this will probably be kept up during the winter until our indebtedness to Europe is measurably paid off.

The N Y Tribune of Monday says:

Borrowers on stock securities have been enabled to supply their wants with less difficulty than early in the week, but there is still an uncomfortable stringency in the street. The Banks have withdrawn nearly all their accommodation on call, and many of the banking houses, especially those having accounts with Western banks and bankers, have been obliged by the loss of their deposits to call in their loans largely. There is every reason to suppose that the bank contraction must still continue so for some weeks, and new engagements requiring the use of money should be entered into cautiously. If the withdrawal of Western deposits and shipments of gold continue as now appear probable, the commercial community can depend but little on the banks for facilities. Many bank managers anticipate a contraction of the line of loans below $100,000,000, and some as low as $95,000,000. This contraction, however, will be gradual, and felt more severely in the street than in the mercantile world. Indeed, we fear that the present stringency is almost entirely in stock circles, and that the banks are generally quite easy. The specie from the interior are very good, and (but in exceptional cases, where parties have been overtrading) there is but little difficulty in meeting their engagements.

The Times of same date, says:

The Money market through the Past week was unusually stringent. This was first experienced by Street borrowers on Tuesday, the 28th inst., in which period the Cunard steamer Persia were made up and there was little or no money here, and the Canadian left New York, with but a small amount of superior quality, and may be seen at the Read Store of James Gordon, jr.
