A POSITION FOR A MAN.—We cannot think of any less desirable position than that in which Mr. Buchanan will find himself at the moment of his inauguration as President of the United States. There stands the Kansas question, and we would like to have somebody tell us how that matter will be settled! The idea that the people of the Territory are to decide upon the establishment of the institution of Slavery there is scouted at the South and has been for a long time past. Let Mr. Buchanan lay the line of justice to the questions which there await decision, let him send there his mercenary troops with orders to show equal justice to all parties, and the gangs of reptiles that infest the Territory from every den of the South, from every gambling hell of New Orleans and Mobile and from all the barbarous regions of the Platte country will find abundance of chivalrous defenders on the floors of Congress, as they have already, under the Pierce anarchy. No; the pledge has been made at the South, it has been repeated in a thousand speeches and promulgated in hundreds of newspapers, that Kansas shall be brought in as a slave State in order to restore the equality of the States on the floor of the Senate. Let slavery drag them back as it may in the popular branch, in the oligarchic, in the aristocratic scale of power, the Democratic party is pledged at the South to throw the State of Kansas and they, the lords of the Southern soil will demand that the pledge be fulfilled to the bitter end.

At the North the hoodwinked masses will begin to get their eyes open in the course of a year or so. About ten days before the election of Tuesday we travelled across the State of Ohio, and the dead walls as we passed called eloquently upon the Democracy to rally for "Buck, Breck and Free Kansas." It was their battle cry and when an orator wished to make a point or raise a cheer, he had but to say in their meetings, "we too are in favor of Free Kansas! We go for self-governmentand, we know the majority in Kansas are for freedom." Why, one of their organs in this city wound up the campaign with the declaration: "Kansas will be a Free State of course. We wish to put it on record that the State of Pennsylvania was stumped in all the Northern and Western portions at least, by men who claimed that the "Democracy" were in favor of making Kansas a Free State and if Mr. Buchanan were elected, the influence of his administration would be thrown upon the side of free institutions. We appeal to those who heard Senator Bigler and John Van Buren in this city if that was not the burden of their song. Well; if the pledge to the South be kept, what becomes of the gulled and cheated "Democracy" of the North! If the North gets its claim, look out for squalls below Mason's and Dixon's line. Such is a rough outline of the position of the Kansas matter, provided it be not settled in this Congress by some coup d'etat.

But, of that army of patriots which will go down to Washington like the Egyptian locusts, on the fourth of March next, to devour every thing "green," what can we say? Think of the scores who will be ready to put themselves to great trouble for their country's sake. Then Pierce's favorites will claim the right to remain in office because they have worked with the rest for Buchanan. What unheard of cliques, what a struggle to save the Union! We can look on from a safe distance while the Kilkenny cats eat each other up.

We need not expatiate upon the policy which Mr. Buchanan marked out for himself in the Ostend Manifesto. Cuba is to be stolen, Central America made subservient to our wishes and sectional interests, made to harmonize. A rare four years stretch out before us. The programme is full of interest. We shall watch its fulfillment with intense anxiety.

EASTERN STATES.—Fremont swept nearly every thing in the State of New York, out of New York city, Brooklyn and Troy. "Great cities," are now as they were in the days of Jefferson, "great sores on the body politic." Where people are intelligent and humane, where they read and think, they have gone in nearly solid bodies for Fremont and Freedom. New York State gives our candidate about 40,000 plurality—elects the whole Republican State ticket, 90 out of the 121 members of Assembly securing a Republican U. S. Senator in the place of Hamilton Fish, and sends to the next Congress 21 out of 33 representatives. Vermont gives Fremont from 25 to 30,000 majority in an entire vote of 50,000, Maine about 25,000; New Hampshire, the home of the present unfortunate and unhappy President of the United States, about 5,000. In Massachusetts, the State which, with Vermont, is always true to Freedom, it is difficult to tell how great Fremont's majority will be. As far as heard from he is 64,936 ahead. She has returned a clear Republican delegation to Congress. Rhode Island and Connecticut give an aggregate majority for Fremont of about 12,000. His plurality in the States above names will not fall far short, probably, of 180,000 votes. New England and New York have spoken in thunder tones.

This thing they call Fillmoreism has made a beautiful thing of itself. It was going to swallow New York whole; it was going to elect "Rastus" Governor; it was going to do wonders. In a vote of half a million in New York it has 101,000. It hasn't elected "Rastus." It hasn't elected a single member of Congress from that State. It hasn't so much as sent back to Washington S. G. Haven, law-partner of the late "American" candidate. Fillmore has carried—Maryland, 8 votes, and the Buchaniers are smiling patronizingly when they think what an excellent cat's paw Mr. Fillmore and his friends have made. They can sit now like the Dutch boy, behind the cooking-stove waiting for the second table; but he sure the hungry fist-efters will eat up all and lick the plate. Then what will the Dutch boy do?

DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED MERCHANT.—Mr. LUKE BROOKS, whose sad and untimely end is recorded in the appended extract from the Boston Atlas, was a gentleman well known and much respected in commercial circles throughout the West. He was a partner in the firm of Walter Bryant & Co., when it was first formed in this city. A worthy man, upright, and extremely liberal with the means he possessed, his loss will be deeply felt by all who had the good fortune to know him:

FATAL ACCIDENT TO A BOSTON MERCHANT.—The following sad accidents a melancholy warning against the danger at all times attending the practice of walking upon a railroad track.—On Thursday afternoon Mr. Luke Brooks, a resident of Weston, while walking on the Fitchburg Railroad between the Waverly and Waltham stations, was run over by the 4 o'clock train from Boston, and instantly killed. The accident occurred at a curve in the road, and Mr. Brooks in looking at the advancing train behind him, probably made a mistake and stepped upon the wrong track, where it is supposed he fell and could not recover himself before the train was upon him. His person was most shockingly mutilated, the head being completely severed and parts of the body scattered over the track. Mr. Brooks was about 60 years of age, and was formerly a member of the firm of Hunt & Co., leather dealers, at No. 35 Felton street, this city.—He leaves a wife and three children in affluent circumstances, his property being valued at about $100,000.

REV. ORVILLE DEWEY.—Probably there is not in all the Free States a clergyman of all the Unitarian denomination who has held what are misnamed "conservative" views in reference to the curse of Slavery, so long as the Rev. Orville Dewey. When at length the force of his convictions overcame his timidity, he came out boldly for the right and in an oration in his native town in Massachusetts last summer he spake his sentiments, co-inciding with those of his people throughout New England and the civilized world. This has provoked an answer from certain slaveholders in Charleston, South Carolina, which is quite severe upon the Doctor. They attempt to show the fallacy of his arguments and conclude as follows:

"Your remarks then on Slavery are a series of fallacies only.

1st. You prefer the brute liberty of the wild savage to the servitude which alone can give him civilization and Christianity; the savage himself deciding differently—you sacrifice the life of the civilized man to preserve this civilization, and you think the African's savage Freedom too precious to exchange for it.

2d. You mistake the question—it is not whether we shall make freemen slaves by violence, but whether we shall hold those as slaves who have never been free; it is not whether we shall seize on a farm by arson and murder, but whether we shall keep one inherited from our fathers.

3d. You change your moral and political relations with the South, because it has changed its opinions and you tell us at the same time that the South is not changed—you prefer the opinion under which Slavery would die out and the slaves disappear, and look with horror to their increase in number and intelligence as disastrous to the country, forgetting that this is inhumane; that the slaves have already increased in proportion, you apprehend not to the danger but the profit of the country, and that a Christian African is more easily governed than an African savage.

4. You think it more consistent with sound morality to believe Slavery a sin, and to tolerate it, than to believe it no sin and to maintain and defend it.

5. You believe that Southern parents send their sons to the North to avoid the demoralization of their homes; and you know that where one youth goes to Colleges at the North five hundred are sent to those at home.

6. You threaten us with the coming social ostracism of the civilized world if we retain our principles; and you disregard the religious ostracism of the Christian world condemning your own.

7. You profess to believe that a Slave State cannot exist without being sustained; and you know that the great nations of the world, the richest, strongest, most learned, most refined, have been all Slave States.

We have resorted to recriminations with reluctance and pain. We make them in self-defence only. Then, surely, if every "to recriminate is just." When we are unjustly, falsely and scandalously assailed, we owe it to ourselves and to the world's opinion, which you so much revere, to protest against the wrong and to show the unworthiness of those who make the attack. We lament the necessity. We would gladly return to the mutual respect and confidence that prevailed with North and South at the close of the Revolution, and for thirty years afterwards. We have no sympathy with those who desire the destruction of the Federal Union. We would joyfully preserve it and see its great and growing resources devoted, as they are, to the arts of peace rather than wasted on the necessities of war. And this we say with the perfect conviction that, if the South should form a separate Republic, it would grow in strength and wealth, compact and complete, terres atque rotundus,—able to defy all enemies, and to confer benefits on every ally and friend. But to preserve peace and the Union, your eternal attacks on us must cease. There can be no peace if you are forever presenting to us a sword.

We have no ill-will towards you, Dr. DEWEY. Your conduct produces no feeling among us so strong as resentment. It would have been wiser and purer for you, we think, to keep aloof, within the serene air of your hopeful and genial philosophy. But if you prefer the slough of party turmoil to the shady grove and smooth shaven green, we can only leave you to your mire, pity your moral taste, and hope to see and hear you no more."

A KANSAS COURT.—A correspondent of the New York Times writing from Leavenworth gives the following graphic description of a SCENE IN THE MAYOR'S COURT AT LEAVENWORTH.

One Pat Hagan, of New York City, a proprietor of a gambling room, was sitting at his table waiting for custom. One of the chivalry came in to try his luck. Having no money, he borrowed $10 of Pat. This amount he played and lost. Pat then demanded the $10 he had borrowed. This the borrower refused to pay. Pat then ordered him out of his place. This order he refused to comply with. A quarrel and a fight ensued, in which the Southerner was roundly thrashed by Pat. The chivalrig gentleman went to his brigade, and his companions in a solid body and under arms marched down upon Pat's place. Mayor Murphy, a Pro-Slavery man, interfered and the fight was prevented by arresting Pat and bringing him before the Mayor's Court for trial. The scene at the Court room was ludicrous, yet an awful one for a court of justice. When his Honor took his seat upon the bench, he was apparently trembling with fear. From the scene before him, he perceived his life was not worth a fig. He did not give his decision against Pat. The Court-room was crowded with the members of the brigade, all armed the teeth. Some played with their bowie knives, and others amused themselves with now and then looking at the priming of their pistols. One bull-log looking chap, with his neck drawn in like a turtle, sat directly in front of his Honor, and taking his revolver out, he held it upon his lap, and all the while he kept his benevolent-looking glance riveted upon the Mayor, to the latter gentleman's serious annoyance.—The evidence was heard, and as a matter of course the Mayor decided against Pat, censured him for his conduct, and fined him by the way of teaching him to behave better in the future.—Those revolvers were more potent than all your law-books. His Honor, the Mayor, looked at the revolvers, then at the culprit and then at the evidence, and at once saw as clearly as possible that Pat was greatly in the wrong, and punished him accordingly. It was understood by all present, that had the Mayor decided in favor of Pat, he would not have lived five minutes after the decision.

If the Republicans have been defeated this time in the race for the Presidency, they have at least consolidated a party upon a principle lasting and eternal as truth itself, and have shown the nullifiers and slavery extentionists that there is, what Mr. Webster once said there was not, "a North."

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent. payable on and after the 15th. This secures to Allegheny $10,000 on her subscription.

Official Election Returns of Allegheny County.

For all purposes of comparison, the vote given for Canal Commissioner on the 14th ultimo is all we need to reproduce. This we give in the first two columns below, and side by side with it, the vote, as officially ascertained for Presidential Electors.

The vote for the 26 Union Electors is 13,940 as above; for John C. Fremont, as an Elector, 13,778; for Millard Fillmore, as an Elector, 162.

MICHIGAN.—A dispatch from this State says: "We have carried our State overwhelmingly for Frémont."

First the Republicans claimed the State by 10,000. They have got as high now as 20,000 and the scale still sliding up. Among the blessings which have been conferred upon the country incidentally while the right has been pro tem. put down with the defeat of Fremont, we count this the greatest vis: that Gen. Cass, the elephantine fat friend of Pierce, will be permitted to stay at home in the enjoyment of profound peace.

Another blessing and from the same State is that Peck, the facile tool of Douglas and a doughface par excellence is defeated for the House, and Michigan will be represented in the 35th Congress by an entire Republican delegation in the popular branch, with one Senator, and Stewart but two years longer to hang upon the skirts of the slave drivers.

THE CABINET—KITCHEN AND REGULAR.—The New York Times says: "We understand that Mr. Buchanan's Cabinet has been pretty well agreed upon by the New York gentlemen who expect to control the Administration. We are not posted as to the details of the anticipated programme; but the following names are already talked about:

Secretary of State—D. S. Dickinson, New York.
Post Master General—B. F. Hallett, Massachusetts.
Secretary of Treasury—R. M. T. Hunter, Virginia.
Secretary of War—John Slidell, Louisiana.

Mr. Fillmore runs lowest of the three candidates for President in his own city, county and State, as also in the Union. This is a verdict against not the man but the principles he upholds. When he ran for Controller in 1847 on the Free Territory issue, he led his ticket and carried the State by many thousands.—N. Y. Tribune.

AN EXCESS OF VIRTUE.—One of Mr. Choate's objections to the Republican party is that it points to—"the excess and outbreak of virtues by which, more surely than by vices, a country may be undone—." Nobody but Mr. Choate would ever have thought of this country being in greater danger from its virtues than its vices.

"THE CAT IS STILL" THEY GO.—The Parkersburgh Gazette states that swarms of emigrants from various sections of Virginia, are daily passing through that place and other points along the border, on their way to the Far West, in quest of rich lands, free schools and low taxes.

THE Times of last evening publishes a long list of majorities for Fillmore on steamboats and railroad cars. Considering the vote of last Tuesday, we should say this might be taken as an intimation that Mr. Fillmore ought to travel. Perhaps he will return to Rome.—Cin. Com.

THE Republicans, though beaten in the Presidential race, are not disheartened. They have made a noble race, for a one year old.

MARRIED—At "Elm Cottage," Allegheny City, on Thursday evening 6th inst., by the Rev. David Kirkpatrick, D.D., of Westminster, Maryland, Rev. JAMES ALLISON, of Sewickley, to Miss CAROLINE, daughter of the late Hon. John M. Snowden.

All the above Medicines for sale by Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER 140 Wood street, Wholesale agent and JAS. H. FLEMING, Allegheny, near R. R. Depot, whole sale agent.

A Paragraph to be Perused.—Wesbould be doing injustice to the public, whom we profess to serve, if we should remain quietly in our sanctum and deny Mr. Kennedy the credit that is his due for presenting to the afflicted the Medical Discovery; and the thousands who have been cured might well upbraid us, and the pains of the sick, and perhaps their death, might be upon our head, should we withhold the knowledge that we possess in relation to the healing powers of this medicine. After having been an eye-witness to the cure of several remarkable cases of tumor—after conversing with persons who have been cured, and since perusing the certificates of others, we cannot find terms strong enough in which to speak of this great cancer of Scrofula, Canker, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and such like evils.

Sold by Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, whole sale agent JAMES P. FLEMING, Allegheny.

Dr. Keyser's Shoulder Braces—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than 8 years past we have constantly worn the Washington Suspender Brace, manufactured by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood st., in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to its merits, it answers for a brace and suspenders, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to continually tend to bring the shoulders to their natural position and expand the chest. Women, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of enormous "skirts," should also procure these braces. Be particular in procuring the kind mentioned, as many of the braces sold are humbug. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Druggist, 140 Wood st., sign of the Golden Mortar.

Consumption Cured—Be not deceived by base imitations. Hegeman, Clark & Co's Genuine Cod Liver Oil, never disappoints, and nine years' experience has proved it superior to all others, and the only reliable cure for Consumption.

As there is a great deal of spurious oil in the market adulterated with seal oil, whale oil, &c., &c., too much care cannot be taken to procure the Genuine.

Our oil is made at our own factory in Newfoundland and each bottle has our signature over the cork, be careful to get Hegeman, Clark & Co. for since the above date Hendon, our late partner, there has been an article introduced called Rushton's, which is in no way connected with H. C. & Co. Sold by E. A. ABEL, sole agent, 74 Water st., and by druggists generally.

Important Notice to those Afflicted WITH CHRONIC DISEASES, by Dr. A. S. HEATH, New York City. Finding it impossible to attend personally to all my patients, and being unwilling to trust responsible duties to assistants or students, and for the purpose of preventing the sale of worthless and injurious quack medicines, as well as the impositions advertised under fictitious names, offering to send recipes gratis, or on receipt of letter stamps or one dollar, &c.—to obviate the above, and to accommodate patients in all parts of the country, I send medicines by mail or express, to cure any disease, for $5, unless treatment is required for a longer period than one month, when the fee is the same for each month. The fee for all surgical operations, including that for the radical cure of hernia, will depend upon the peculiarity of the case. Patients will give a full statement of all their symptoms, as the remedies are prepared with an especial reference to each case. All money letters should be registered. The first part of my illustrated work will be sent to any address on the receipt of 10 cents.

The only Medal Awarded by the New York Exhibition to the English or foreign Sauce Manufacturers has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, of whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is become daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and if esteemed for its taste and invigorating properties, is an trial use evidently tends to correct the food

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal. I can with truth say there is nothing in a traveler's basket so essential to his comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce.

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most Palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and from universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.
