A DIRTY BLACKGUARD.—If there is one man connected with the press who deserves to be cut off from all association with decent people, that person is the editor of the Beaver Dam Sentinel. His paper has reeked with the foulest calumnies upon Col. Fremont for the last three months, but he out Herods them all in his issue of yesterday by the most infamous charges possible in relation to Col. Fremont not only, but to his family. Words cannot fitly characterize such baseness.—Milwaukie paper.

It seems that such creatures as are here described, are not confined to any special locality. What is said of this Beaver Dam fellow, may as truly be said of the editor of the Pittsburgh Post, as well as of those other blackguards who are his exemplars—the editors of the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian, N. Y. Express, Cleveland Plaindealer, Ohio Statesman, Cincinnati Enquirer, &c. So utterly abandoned has the sheet become, which thus disgraces our city, that even its own party friends disown it, and grow ashamed of its mention. The Union was its humble follower, during the campaign, but at a distance. It had the inclination to be as bad but lacked the power.—The spirit indeed was willing but the flesh was weak. It would have gone as far in recklessness if it could; its short comings, in that regard, are owing entirely to its impotence.

It is a happy reflection to us, now that the protracted and heated campaign is over, and it must be a just source of pride to every member of the Republican party, that there was an almost entire freedom from personality on the part of the Republican speakers and presses through the whole canvass.

At the beginning of the present contest there seems to have been a common determination among our friends, to "consider principles and not men," in the great struggle for Freedom and Free Labor. And in spite of the many provocations to an opposite course they persevered to the end, and have conducted the canvass in a gentlemanly and forbearing spirit, worthy of the cause in which they are engaged. While Colonel Fremont whose high personal character and private worth are universally known—has been subjected to the foulest traduction, neither Mr. Fillmore nor Mr. Buchanan has received personal vituperation at the hands of the Republican party. The friends of freedom were contending for a principle, and they showed the strength of their cause by using other arguments than slander, and by refusing to raise the issue of private character in an emergency involving only questions of public policy.

The example set by the supporters of Colonel Fremont cannot fail to have a wholesome and elevating effect on American principles. The reign of such sheets as the Post must of necessity be a short one.

FREMONT RENOMINATED.—The Young Men's Central Union of New York, at a meeting held on Thursday night, passed resolutions in favor of supporting John C. Fremont and William L. Dayton as the Republican candidates for 1860. This may seem a little early for the opening of the next campaign; but it is certain that no party ever came out of a contest with more devoted attachment to its candidates than the Republican party of 1856. The bearing of those candidates has been so gallant and noble, so manly, brave and unimpeachable in the midst of trials that were hard to endure, that those who fought under their banners feel for them a deep affection which will abide long after the excitement of the struggle has passed away. It may be that by 1860 circumstances may arise sufficient to justify the choice of new leaders; but the warm affections of many thousands of hearts will cling around the heroic names of FREMONT and DAYTON: and when the bugle-call sounds the rally to the next battle-field, there will be a general rejoicing if the marshals of the mighty hosts be those who have borne themselves so gradly in the fight just ended.

THE VOTE IN ST. LOUIS.—One of the most remarkable facts connected with the election is the statement published elsewhere, which shows that the Germans of St. Louis, with other Democrats who are opposed to the slavery principles of the Buchanan party, voted for Mr. Fillmore, in consequence of which the latter carried the city and county by a large majority. This single circumstance shows that the opposition to modern Democracy is deep rooted in the hearts of those who are opposed to the extension of slavery. The Democratic papers of St. Louis feel very sore about the matter. The Democrat says:

"The tabular statement to which we refer our readers, shows that Fillmore has carried this city by at least a thousand majority. Such a result was not anticipated by the friends of either Buchanan or Fillmore, for it was beyond the reach of any estimate made prior to the event.—The causes of this anomalous vote we shall exhibition on early occasion, but in the mean time we may remark that the violent sectional proscriptive spirit manifested by the nullification "national Democratic press," abusing in the vilest terms the men in whom the Democracy of St. Louis have confidence, and denouncing all those who do not swallow the "buck nigger" as abolitionists, repelled and disgusted thousands. The Leader, Pilot, and the odious and insignificant politicians of which, with few exceptions, the Buchanan electoral ticket was composed, are the causes of this partial defeat.

HONOR TO THE GERMANS.—From every quarter we hear the highest praise from our cotemporaries of the manliness shown by the Germans in the late contest. We have already borne witness to the devotion shown by them, here, to the cause of freedom, and have copied a similar testimony from the Cincinnati Gazette. The Chicago Tribune says:

"It may be invidious to draw distinctions—but we cannot forbear speaking of the upright and resolute conduct of the Germans, Norwegians, and those who sustained Freedom. They stood up boldly, and like men, for our common rights and our common country. They rebuked party at the proper juncture—and fought for principle with an invincible courage. All honor to our patriotic brothers for their heroic conduct."

The Detroit Tribune says:

"All honor to the German Republicans of Detroit! They marched up in a solid column at the call of Freedom. They split no tickets, but keeping sight of the noble principle at stake, they voted directly for it. In this contest, we acknowledge with high gratification the influential part they have borne. They not only voted with us, but they have worked for us early and late."

THE RESULT OF BUCHANAN'S ELECTION.—The New Orleans Bulletin, a leading southern paper, publishes a letter from a Philadelphia politician to a southern friend, from which it selects the following as a text:

"I declare to you honestly and truly, my belief that if Mr. Buchanan is thus elected, it will create such a Northern feeling and excitement that it will sweep over the country like a whirlwind, and nothing can stop it."

The Bulletin adds the following comments:

"We think there can be no doubt in the mind of well informed and candid men that the election of Mr. Buchanan would infuse such vigor into the Free Soil party proper, would so excite the passions of the Northern people as to cause the Black Republicans to sweep the entire northern section at the next State elections; and make them invincible. It would excite there the same feelings of humiliation and degradation and indignation which would be excited in the South by the election of Fremont."

If Mr. Buchanan adopts the policy marked out for him by the South, as he probably will, the valedictions of the Bulletin will in the end prove true.

THE FUTURE.—We are pleased to note on all hands the buoyant tone of the Republican press, and the convictions they utter as to the results of Buchanan's election upon our political organization. They all have the most unbounded faith in the future and the prospect which it affords of success to a party which has achieved so much in so short a time. The following article from the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer expresses sentiments now very generally entertained:

"The election has proved that the great body of the Northern people are utterly and steadfastly opposed to the Pro-Slavery course of the General Government, which has been entered upon by the present Administration; and which Mr. BUCHANAN, it is believed, has undertaken to follow. New England has planted herself in the path of that policy, with the firmness of her own everlasting hills. SIXTY THOUSAND majority in Massachusetts, TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND in Maine, TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND in Vermont, FIVE THOUSAND in New Hampshire, SEVEN THOUSAND in Connecticut, FOUR THOUSAND in Rhode Island—in effect make New England as one man in defence of the right. Its delegation to the next House of Representatives, without a single exception will be Republican—every man of them incorruptible and unswerving. This fact alone arms the Republican party with tremendous moral power. New England, with its universal intelligence, its energy, its religious character, and its ties of relationship, through its emigrant sons, with the Middle and Northern States, exercises a most potent influence upon Northern character and opinions; and the party that is impregnable there cannot fail of being strong in every Free State. We not only have New England by this tremendous aggregate majority of ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND, but we have the Empire State of New York, with a purality of SIXTY THOUSAND, and the great State of Ohio with a plurality of less magnitude. In every one of the Western States the Republican party has great strength, and in none of them is it more firmly established than in the two youngest—Wisconsin and Iowa. The Republican party, as will be testified by this election, is ONE MILLION TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND strong in the Northern States. It is made up, in large measure, of the best portion of society—men of understanding and eminence. It is strongest where society is the purest—in the country, not in the town or city.—There is nothing of the hot-bed character about it—is of genuine country growth of pure sap, deep root, solid grain, and a vigor that defies the storm.

Again, there is reason for congratulation in the fact that the Fillmore party has, in this election, received its final quietus. It has shown itself, where capable at all, capable only of mischief. In New England it has displayed a pusilness that makes it positively pitiful. In Vermont it does not obtain one-hundredth part of the popular vote—in New Hampshire not one-hundredth part—in Maine not one-thirtieth part—in Massachusetts not one-ninth part—in Connecticut not one-twentieth part—in Rhode Island not one-twentieth part. In New York, which was considered its peculiar Northern stronghold, it has not received more than one-fifteenth of the popular vote. In Ohio not one-twentieth. In other North-Western States, it has exhibited but the merest flicker of existence. In Pennsylvania and New Jersey, it has manifested just strength enough, when united with malignity, to give the States to BUCHANAN, but not enough to accomplish the slightest result; thing for which the South, it has carried just one State, and that by a slender majority, its fate generally in that section has been a miserable discomfiture. As represented at Washington, the Fillmore party will be reduced to a mere figment. E. JOY MORRIS of Philadelphia is the only Fillmore member of Congress elected from the Northern States, and he owes his success to Republican votes. Members of Congress from the Southern States are yet to be elected, but there is no probability that more than twenty of them at most, will belong to the party which now sustains MILLARD FILLMORE. No party that is hopeless to this extremity can long maintain itself. The life is already out of it. It cannot revive. It is impossible to breathe into it a living, re-sustaining, principle. Its destiny is sealed.

Again, had Colonel FREMONT been elected, though he might have prevented much evil, that will now surely ensue, yet his administration, in the lack of positive power, however discreet, would have operated to the prejudice of his party. With the Senate and the House so strongly against him, he would have been in the most invidious of all official positions—subject to responsibility without commensurate power. Colonel FREMONT and his party would have been held accountable for evils entirely beyond their control, and no means would have been left unemployed by the dominant party in Congress to bring embarrassment and discredit upon his administration. So far as the material interests of the Republican party go, it is better that the Slavery-extending policy should receive yet further development, as it will be sure to do under Mr. Buchanan, and that it may be made so apparent as to render further nonconception a thing absolutely impossible. The party is young: it can afford to wait, and by waiting it will only become better compacted and knit together, and able, when finally in power, to discharge its duties with a firm will and unencumbered hand.

In spite of the immense official power wielded against it by the Administration; in spite of the monstrous abuses practiced at the ballot-box in the large cities; in spite of the miserable calumnies heaped directly against its candidate; in spite of the lack of organization and of discipline necessarily incident to a party of recent origin, and in spite of treacherous allies and unconscionable foes, the Republican party has maintained itself most nobly in this contest. It has shown a strength which its enemies cannot help respecting, and which, if they were wise as they are not, would, by its mere moral effect, deter them from the innovations and aggressions they are now bent upon following up and completing.

The Free North-West has covered itself with glory. Illinois, the home of Douglas and Richardson, has united with Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, New York and New England in favor of Fremont. Richardson is, of course, beaten for Governor, and Douglas, if he has any regard for the taunts and taunts which he hurled at his colleague last winter, will be compelled to resign! He will probably make this a stepping stone to a seat in Buchanan's Cabinet, while a Republican takes his place in the Senate.

All the States shielded from Slavery by the immortal Ordinance of '87, Indiana alone excepted, have given large majorities for extending a like shield to the remaining Territories. And Indiana, though an apparent, is no real exception. More than twenty thousand majority of the native citizens have voted with us, but these are overborne by forty thousand unnaturalized immigrants, who are mainly allowed to vote by her Constitution, and who have gone in solid mass against the cause of Free Labor. But for them, the North-West would have shown an unbroken front for Free Soil and Freedom.

The Republican leaders in Illinois supposed they could carry 20,000, and possibly 25,000, majority north of the National Road. The People have given THIRTY-FIVE THOUSAND, throwing a fire ball into Egypt, and carrying the State for Fremont by 10,000 plurality. So much for Free Labor, Free Schools, and a Free Press.

Wisconsin elects three Republicans to Congress—one gain. The triumph insures another Republican Senator in the next Congress.—N. Y. Trib.

GOV. GEARY A SLAVEHOLDER.—The Pro-Slavery course of Gov. Geary in subduing the Free State party in Kansas, has been a matter of surprise to many, but need be no longer. He is one of those Northern slaveholders—owning and working men—in the South, who are fit tools of Pierce, Buchanan, Wise, Brooke, Atchison, Stringfellow, Douglas, Soule and the Border Ruffians, in making Kansas a slave State. It is no longer a marvel that Pro-Slavery robbers and murderers go entirely "unchkipt of justice," under Geary's administration. The Lecompton correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, under date of Oct. 23, writes:

"Gov. Geary cannot disguise his real sentiments or sit on the fence any longer. That he is a Pro-Slavery man is well known. He owns a large number of negroes in Virginia, where he has an extensive iron establishment worked by slaves. He told a free State man on whom he wished to make a good impression, last week, that he meant to sell his slaves in Virginia; but he sought to gain the good opinion of the Free State men at Washington, before his appointment, by announcing the same to them. Yet he still holds the slaves, and nobody doubts here that he will continue to do so, unless Buchanan's election should so enhance the price of negroes in Virginia that he should find it profitable to realize."

PITTSBURGH AND ERIE RAILROAD.—A meeting of the Directors of the Erie and North East Rail Road was held in this city on Thursday last for the purpose of making final arrangements preparatory to commencing work on the Pittsburg and Erie Road. The Board after a careful examination of the surveys and estimates determined to adopt the route one and a half miles west of Connecautville, that route being preferred on account of its light grades and directness. Twenty five miles of the road will be put under contract at once and work commenced.—We have every assurance that this important public improvement will be pushed forward with energy to completion. It is one of the most advantageous roads yet projected towards our city and the prospect of its ultimate success will give a new impetus to the growth and prosperity of our city. When completed, with its connections, it will form the nearest and quickest route from the Southwest to Philadelphia, New York and Boston, and undoubtedly be the great. east freight thorough fare in the Union.—Erie Constitution.

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—It transpired here to-day that after the meeting of the Legislature Sumner will be re-elected Senator, but will decline, and Anson Burlingame will be elected his successor.

No Roman Power could have defeated JOHN C. FREMONT on the basis of his own merits, connected with the platform upon which he stood. Cut loose from all entangling alliances early in the campaign—especially alliance with Fillmoreism in the Eastern Counties of the State—he would have passed over the course triumphantly. If he is defeated, it will be by reason of the circumstances in which he was placed by a species of unpardonable political management, confined principally to the meridian of Philadelphia.—Erie Gazette.

These reflections are in the main just. We are not prepared to say that the State could have been carried for Fremont under any other possible management; but the fact is patent to almost every understanding, that his chances would have been better had the control of the campaign not fallen chiefly into the hands of Philadelphians.

We have no fault to find with our Philadelphia friends, as men or as Republicans. We know that all of them who acted with us were actuated by the best of motives and a sincere devotion to the cause of freedom. But there seems to be a fatality which tells against them as politicians, and which arises, we have no doubt, from their being absorbed so much in their own city affairs as to know little or nothing about the rest of the State.

It was the remark of an eminent politician in New York that so long as New York city was Whig it was impossible for the Whigs to carry the State. It was only when the city became permanently locofoco that the State could be rescued from the hands of the spoiler. The State, outside of the city, was relieved from bad leaders only when those leaders were out of power at home. The same may be as truly said of Pennsylvania. Now that Philadelphia has become hopelessly locofoco, the Buchaniers of the State will come naturally under the management and control of Philadelphia politicians; while the opposition, looking elsewhere for its strength, will find its leaders elsewhere also.

MARRIED—On Thursday, 6th inst., in this city, by the Rev. A. W. Fulton, Mr. JOHN FERGUSON to Miss MARY MCDOWELL, all of this city.

We wish the happy couple all that felicity of enjoyment which the relation they have assumed may yield.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WORMS! WORMS!!—Various theories have been started relative to the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are interested, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At the season of the year, the attacks of worms are most frequent as well as most dangerous. We take great pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermifuge of Dr. McLane, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of success when tried.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. MCLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and Canada. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS

Having tried Mr. Solomons' Glasses, I find them well calculated and soothing to the sight, more, in fact, judging from a short trial, than any I have yet used. I recommend them to the patronage of those in need of glasses. J. M. J. SPALDING, Bishop.

MR. SOLOMONS—Sir: Having tested the merits of the Spectacles obtained from you, induces me to express the pleasure I have received from them; they suit my eyes to admiration. I can now see all common objects by candle light, as well as by day, with the same ease as when a boy, which I could not do with any other glasses I have used. It affords the greatest pleasure to avail myself of this method of testifying how efficacious they have been my own experience of your skill as an optician.
Detroit, Nov. 3d, 1852. PETER LEFEVER, Bishop.

FROM THE MAYOR OF ROCHESTER.

ROCHESTER, April 7, 1851.
MR. SOLOMONS—Sir: Having called at your office in the Arcade, and purchased two pair of your patent glasses, I have found them superior to any I have ever used before; they have really more than I could have expected. I have now used them awhile, and can see without them as well as I could when a boy.

A Paragraph to be Perused.—We should be doing injustice to the public, whom we profess to serve, if we should remain quietly in our sanctum and deny Mr Kennedy the credit that is his due for presenting to the afflicted his Great Natural Discovery; and the thousands who have been cured might well upbraid us; and the pains of the sick, and perhaps their death, might be upon our head, should we withhold the knowledge that we possess in relation to the healing powers of this medicine. After having been an eye-witness to the cure of several remarkable cases of hemor—after conversing with persons who have been cured, and since perusing the certificates of others, we cannot find terms strong enough in which to speak of this great curer of Scrofula. Dr. Keyser's Shoulder Braces—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than 3 years past we have constantly worn the Washington Suspender Brace, manufactured by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood st., in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to the merits, it answers for a brace and suspenders, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to confine the trunk to bring the shoulders to their natural position and expand the chest. Woman, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of enormous "skirts," should also procure these braces. Be particular in procuring the kind mentioned, as many of the braces sold are humbug. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Druggist, 140 Wood st, sign of the Golden Mortar.

Important Notice to those Afflicted WITH CHRONIC DISEASES, by Dr. A. S. HEATH, New York City. Finding it impossible to attend to all my patients, and being unwilling to trust such responsible duties to assistants or students, and for the purpose of suppressing the sale of worthless and injurious quack nostrums, as well as the impositions practiced under fictitious names, offering to send recipes gratis, or on receipt of letter stamps or one dollar, &c.—to obviate the above, and to accommodate patients in all parts of the country, I send medicines, with full directions, for any disease, for $5, unless treatment is required for a longer period than one month, when the fee is the same for each month. The fee for all surgical operations, including that for the radical cure of hernia, will depend upon the peculiarity of the case. Patients will give a full statement of all their symptoms, as the remedies are prepared with an especial reference to each case. All money letters should be registered. The first part of an integrated work will be sent to any address on the receipt of 10 cents.

The only Medal Awarded by the New York Exhibition to the English or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, or their whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the first Sauce extant.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and it esteemed for its tone and invigorating properties, its has final use enabling the stomach to digest the food.
On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to Lea & Perrins thus: "I have received a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use, your Sauce is delicious, and I think needful to meat with truth: there is nothing in a traveler's baggage so essential to his comfort, at least in those countries, as your Sauce.
In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most Palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."
This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and is universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.
