Davy and Barou Alexander de Humboldt as my protectors. I ask one hundred brare companions, well equipped, to start for Siberis, in the fall season, with reindeer and sleighs, on the ice of the Iroxen sea. I engage we find warm and rich land, stocked with thritty vegetables and animals, if not man, on reaching one degree northward of latitude 32. We will return in the succeding spring.

"To his Excellency Gov. William Clark."

The above is topled into a number of Niles's Register for 1818, from an Ohlo journal, which wondnes for Symmessa a man of intelligence and respectability.

Eightr-six Peruvian Laman arrived recently at Havana, having been imported for the Cuben authorities by Mr. Rohen, a French naturalist. A considerable reward had been affered to the first person who should succeed in introducing these useful animals into the island.

NEW GRANADA AND ENGLAND .-- It was stated under our telegraph head yesterday that Eng-land had suspended diplomatic relations with the English filter and been ordered to enforce the claim. It appears this claim arose under the Columbian confederacy, more than thirty years sgo, and amounts to $485,205. The British Charge recently made a peremptory demand for navment. Now Grands are recognized to the confederacy of the confeder
