PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

Be Kind.

Be kind to thy father—for lo, on his brow
Many traces of sorrow are seen:
O, well may'st thou cherish and comfort him now,
For loving and kind he hath been;
Be kind to thy father—for now he is old,
His locks intermingled with gray;
His footsteps are feeble, once fearless and bold;
Thy father is passing away.

Be kind to thy mother—for when thou wert young,
Who loved thee so fondly as she?
She caught the first accents which fell from my tongue,
And joined in thine innocent glee.
Remember thy mother—for thee will she pray,
As long as God giveth her breath;
With accents of kindness, then, cheer her lone way,
E'en to the dark valley of death.

Be kind to thy brother—his heart will have death,
If the smile of thy love be withdrawn:
The flowers of feeling will fade at their birth,
If the dew of affection be gone,
Be kind to thy brother; wherever thou are,
The love of a brother shall be
An ornament richer by far
Than pearls from the depth of the sea.

Be kind to thy sister—not many may know
The depth of true sisterly love,
The wealth of the ocean lies fathoms below
The surface that sparkles above.
Thy kindness shall bring to thee many sweet hours,
And blessings thy pathway crown;
Affection shall weave the garland of flowers,
More precious than wealth or renown.

A GOOD ONE.—There is a distinguished Democratic politician in Mississippi, says the Memphis Empire, remarkable for the recklessness of his assertions on the stump, who is not unfrequently called "The Well Digger." The other day, so it is reported, an old man, a Tennessean, was introduced to him directly after one of his speeches in the State, who remarked—

"Well, Governor, I think you are the man who is sometimes called the 'Well Digger!'"

"Yes," said the Governor, "I believe they do sometimes call me that; but the truth is I never dug a well in my life."

"I thought so," said the countryman. 'They say 'Truth lies at the bottom of a well,' and from your speech to-day, I should judge that you had never been there."

A PARSIMONIOUS MOTHER.—The greatest parsimony in the matter of nome, occurred a few years ago in a country village of our acquaintance. A woman quite notorious for skimping her husband as well as her children, having given birth to a child some two or three months before, was called on by a neighbor one winter day, and the conversation between the two women naturally enough turned upon domestic matters. Among other things the name of the infant was asked. The mother at once replied, "Oh, la! Mrs. G., we haven't given it any name yet, I kind o' thought I would wait and see if it would winter through."

A FORCIBLE REMONSTRANCE.—A worthy old English farmer, who most thoroughly detested taxes and tax-gatherers, was once called on by a collector a second time for taxes he had once paid, but for which he had mislaid the receipt; and as he told the story to his friend, "Would you believe it, sir,—the fellow began to abuse me." "Well," said his friend, "what did you do?" 'Do! Why I remonstrated with him.' 'And to what effect?' 'Well, I don't know to what effect, but the poker was bent."

THE WRONG SHOP.—"Dr. X——in?" 'Don't live here,' says P——, who was in full scribble, without looking up.

"Oh I thought this was his office."

"Next door."

"Pray, sir, can you tell me has the doctor many patients?"

"Not living."

The quiet gentleman was never more heard of in the vicinity, but the story was, and Dr. X—— threatened to sue P——for libel.

PITTSBURGH CHEMICAL AND VARNISH WORKS
FITCH & CO.

RESPECTFULLY inform Druggists and Dealers in Varnishes generally that they have for some time been engaged in the preparation of all descriptions of Copal and other VARNISHES, and are now prepared to supply their friends and the public generally with articles of the very best manufacture, made of the best material, and selected with the greatest care and on the most favorable terms.

FITCH & CO. intend to devote themselves to cultivating a first class trade, and have no doubt that their articles, for strength, purity and delicacy of color, will be found equally low with any of the eastern manufacturers, being determined that no article shall leave their works but of approved and tested quality, they only ask for a trial and a share of public patronage.

To our fine Body COACH VARNISH we would call particular attention. This article is equal to any English Coach Varnish of the very best brands, being made exclusively under the process of the first class English houses, by Mr. Thomas Broadhurst, who for many years was employed in some of the most extensive establishments in England and Scotland.

Our Anti-Corrosive BLACK VARNISH we would particularly recommend to Founders, Blacksmiths, and Manufacturers of Iron generally. Its peculiar qualities prevent oxydization entirely, which is a great desideratum in those using varnish for iron, and preferable to any heretofore used for that purpose.

All orders left at Messrs. JOHN IRWIN & SONS' Front street, will be promptly attended to or with FITCH, 127 Third st. jy26-ly

NEW DISCOVERY FOR DEAFNESS.

The Sound Concentrator is an ordinary, powerful, newly invented small instrument, for the cure of extreme cases of deafness, entirely different from any and every invention from all others, surpassing everything of the kind that has ever been offered to the public. It brings back to the cavity of the ear, and may rest within without pressing, the long lost string of vibrations, hence perceptible. The powers of this valuable instrument are so great as to give the defective hearing of long standing a perfect and natural tone, rendering the most delicate whisper audible in general conversation, to hear most distinctly at a place of worship, at the bar and many public assemblies, the unpleasant sensation of ringing noises in the ear is entirely removed, and the conversation rendered to individuals afflicted with this dreadful malady, all the acceptance that can possibly be desired.

HOW IT CAME TO BE KNOWN.

When I first commenced practice in New York some 20 years ago, my attention was almost immediately called to the many fatal consequences of the use of Mercury, and for which no certain or successful mode of treatment could be adopted, I began to make my researches, and after all in all its most virulent forms, and after ten years of almost unparalleled success, I felt myself called upon to give the "Scrofulous Antidote" in my practice, with the effect of "MAKING THIS MEDICINE" known to the world. In my practice over eight years, and scarcely a case of incurable, (without advertising in the newspapers) from recommendations of those who had been cured, has come to my mouth, that I have determined to give the suffering throughout the country, the benefit of the wonderful curative properties. I can fully assure those who may feel disposed to try it, that it is perfectly harmless, and a Purely Vegetable Preparation.

And has made more permanent cures than all other medicines put together. I have now in my book over one hundred UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS which can be seen and read by all who desire it, and not one of them are ordinary cases, but such as to inspire the

UTMOST CONFIDENCE

In this medicine to any, however incredulous.
