PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

"Never Court But One."

I have finished it, the letter,
That will tell him he is free;
From this hour, and forever
He is nothing more to me!
And my heart feels lighter, dearer,
Since the deed at last is done;
I will teach him that when courting,
He should never court but one.

Every body in the village
Knows he's been a wooing me;
And this morning he was riding
With that saucy Anna Lee.
They say he smiled upon her,
As he canter'd by her side,
And I'll warrant you he purmis'd
To make her soon his bride.

But I've foiled it, the letter,
From this moment he is free—
He may have her if he wants her,
If he loves her more than me.
He may court—I will not kill me—
I would say the same, so there,
If I knew it would do for him.
It is more than I can bear.

It is twilight and the evening
That he said he'd visit me—
But no doubt he's now with Anna,
He may stay there too, for me!
And as true as I'm a living,
If he ever comes here more,
I'll act as if we never—
Never, never met before.

It's time he should be coming,
And I wonder if he will?
If he does I'll look so coldly—
What's that shadow on the hill?
I declare, 'tis in the twilight.
There is some one coming near—
Can it be he?—yes, 'tis his figure—
Just as true as I am here!

Now I almost wish I'd written
Not to him that he was free,
For perhaps I was but a simpleton
That he rode with Anna Lee.
There he's coming thro' the gate-way,
I will meet him at the door,
And I'll tell still I love him,
If he'll court Miss Lee no more!

A LARGE FEE.—Sir Astley Cooper, the celebrated surgeon, is said to have received the largest fee ever given for an operation. It was upon an old gentleman seventy years of age, a resident of the West Indies, who being afflicted, went to England to undergo an operation. It was performed with Sir Astley Cooper's accustomed ability; and upon visiting him one day, when he was able to quit his bed, he observed to his surgeon that he had feed his physician, but not his surgeon. He desired to know the amount of his debt, and Sir Astley replied: 'Two hundred guineas.' 'Pooh! pooh!' exclaimed the old gentleman, 'I shan't give you two hundred guineas; there, that is what I shall give you!' taking off his nightcap and tossing it to Sir Astley. 'Thank-you, sir,' said the surgeon; 'anything from you is acceptable;' and he put the cap in his pocket. Upon examination, it was found to contain a check for a thousand guineas.—Medical Journal.

LITERALLY A "SURPRISE" PARTY.—People who go upon surprise parties ought by all means to avoid a case. One of these called upon a respectable merchant in Albany the other night, and were very much surprised indeed to find him inebriated on the front stairs, while his wife, with a black eye and bruised face, was bathing his temples with ice water. The surprise party, no doubt speedily retired.

'PROSE AND VERSE' is the title of one of Mark Lemon's late books. Douglas Jerrold was asked for his opinion of it. 'Prose and—Worse,' replied the wit. Neat, but severe, that.

An enterprising but ignorant South American has sent to an Albany locomotive shop for one hundred 'cow catchers.' He expects to use them in taking wild cattle on the plains of Paraguay, in place of the lasso.

PITTSBURGH CHEMICAL AND VARNISH WORKS
FINCH & CO.,
RESPECTFULLY inform Druggists and Dealers in Varnishes generally that they have for some time been engaged in the preparation of all descriptions of Gum and other Varnishes, and are now prepared to supply their friends and the public generally with articles of the very finest manufacture, made of the best material, and finished with the greatest care and on the most reasonable terms.
FINCH & CO. intend to devote themselves to cultivating a first class trade, and to that end have their Chemical Works fitted up with every convenience for the purpose, and will give satisfaction in every case, or no sale. Their tariff of prices will be found equally low with any of the makers of inferior articles, being convinced that a first class article always finds its best works but of approved and tested quality, they only ask for a trial to make a share of public patronage.
To our fine Body COACH VARNISH we would call particular attention. This article is equal to any Coach or Coach Varnish of the very best brands, being made exactly after the process of the celebrated Coach Varnish of Mr. Thomas Douglass, who for many years was engaged in some of the most extensive establishments in England and Scotland.
Our Anti-Corrosive BLACK VARNISH we would particularly recommend to Iron Founders, Boilermakers, and Manufacturers of Iron generally. Its peculiar qualities prevent oxydation entirely, which is a great desideratum to those using varnish for iron, and preferable to any Japan Black and other compounds.
All orders left at Messrs. JOHN IRWIN & SONS' Front street, will be punctually attended to; or with J. FINCH, 127 Third st. je30:dly

To Consumers of Pickles.
BELIEVING that the Public have become tired of purchasing Pickles in Packages, holding, in many cases, fifty per cent. less than represented, we have commenced putting up, in addition to our present second size, an article which we are labelling "WM. UNDERWOOD & CO'S EXTRA PICKLES," and are selling into full sized jars, which are legibly stamped in the glass, with their exact contents—12 Ounces—thus enabling the consumer to verify their truth.
These Extra Pickles are put up with every regard to style, quality and flavor, and will be sold at fairly remunerating prices.
We have made no change in our manner of Greasing Pickles, never having resorted to any deleterious means to attain this end. Olive Oil and Wine, which we use in the manufacture of our Pickles, is purified from Pickle made from sound fruit, and is entirely free from Vitriol or any other mineral acid, which is not the case with that used in most branch of English Pickles found in this country.

Pittsburgh Hedge Farm Nursery,
SITUATED on Wilkins Avenue, about one quarter mile from the second toll-gate on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Plank Road, an extension of Penn street, and about three and a quarter miles from Pittsburgh.
W. & J. JAS. MURDOCH, Proprietors.
They offer for sale a very large collection of well grown trees and plants suitable for transplanting this fall and coming spring.
The Nursery now covers some 30 acres of ground and contains over 200,000 Apple trees, Dwarfs and Pears, and over 10,000 fruit trees, and 20,000 Evergreens and Shrubs, ornamental and rare.
Plants carefully packed and sent according to directions to any part of the United States.
We beg leave to call the attention of the lovers of ornamental trees and vines in the trade to our unrivaled collection for the Spring of 1857, embracing all that is new and rare for family, indigenous and Exotic, that is worthy of cultivation in this section of country. Plants can be procured of many, though quite large to give immediate effect in the shortest time, and at the same color of the trees as not perceptible. The powers of this valuable invention are so great as to restore effectively a piece of long standing that is perfect and natural estate, and to enable deaf persons to join in general conversation, to hear most distinctly, in a place of worship, at the hear most distinctly; the unpleasant sensation of ringing noises in the ear is entirely removed, and even comfort, that his prevention contains to individuals afflicted with this dreadful malady, all the satisfaction that can possibly be desired.
PITTSBURGH June 6th, 1853.
I am happy in bearing my feeble testimony in favor of Mr. Solomons' Eye Glasses. I think them superior to any that I have used. The eyes seem to rest readily upon them.
G. McCOOKEN, M. D.,
Late Professor in Washington University, Baltimore.
PITTSBURGH, June 8th, 1853.
I am using a pair of Mr. Solomons' Glasses, and find them very satisfactory. You may use my name to the number of those who recommend them.
JOSEPH G. GAZZAM, M. D.

From what I have observed in the use of Mr. Solomons' Glasses, I can concur in adding my testimony to the foregoing recommendations of the Faculty.
JAMES KING, M. D.
WHEELING, Oct 6th, 1855.
I have tried for a short time, a pair of spectacles furnished by Mr. G. Solomons, and take pleasure in testifying to their superior quality. I have used for years the concave glasses for Mrs. Houston, which in their effects are equally pleasing and satisfactory.
M. H. HOUSTON, M.D.

NEW YORK, June 14th, 1850.
Having made a trial of Solomons' Spectacles, and examined the principals on which they are constructed, I have no hesitation in pronouncing them superior to any with which I am acquainted, accordingly can cordially and fully recommend them to all who need artificial aid in preserving their vision.
JAMES BRYAN, M. D.,
Professor of Pathology and Materia Medica, Geneva, Buffalo and Dowdon College.
PHILADELPHIA, June 4th, 1850.
I cordially concur, as far as my judgment goes, in the opinion of my friend and colleague, Dr. Lee, in reference to the excellence of the concave and convex glasses for farsightedness. The grinding appears to be good and clear, and the effect perfection.
JAMES HUTTON, M. D.,
Professor of Surgery, Geneva College.

I hereby certify that the Eye Glasses shown me by G. Solomons are superior in finish and less contrasting to my eyes than any I have used. For clearness of vision I cordially recommend them to all in need of glasses.

AND the various affections consequent upon a disordered Stomach or Liver. Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Oppression, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Nausea, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles, In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.
Nature finds no new enemy to combat, with this delightful tonic in the system. Its effects are immediate. It communicates no violent shock to the system, but by arousing its vital energy to action, throws off the cause, and the patient is thoroughly eradicates the disease.
When the medicinal virtues are so universally acknowledged, and particularly here, where it has become so popular as a family medicine, that it is only by name, and process, as well as all the draughts, it would seem needless, to offer further evidence, yet as there are numerous spurious and worthless articles advertised remedies, and still suffer from Dyspepsia in one or more of its dreadful forms, we deem it but right to give the following certificates, of persons of the highest standing and character, the truth of which cannot be doubted, coming as they do from persons so well known.

What it is doing for the Sick.

Wm. Schoelman, Esq., the well known Bibliographer, says: "I have frequently used Dr. Isaac's Holland Bitters, and find it invariably relieves indigestion and debility."
Rev. Samuel Babcock, says: "I found special relief from its use for a severe headache, with which I had long suffered."
W. F. Woodruff, Esq., says "I have used Boerhave's Holland Bitters myself, and recommended it to others, and have found it to be a good and reliable medicine."
Mr. Jonathan Healy, of Lower St. Clair, says: "I have derived great benefit from the use of your Holland Bitters in cases of debility and indigestion."
Mr. Jas. M. Murphy says: "After several physician had failed, Boerhave's Holland Bitters removed the pain from my heart and restored me to health."
Mr. Lefevre of the Eliz'th Free Press says: "After one of the best physicians in the place had failed, Boerhave's Holland Bitters restored me to health in a short form of days."
Mr. Francis Falls, city missionary, says: "The use of Boerhave's Holland Bitters has restored me to health, and I know that your Holland Bitters have cured others. I feel confident in the use of them for stomach or liver."
Dr. Lefevre, editor of the 'Packet,' Baltimore, pronounces it a medicine deserving the confidence of the public.
Rev. Sherman Hall, of Lockport, N. Y., says: "I have prescribed it frequently during the last 2 years, with much benefit, in cases of indigestion, debility, liver complaint, or of the system generally."
The manager of the Victory Vinegar Factory says: I used it for a very severe attack of dyspepsia and found its effect upon my wife, (troubled with the same disease for years,) truly astonishing. Indeed I will say candidly it is doing her more good than anything she has ever taken."
Mr. Spellier, of Boerhave's Bitters, says: "This is a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirits it will prove a grateful stimulant and restorative."
The unbounded popularity of the delightful Arcana has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Do not persuaded Johny and Sally that they are just as good; but insist upon BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS, with their countersign, and see that the name is on the bottle. Do not be induced to solicit the agency of any worthless article. All we can assure our friends and all those exposed to purchase the Arcana, Cassi and Railroad, that no pains will be spared to render general satisfaction to Shippers of Bitters, Harrow & Co.'s Foundry Buildings, McClarney's Auction Rooms. In Allegheny City—Messrs. Davis & Irwin, Bower street, above Ohio; Messrs. Peter Peterson's new Warehouse, Federal st., above Robinson.

never at no repose of mind—
no tranquility—
no speculation.
But a Hurried Transition from one question to another. These symptoms, it allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—may lead to Insanity, and consumption! The records of the Lunatic Asylums, and consumptive Hospitals exhibit a large sample of the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Birth or Intelligence can be found. When a sound of the voice occurs, it is rarely articulate.
In these cases, no useful measures can despair.
Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled.
A solemn gloom o'er all his features spread.
Debility is the cause of more than half of the thousands upon thousands of human beings that are hurried into untimely graves, thus blasting the ambition of many noble youths. All can be cured by the use of the Fluid Extract of Buchu.
If you are sufferers with any of the above distressing ailments, use the FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU will cure you. Try it and be convinced of its efficacy.
DIRECTIONS TO OBTAIN CURES IN MOST OF THESE DISORDERS.
Take no Mercury, Quack Nostrums and Quack Doctors, who falsely boast of abilities and references—Gibbons's Essay on Quackery tells their cunning, and save Long Suffering and Exposure, by sending for or calling for a book of this Popular and specific Remedy.
Ulcers, all pain and inflammation is perfectly pleasant in its taste and odor, but immediate in its action.
