The proprietor of this article, well aware of the great evils that exists against anything new in the practice of medicine and especially in the treatment of cases for which this is intended, invites the examination of medical men, feeling sure that it will only require to be put to the most confidence in it. Great care is taken in its manufacture to procure only the purest drugs, and only such as are warranted genuine in any person, and the whole combined cannot possibly be injurious. Circulars containing full information and testimonials can be had at the wholesale depot, 150 Bowery, second floor. This is the only article of the kind in existence. Its effects truly wonderful. When used rightly and in due season, it satisfactorily relieves the sufferings unusually attendant upon childbirth, and preserves the mental and bodily strength of the patient in a marvelous degree. It strengthens the whole system, and most pleasing in its effect throughout. The whole period of confinement. Here are a few testimonials:

(SEAL.)

JOHN W. GEARY, Governor of Kansas Territory. U. S. MARSHAL'S OFFICE, LECOMPTON, K. T., Nov. 6, 1856.

To his Excellency, John W. Geary,

Governor of the Territory of Kansas:

SIR—Your order bearing date of to-day, for the re-arrest and committal to jail of Charles Hays, who has been indicted by the Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court, for the murder of David C. Buffum, and discharged upon bail, by the Hon. Samuel D. Lecompte, Chief Justice of Kansas Territory, has been maturely considered by me, and after such consideration I respectfully decline executing this order for the following reasons:—1st. As a ministerial officer, I am unwilling to arrogate to myself the power to contravene or set aside the acts of a Court of Justice, even if I disapproved of the acts of such Court, and more especially as I am not advised of any law conferring such power upon me.

2nd. Because I am clearly of the opinion that my act would be in violation of the law I have sworn to support and execute.

3rd. In making such arrest, without a legal warrant, or other circumstances as would otherwise justify it, it is most clear to my mind that I would, myself, be liable to a suit of damages which might involve and ruin my securities.

The foregoing reasons and my own convictions of duty as a law officer have irresistably impelled me to this decision.

I must be permitted to say to your excellency, that I regret exceedingly that my convictions of duty has constrained me to decline the execution of your warrant. I had hoped that my diligence in making the arrest of C. Hays and others, would have shielded me from the imputation which your remarks this evening seem to imply. As proof of this, I beg leave to state that the warrant for his arrest issued on the 29th of October, was put in my hands the next day, and, although 100 miles had to be travelled, in four days afterwards he was lodged in prison. Your determination as expressed this evening (if I refuse to execute your order) to suspend me or remove my removal by the President, induces me to say that I had some days since, determined to discontinue my present official relation to the Territory, and I now desire the favor of you to assure the President of my gratitude for his confidence and kindness, and ask him to relieve me from my present position as soon as may be convenient.

Very respectfully, your obt. srvt.,

I. R. DONALDSON, U. S. Marshal of K. T.

This affair is likely to create considerable excitement at Lecompton among the territorial officials. The Governor sent Col. Titus out with six men; they were successful in finding and arresting Hayes. He was taken to Lecompton for confinement. Hugh M. Moore, Esq., counsel for the prisoner, put about to procure his release, and for that purpose he came to this city to see Judge Lecompte, and have him issue a writ to take him out of prison. The judge will probably do it, and the governor will undertake the task of preventing its execution.

His excellency claims the right to put his veto upon the doings of the judiciary, if it does not please him; and, like old Jackson, take the responsibility for its assumption of power.

The final termination of this affair is looked for with great interest by our people. It is believed that it will eventually end in the removal or resignation of one or both the parties concerned. Both the executive and the chief justice are most notorious for giving up in a position, once taken whatever the consequences may be.

Our people justify the governor for interposing his authority to put a stop to the conceited and unjust action of Lecompte in his persecution of free State, and granting favors to pro-slavery men—imprisoning one party and releasing the other when charged with the same offences. The governor's promptness and energy in arresting Hayes, and bringing him to justice in spite of Lecompte's opposition is to be commended, even if we cannot fully understand where he gets his authority for superseding the judiciary of the territory. Marshal Donaldson has resigned, and is now in this city. Yours, ESSEX.

THE Bank of England had lost, on its last report, £66,000 in bullion, but the showing otherwise is rather more favorable. Much anxiety is expressed about the Australian gold ship James Barnes, with $3,500,000 on board, out from Melbourne 98 days, and the fluctuations of the Continental Exchanges are also watched with lively interest.

THE Atlantic Submarine Telegraph enterprise had been placed before the English public, and the Government promptly guaranteed 4 per cent. dividend on the English allotment of £250,000 of the capital stock. The Liverpool European Times states that arrangements are already concluded for the purchase of 2,000 miles telegraph ropes, to be supplied at the rate of 100 miles a week.

THE CAMELS STOLEN.—The Mobile Tribune learns from a gentleman from Texas, that on election day at San Antonio, six horses and two camels were stolen from Captain HAYNE, of the U. S. army by the Indians.
