FACTS AND FIGURES—POWER OF THE SOUTH.—There are four Southern States which, combined, cast 35 electoral votes, just the number to which the State of New York is entitled. These States are Alabama, Louisiana, North Carolina and Georgia. We have now the official votes from all of those States; and we append them for the purpose of showing the peculiar power of the South in this confederacy. Thus:

	Buchanan.	Fillmore.	Electoral Vote.
Louisiana	20,076	18,576	6
Alabama	46,587	28,552	9
North Carolina	46,764	36,089	10
Georgia	56,417	42,362	10
	170,194	126,086	35

	Buch'n.	Fillmore.	Fremont.	Elec. Vote.
New York	195,314	124,206	276,440	35

Total vote four Southern States 296,280
" New York 594,906

It will thus be seen that New York, polling 594,960 votes, is only entitled to 35 electoral votes in the choice of a President; while four Southern States, numbering but 296,280 votes, or less than one for two, are entitled to an equal number of electoral votes. Thus 296,280 men in the South, have as much power in deciding a Presidential election as 594,960 men in the North; in other words, one southern voter wields double the power of a northern voter. This is what is called "equality" by slaveholders and doughfaces.

But let not the comparison stop here. Buchanan, in these four Southern States, gets 170,194 votes from the people, which entitles him to 35 electoral votes; while Fremont gets in New York 276,440 votes, or more than 100,000 majority over the vote given to his competitor in the States named, and yet gets but 35 electoral votes. With the advantages of over 100,000 majority of the popular vote he has no advantage whatever in the electoral vote.

The facts go to show the injustice and inequality of our electoral system. While the South is clamoring for an equal right with the North to take her "property" to the new territories, let us demand an equality of electoral power. Let us have equality all round, if that is the game. She now possesses double the electoral power that is accorded to us. Her fifties are equivalent to our hundreds at the ballot-box. She ought to be content with this advantage, and leave the territories to us; but as she is not, let us inscribe on our banners the abolition of the electoral colleges and the choice of the President by a direct vote of the people. It is time for the Southern chevaliers to come down off their high horses and foot it along with us. There must be no favored class in this Republic. One man's vote ought to be as powerful as another's at the polls.

We have chosen New York as a point of comparison, because she is the largest State. The comparison grows more glaring when applied to Pennsylvania, Georgia, North Carolina and Louisiana, with 26 electors, poll 221,091 votes; Pennsylvania, with 27 electors, polls, 460,248 votes—more than two to one.

There is something humiliating and belittling in contemplating such facts as these. The Louisiana slaveholder thinks it is hard that the government should shut his slaves out of the national territories; are they not "property," he asks? But the possession of this "property" makes his vote at the Presidential election equal to that of any two men in the North. Is not that enough for him? If not, let him beware lest he lose it, and with it his much-noised claim to take his "property" where he lists.

RELATIVE RANK OF CITIES.—We see going the rounds of the press a table of the total vote cast in the most prominent cities of the Union, beginning with New York, 79,086, and ending with Troy, 5,362; but PITTSBURGH has no place in the list, notwithstanding she polled a heavier vote than many cities whose names are paraded in it.

The total vote in the nine Wards of the city proper, but embracing but a moiety of what is known as Pittsburgh, was 7,066; Allegheny city polled 3,550; and the boroughs immediately adjacent 3,225—in all 13,841. This was some thousands more than was polled in Buffalo, Chicago or St. Louis, and places PITTSBURGH in the third rank of cities.

We have long noticed the fact, and never met with a sufficient explanation of it, that PITTSBURGH, with a population of 100,000, is almost invariably left out of the lists of statistics which are so frequently framed concerning the cities of the Union. In such lists, the reader will see the names paraded not only of one-horse cities but frequently of towns that do not aspire to rank as cities; while PITTSBURGH, as a rule, is excluded. May we ask why? Is it because we lack that keep-it-before-the-people pertinacity which is characteristic of some cities, or does it arise from a sort of wilful oversight or ignorance?

OUR MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—Since the Presidential Election, two municipal elections have taken place—one in Hartford, Conn., and the other at Indianapolis, Ind. In both of these have the Republicans been successful, in the former by 362 majority, and in the latter by 223. The Buchaniers had adecided majority in Indianapolis at the October and Presidential elections; but the indomitable Republicans rallied again and at this third trial carried all before them.

It is encouraging to note these evidences of party vitality. They show that the defeat of our candidate for President has neither scattered nor distracted our ranks.

The municipal election in Pittsburgh and Allegheny takes place in January. The Republicans of the twin cities must imitate the example set them by their brethren of Indianapolis and Hartford, and by achieving a brilliant victory show the firmness of their attachment to their principles and their determination to meet the enemy at every point.

THE news from Kansas, given on our first page, will be found of much interest. The quarrel of Geary with the Border Ruffians is a very pretty quarrel as it stands. It shows conclusively that no man can serve peaceefully in that position who will undertake to make even a show of fairness to the free state men. The following additional item from the St. Louis Democrat of Monday is indicative of the present course of events:

"The steamer William Campbell, which arrived here from the Missouri river yesterday, brought down a company of one hundred and thirty quasi Kansas emigrants, who were chiefly from the Southern States, and having become sickened with the peace prospects in the territory, are returning to their old homes. We commend them to the charitable care of the St. Louis Kansas relief company."

SENATOR DOUGLAS A CATHOLIC.—The locofoco press, including the Post and Union of this city, undertook to show that PARSONS must be a Catholic, because he had been married by a Catholic priest. Senator Douglas was married, in Washington City, on Thanksgiving Day, to Miss Ada Cutts, by Father Byrne, the Georgetown Roman Catholic Priest. Douglas, therefore, according to the logic and authority of Democratic editors, politicians and allies, is a Roman Catholic. The logic is theirs, not ours, and we put it on the record, now the purpose of future reference. The time may come when they may not relish the legitimate application of their own reasoning.

WISCONSIN BANKS AND BANKING.—We learn from the Madison Journal that the following new Banks have been established in that State since July 1st, the date of the Comptroller's last semi-annual report:

Chippewa Bank	Lake Pepin	$ 50,000

The Mineralville Bank	Prairie Dam	50,000

The Katzenyan Bank	La Crosse	50,000
The Merchants Bank	Madison	50,000

In addition to these, the following Banks are now organizing. The Capital Stock has been deposited, and the Comptroller is now engaged in counterfeiting the notes:

In addition to this aggregate of $850,000, the old Banks have increased their capital, during the same period, from four to five hundred thousand. The Journal adds:—

The amount of circulation actually issued by the Comptroller since the 1st of July last, is $488,118, and will closely approximate $700,000 by the 1st of January next.

The following State Stocks are at present on deposit with the Comptroller:

THE KANSAS LAND SALE.—We learn from a gentleman who left Kansas at the close of last week that the government sale of the Delaware Reservation was progressing quietly; and that the squatters, whether Free State or Pro-Slavery were generally bidding in their claims at the government appraisement; though at the same time, unoccupied lands, eligibly situated were bringing exhorbitant prices. About two thousand strangers were in the Territory, it is supposed, with at least a million and a half of gold, some of which will be brought back uninvested. The settlers have what is well known in the West-club-law—by which impertinent bidders are kept quiet until the actual occupants of the soil are served with all they want.

REACTION.—The Leavenworth (Kansas) correspondent of the N. Y. Times sends the following pregnant piece of information:

Rev. Mr. MEACHE, who was threatened with mob law if he did not leave the Territory within a specified time, and never come back, has returned, after a visit to the States, and is now here. The Missourians have offered to pay him the amount of money necessary to cover the damage done to his church and church property during the recent war. Russel, of the Pro-Slavery firm of Mayors & Russell, has paid Mr. Graham for the rifles, revolvers, camping utensils, &c., taken from his party some months since, and the Sharpe's rifles taken at Lexington Mo., last March, are to be returned to the owners. Gov. Reeder has sent to Committee at Chicago. It is reported that Mr. Graham's bill amounted to something near $7,000, all of which has been paid.

THAT "QUAKER VOTE" DISCOVERED.—The Council Bluffs, (Iowa) Bugle says: "In Lee county all the Quakers voted for Buchanan." That's what went of 'em.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END: 1856—1860—AND THE INVERSE.—It is now evident that the election of Mr. Buchanan is a moral defeat. It is equally evident that the war between the North and South did not end on the 4th of November, 1856. It rather had a new beginning then, and will certainly not end before 1860. We are perfectly satisfied that the triumph, as it is termed, of the Democratic party is the mere success of forces, and not the definite vindication of principles. The principles remain for the present, without any security for the future.

Even in this, the best point of view, how much cause have we for constant vigilance and for diligent preparation. An overwhelming majority of the Northern people, as a community, have affirmed their unalterable hostility to Southern rights and interests. A large majority of the Northern people, as such, have done likewise. A popular majority of the people of the United States, comprised in one section, the result will doubtless prove, have declared their uncompromising enmity towards a less number occupying another section. Such is the signification of the late election; such is the basis of the great Republican party of 1860. Without a reversal of the past history of our politics, that party will as surely come into power as time shall flow on. The mere party leaders may tell us the sun rises in the west and sets in the east; that water flows up hill; that revolutions go backwards; that fanaticism has a conservative tendency, and that there is national patriotism in an abolitionized community. They may talk, as the Germans have it, out of another's pocket until doomsday; and yet natural causes will produce natural effects; the sun will rise in the east and go down in the west; water will seek its level; revolutions will turn to reverse; fanaticism will be aggressive, and the North which voted abolition by 500,000 will do so in 1860 with increased majorities, given the same circumstances and the same motives.—N. O. Delta, Nov. 18.

LOSS OF LIFE LYCONIANS.—There is little hope for the missing passengers and crew of the steamship Lycoming. The Marion has returned from her search, and not only has discovered no trace of them, but has experienced the most tempestuous weather. Vessels which had been several days in the vicinity of the collision, were spoken, and could give no information. The wind at times has blown a gale, and the second officer, in his statement said that he did not think the raft that was constructed could hold together in a heavy sea. The heavy storms are the cause of all discouragement. According to the same statement, the steamer was provided with two cutters, each of which would hold twenty-five persons; two life-boats, one of which would contain twenty, and the other eighteen persons; and two yawls, each of which would hold six. These with a strong raft (such as there appears to have been time to build) might have sufficed in fair weather, but the yawls could be of but little use in a rough sea, and the cutters were a very uncertain reliance, as the principal dependence of the passengers and crew for safety if a violent storm arose must have been on the life-boats. It was one of the life-boats which was picked up. The other, it will be remembered, was stove by coming in collision with the raft. As to the raft, it was at best but a frail dependence; the sea has rolled terribly, and the poor creatures who were obliged to take their chance of life on it have probably been shaken or torn from the spars and planks of which it was formed, or overwhelmed by the waves; or it being dashed to pieces, its precious burden has, with those in the missing boats, met a common fate. It is barely possible that a portion have been rescued by some vessel going eastward, but to one who reads the log of the Marion it does not seem probable.—N. Y. Cour. & Enq.

THE accounts brought by recent arrivals from the Superior country concur sadly in foretelling unprecedented suffering during the coming winter in that region, as the result of a lack of the usual supplies. The aggregate amount of provisions and other necessaries, which will be available for winter consumption, is far below the minimum known to be absolutely indispensible. In this emergency—the result not of any improvidence of the inhabitants of the Northern Peninsula of Michigan, but of the repeated and destructive disasters which have occurred upon the lake, and involved the loss of a great quantity of stores—the Detroit Free Press suggest the propriety of procuring the services of the U. S. steamer Michigan for the purpose of conveying supplies to the miners.

SINCE Friday last the Lancaster Bank has redeemed about $60,000 of her notes in payment of debts due the Bank, thus discharging her liabilities to that amount.

In addition to the above it is calculated that at least $50,000 of the notes in circulation will never be presented for redemption, having been lost or destroyed during the forty years the Bank has been in operation. Perhaps the notes of no other Bank were more extensively carried during that time by travelers on steamboats, &c.

The confidence in the re-organization of the Bank is daily gaining ground and the heavy stockholders are subscribing with great willingness.—Lancaster Express.

DEATH OF MRS. BANYER.—Mrs. Maria Banyar, relict of the late Goldsboro Banyar, formerly of Albany, and daughter of Gov. John Jay, died on Saturday. Miss Jay, a maiden sister, died but a few days previously. Mrs. Banyar, owned, and formerly resided in the Mansion, since occupied by Gov. Clinton, on the corner of North Pearl and Steuben streets.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—We were sorry to hear, yesterday, of the death of our esteemed fellow-citizen, SOLOMON STONER. He was one of our oldest citizens, and we can trace back his name in connection with our city affairs through a long series of years. He was a public-spirited and useful man, and his death calls forth many sincere expressions of regret.

GREAT WESTERN INSURANCE CO.—Attention is directed to the advertisement in to-day's paper of the Great Western Insurance Co. of Philadelphia. Mr. Poindexter, the agent here, is well-known to our citizens, and the Company which he represents enjoys an excellent reputation for solidity and reliability.

SHARP BUSINESS OPERATION.—The New York Evening Post gives the particulars of a keen business transaction in that city, which seemed to be mixed in equal parts with love and money. A school girl, and only child, received the addresses of a young man, which coming to the ear of her father, he had an interview with the lover, and, by dint of persuasion and a thousand dollars, got his promise to cease his visits. For a while the separation seemed to be permanent, but after a few weeks apparent forgetfulness of her sweetheart, the girl informed her friends that three days previous thereto she was married to the bought of lover, but returning directly from the house of the officiating clergyman, she had not seen her husband since the ceremony. The father, distressed beyond measure, again sought the young husband, and, after much persuasion, got from him a promise to sign a written agreement releasing his marital rights, and relinquishing all control over his wife. The father willingly handed over four thousand dollars, and the papers were to be signed at ten o'clock the next day. At nine o'clock, the sharp operator, with the five thousand in his pocket, called and demanded his wife, and she departed with her husband, leaving her father minus five thousand and a daughter.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 26.—The Water Cure establishment at Geneva was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The inmates escaped with difficulty. Two women jumped from the windows of the fourth story. One was instantly killed, and the other fatally injured.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

McLane's Vermifuge.—Fleming Bros. Sole Proprietors.—No remedy ever invented has been so successful as the great worm medicine of Dr. McLane's prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh. All who have used it have been equally astonished and delighted at its wonderful energy and efficacy. To publish all the testimonials in its favor would fill volumes; we must therefore content ourselves with a brief abstract of a few of them.

Japhet C. Allen, of Amboy, gave a dose to a child 6 years old, and it brought up 83 worms. He gave after gave another dose to the same child, which brought away 60 more, making 123 worms in about 12 hours.

Andrew Downing, of Cranbury township, Venango Co., gave his child one teaspoonful, and she passed 117 worms. Next morning, on repetition of the dose, she passed 113 more.

Jonathan Houghman, of West Union, Park county, Ia., writes that he is unable to supply the demand, as the people in his neighborhood say, after a trial of the others, that none is equal to Dr. McLane's Vermifuge.

The only Medal Awarded by the New York Exhibition to the English or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, or their whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal, even with truth say there is nothing in a traveler's baggage so essential to his comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce.

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most Palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the public may be convinced that Wood's Hair Restore is what it purports to be. Sold at one, two and three dollars per bottle, at DR. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, nov24-6m 140 Wood st., wholesale and retail agent.

Dr. Keyser's Shoulder Braces—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.

For more than 8 years past we have constantly worn the Washington Suspender Brace, manufactured by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood st., in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all those who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to its merits, it answers for a brace and suspenders, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to continually tend to bring the shoulders to their natural position and expand the chest. Women, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of enormous "skirts," should also procure these braces, the particular in procuring the kind mentioned, as many of the brace sold are humbug. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Druggist, 140 Wood st, sign of the Golden Mortar. feb14-dawly

Age and Debility—As old age comes creeping on us, it brings many attendant infirmities—Loss of appetite and weakness impair the health, and want of activity makes the mind discontented and unhappy. In cases where old age adds its influence, it is almost impossible to add vigor and health, and although many remedies have been tried, all have failed, until HOFFLAND'S HOLLAND BITTERS were known and used. In every case where they have been employed they have invariably given strength and restored the appetite. They have become a great agent for this alone, and are used by many people who are suffering from loss of appetite and general debility. In cases of long standing chronic diseases, they act as a charm, invigorating the system, thus giving nature another opportunity to repair physical injuries.

CAUTION—Guard against purchasing an imitation. To prevent imposition, be careful to ask for Hoofland's Holland Bitters.

Important Notice to those Afflicted

WITH CHRONIC DISEASES, by Dr. A. S. HEATH, New York City. Finding it impossible to attend personally to all my patients, and being unwilling to trust such responsible duties to assistants or students, and for the purpose of suppressing the sale of worthless and injurious quack medicines, as well as the impositions advertised under fictitious names, offering to send recipes gratis; or on receipt of letter stamps or one dollar, &c., to obviate the above, and to accommodate patients in all parts of the country, I send medicines, with full directions, to cure any disease, for $5, unless treatment is required for a longer period than one month, when the fee is the same for each month. The fee for all surgical operations, including that for the radical cure of hernia, will depend upon the peculiarity of the case. Patients will give a full statement of all their symptoms, as the remedies are prepared with an especial reference to each case. All money letters should be registered. The first part of my illustrated work will be sent to any address on the receipt of 10 cents.

From Bishop Spalding.

Having tried Mr. Solomons' Glasses, I find them both distinct and perfect to the sight. In fact judging from a short trial, than any I have yet met with. I commend them to the patronage of those in need of glasses. Yours, &c., J. J. SPALDING, Bishop.
Louisville, Oct. 23, 1854.

FROM BISHOP LEFEVER.

MR. SOLOMON—Sir: The Spectacles obtained from you, enclosed, I have received from the purchaser, and have tested them; they are perfect as to adjustment. I can now see all common distances by candle light. I am pleased every day, with the same ease as when a boy, which I could not do with any Spectacles I ever had before. I take the greatest pleasure to avail myself of this medium of testifying how satisfactory has been my own experience of your skill as an optician.

Yours, truly, PETER LEFEVER, Bishop.
Detroit, Nov. 24, 1855.

FROM THE MAYOR OF ROCHESTER.

ROCHESTER, April 7, 1851.

MR. SOLOMONS—Sir: Having called at your office in the Arcade, and purchased two pair of your patent glasses, I do so found them superior to any I have ever used before; they have restored my sight when all others failed, and can now see without them as well as I could when a boy.
