ENTERPRISING.—A few weeks ago a destructive fire, the result of incendiarism, laid waste a block of buildings in Manchester, on which were several very extensive manufactories. The loss was heavy, not only to the proprietors but to the large number of working men who were employed by them. Messrs. Hall & Speer, who were of the losers, however lost no time in putting under contract new buildings, and by the first of January they will resume operations again. The buildings are now ready for the roof. The main building is one hundred and ninety feet long by one hundred and twenty wide, and is two stories in height. The second story has a gallery around the walls, twenty-four feet wide. The interior space—seventy by one hundred and forty—will be open to the roof, to be lighted by skylights. In the rear Messrs. H. & S. are completing another range of buildings two hundred and four feet long by fifty feet wide, two stories high. The cost of the improvements will reach $10,000.

CHARGED WITH FRAUD.—A young man, a sharp practitioner, named W. H. Stranger, alias W. H. Woodruff, was arrested yesterday, and taken before Alderman Steele, upon the charge of defrauding the proprietors of the Monongahela House out of $14,00, due for boarding, preferred by M. C. Henderson of that House. It appears that Stranger, under the name of Borrowes, boarded for some days at the St. Charles, and left without notifying the clerk. He then went to the Monongahela House where he represented himself to have been robbed, and stated that he would soon have some money on. After boarding there some days he left, and it was not known that he was gone for several days afterwards. His whereabouts was discovered and he arrested. After his arrest he telegraphed on East for money, but the next day he was overseen writing a letter to the same address, saying that he had telegraphed but did not expect to receive any money, and that he only did so to avert suspicion. He was committed for a hearing to-day.

PARK. BANJARIN.—Bear in mind that on this (Friday) evening, at Lafayette Hall, this distinguished gentleman will deliver the second lecture, in course, before the Young Men's Library Association, on the all absorbing, ever dreamed of subject—MATRIMONY. The subject itself will crowd the house, and to this if you add the inimitable manner in which it will be discoursed, it will we doubt not, be full to running over. We advise, therefore all gentlemen taking ladies to go early if they are desirous of securing good seats for their fair friends and themselves. Altho' not yet "Benedict the married man" we confidently expect to be "on hands" ourselves, to be benefitted by the good things and true, which will undoubtedly be said. This we know as well from the reputation of the lecturer, as from what we heard on Tuesday night last, when he delivered his brilliant poem on Fashion. Single tickets 25 cents, family tickets for five persons one dollar.

HACKERS IN TROUBLE.—A lady named Randolph, a stranger, appeared before Mayor Adams yesterday morning, and made oath that two hackmen, named David Evans and John Hancock had stolen from her a carpet bag, containing valuable clothing and a gold watch. She states that she saw them putting the sack on the hack before she got in at the Central depot, but when she arrived at the Allegheny depot it was gone. The accused said the sack had been given to a man who claimed it, but afterwards they said they had never seen it. The officers went to their stable on Diamond alley, in this city, but when the accused saw them coming, they ran away. Hancock was found secreted in an out-house near the Mayor's office. Both were arrested and taken before the Mayor, who had not disposed of the matter at the time we received our information.

HARD RIDES.—The rivers have risen moderately, and there is a prospect of a revival of business.

THE NEW JAIL IN BEAVER COUNTY.—We are informed by Mr. Kerr, the architect in whose hands the buildings are, that the new Jail and Sheriff's house, of Beaver county, are progressing rapidly to completion, and will be ready for occupancy early next summer. The first story is already completed. The Jail will be of stone, and will be fifty feet by eighty, and two stories in height. The jail will be upon the plan of the new block of the Penitentiary, and it is intended to have the discipline of the Jail upon the solitary system. It will be furnished with all the latest modern improvements.

In front of the Jail is the Sheriff's house, also of stone, fifty feet by forty. It will also be two stories in height.

The whole will be surrounded by a twenty foot wall, enclosing ground 100 feet by 160 in dimensions. The cost of all the improvements will be about $30,000.

"TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN."—Among the many triumphs of art that have characterised this nineteenth century, there is none that is a greater blessing to mankind than that practised by Dr. J. Maimess, Dentist, 64 Smithfield street, in this city. This gentleman has had an extensive practice in Dentistry, in various parts of our country, and his use of an anesthetic agent by the application of which to the gum he is enabled to extract the most formidable teeth and roots without pain to the patient, is something extraordinary of the day. We speak of our own experience, and numerous certificates of the most respectable parties, prove that the Doctor does all he claims to do; for thus robbing the Dentist's chair of its horrors, he certainly deserves the thanks and patronage of the community. His artificial sets are the perfection of mechanical ingenuity. See his advertisement in another column.

THE PROPOSED HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE.—The Committee who have the erection of a hospital for the Insane of Western Pennsylvania in hand, have we understand, purchased one hundred and fifty acres of ground a short distance above the City Poor Farm, on the Monongahela river, for a site for the contemplated buildings.

A sub-committee recently visited the Eastern Asylums, in company with Mr. Kerr, the architect, to examine the different styles in use, and to decide upon a plan for their own. That, however, has not yet been fully decided upon. The buildings will be seven hundred feet long, and will, with the ground, have cost $150,000 by the time they are completed. It is anticipated that the new Hospital will not be in full operation for three years. It will be built mainly of appropriations by the State for that purpose. We hope, and are assured that the Committee will not allow more delay in their operation than possible.

MR. JOSEPH PROCTOR, THE TRAGEDIAN.—The various performances of this eminent actor have been received by our citizens with unequivocal expressions of delight, and his benefit to-night should be remembered and patronized by all who wish to enjoy a rich dramatic feast. Sheridan Knowles' grand historical Tragedy of "Virginius" and the very excellent Drama of "Nick of the Woods" will be presented with Mr. Proctor as the Hero in both selections, and the Forester in the character of "Virginia." It is seldom that our play-goers have so much attraction offered on one occasion, and they will do well by securing their seats at an early hour.

A NEW HOTEL.—A new Hotel to be called the Alleghany House, has been in the hands of contractors for some time past, and now begins to assume a prominent appearance among its neighbors. It is located on the corner of Irwin street and Duquesne Way, upon the site of the frame tavern burned down some years ago. The front is one hundred and forty feet on Irwin street and sixty feet on Duquesne Way—and it is four stories in height. It contains about one hundred rooms, and will be finished and fitted for a first-class hotel. It is owned by Mr. Thos. Scott, President of the Merchants' Bank, and will cost when completed about $20,000. It will be ready for occupancy about the first of March.

SHERRY PLAYING.—The highly accomplished and interesting game of shinny when practised in some out of the way place, where no outsiders stand in danger of having their heads split, is rather to be encouraged; but when the public streets are used for the sport, and the eager players furiously contest the possession of the ball in a muddy gutter, splashing the mud upon silk dresses and broadcloth suits, it is a decided nuisance. The police are taking the matter in hand, and are determined to interfere with the boys as far as shinny-playing goes.

THE GREAT WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY.—Mr. R. W. Poindexter, No. 97 Front street, has been appointed the agent of this influential and substantial Company, and is prepared to take fire and marine risks. Our readers are referred to the advertisement in another column. The list of Directors there published embraces some of the wealthiest and soundest business names in Philadelphia.

THE MUSEUM.—Mr. and Mrs. Plunkett will appear this evening in Camille—characters in which they are said to excel. As their engagement is drawing to a close, those of our readers who have not as yet seen them, should avail themselves of this opportunity to visit the Museum.

THE THEATER.—The plays for this evening are Virginius and Nick of the Woods, Mr. Proctor appearing in both. The bill will attract a crowded house.

REMOVAL.—Our readers are informed that Mr. Samuel Gray, Merchant Tailor, has removed from his old and well-known stand, under the St. Clair Hotel, to the new buildings opposite.

THE MUSTANG LINIMENT.—Does Rheumatism; The Mustang Liniment cures Stiff Joints; The Mustang Liniment cures Burns and Scalds; The Mustang Liniment cures Sores and Ulcers; The Mustang Liniment cures Caked Breasts and Sore Nipples; The Mustang Liniment cures Neuralgia; The Mustang Liniment cures Corns and Warts; The Mustang Liniment is worth 1,000,000 dollars per annum to the United States, as its properties are the cheapest of valuable Horses and Cattle. It cures all Sprains, Galds, Wounds, Stiff Joints, &c.

Will you answer this question? Did you ever hear of any ordinary Sore, Swelling, Sprain or Stiffness, either on man or beast, which the Mustang Liniment would not cure? Every family should have it; 3 sizes.

From the Cincinnati Price Current:

THE FLOUR TRADE.—The weather has been rather unfavorable for packing operations during the week, and was particularly so yesterday, it being wet and warm, the thermometer standing at 52 degrees. This together with the limited demand for the Hog product made dealers very cautious and prices consequently have been depressed, and close at a decline of 10@ 15 cwt from the closing quotations given in our last. Drovers, however, have packed quite extensively on their own account, which to a great extent, prevents that pressure of Hogs on the market which would exist under different circumstances. The receipts have been quite large, and the pens are now pretty full. Below, according to our usual custom, we give the receipts of Hogs from the commencement of the packing season to date by the various channels:

From Kentucky	40,854
Slaughtered at Zanesville	3,100
do at Newtown	1,500
Driven in through Toll Gate	5,000
By River, Canals and Railways	25,316
Total this Season	75,750
Same time in 1855	73,343
do 1854	54,714
do 1853	79,414
do 1852	119,855

The packing season commenced earlier this season, by seventeen days, than last and in order to show the comparison, we give below the date when packing commenced for five seasons:

	November	1st.
1856
1855	"	17th
1854	"	9th.
1853		5th

Our salting from some leading points in the West, report an unsettled market for hogs. Farmers are generally seeking prices above the views of packers, and in consequence are holding, as far as to a great extent, packing on their own account.

The Louisville Journal says that 19,000 have been killed at that place, and that hogs are in good demand at $5,75.

The receipts of hogs from Kentucky at this place up to this date, this season, are given above, but up 40,756 against 31,787 the same time last season, and 43,766 the season previous. The market ruled steady last week, at $5,60@5,70 for fair to good hogs, say those averaging 150 lbs to 300 lbs.

The general movement in the Money market throughout the country having continued favorable to the reestablishment of confidence, we have to note a further improvement in our market, and a steady, though not rapid, progress towards ease. The receipts of money into the interior have considerably increased, the effect of which has been felt in the purchases and bankers' Currency is in better supply, and a further increase may be expected to follow the reduction which has been made in the value of Exchange. The York season being now in progress, bills will be offered more freely, and the interest and Eastern banks having no reason to apprehend an immediate return of their paper for exchange, will increase their circulation by discounting bills, which they have hitherto, to a considerable extent, declined, owing to the high private current for exchange—or rather the prevalence of rates that afforded a profit to the shaving brokers.

Western Banks generally are in a condition to expand very considerably, without any risk whatever, and the only obstacle in the way of an increased supply of currency is the continued suspension of navigation. An open river would be followed by an active trade, an increase in the supply of time and sight exchange, and a further reduction in the price of the latter—a condition of affairs which would at once insure relief to all full handed dealers, and the notes of first-class Western Banks. As already remarked, money matters have not considerably improved, while we are still unable to report an easy market, it may be remarked that discounts are easier than they have been for six weeks or two months past. Rates of interest on Call are now range from 10 to 12 per cent, with a leaning to the lower rate. Money is offered more freely outside the bank, where, although to still feeds ample employment, good paper is not freely offered at 12 per cent. Short paper continues to be preferred in bank and in the absence of the usual demand for that, 12@15 per cent is maintained within sixty days. Street rates we quote from 12@15 per cent.—The Price Current.

THE RIVERS—A RISE COMING.—During the twenty-four hours ending at dark last evening, the river at this point has risen seven inches, and there is now a fall in the wharf, full one half inch per hour. The keelboat in port yesterday for Cincinnati, reports that stream as rising, and the tower from Illinois to Cincinnati, 24 Illinois has risen full one foot during the past three days, and the river continues to rise. The weather is now favorable for a general rise. We have no news from either the Ohio river or Monongahela. The steamer Federal will leave at 10 o'clock to-night, and looked more like a May day than the last of November.

STEAMBOAT EMMA SUNK.—Messrs Eads & Nelson received a dispatch Saturday evening, which stated that the steamboat Emma had struck the rocks at Grand Tower. The cargo was from the cars of the east, and consisted of 6 cases of boots and shoes, 1 bale of hats, which was immediately done. The Ora Anderson arrived yesterday morning, and from the cabin of that boat we learn that the Emma is badly sunk, with her bow in four feet of water, and her stern in very low water, while the boy who caused the sinking, is lying directly under the boat, smashed to pieces. We have not learned whether that was the case or not, but we have understood that she was in charge of a green hand. The Emma left Cincinnati on Thursday last, bound for New Orleans to this port, and was loaded with salt and other goods, of which the Ora Anderson took off a large share. The balance of the cargo that was in the hold, as a matter of course, will be badly damaged. The Emma is a new boat, not yet one year old. She was built for the Memphis trade, and has been running in that direction since, until she left for New Orleans about three weeks ago. She is owned by Captains Conroy and Toye, the latter gentleman was on board at the time of the sinking, about $3,000, and was insured in offices of the city for $2,000. Messrs Eads & Nelson have sent a tug boat to the relief of the sunken steamer, and if she has not already broken in two, she will doubtless be raised.—St Louis Intelligencer.

THE ENGLISH IRON TRADE.—Trade is quiet, with no material change to report from our previous review. The best Welsh bar may be purchased at 7£ 5s to 7£ 10s per ton. The Plates are steady at 9£ 5s to 9£ 10s, and 27s 6d to 28s for coal. The Atlantic Telegraph Company is now thirty behind the contract both in London and Liverpool, and the share of £1250 each will be charged on the shares before being of a high class. In a day or two it is expected that the Cable will be coiled on board the Niagara, and will be taken up. Arrangements, we understand, are already made for the payment of the £2000 premium for the telegraph prize, an offer having been made by a competent party to supply it at the rate of 10 miles per week.
