Republican City Convention.

In accordance with a resolution adopted at a meeting of delegates from the Precinct Vigilance Committees of the several wards of the city of Pittsburgh, the citizens of Pittsburgh who are opposed to the extension of Slavery and to the pro slavery policy of the National Administration, are requested to meet in their respective Wards, on SATURDAY, the 20th day of December, 1856, between the hours of 3 and 7 o'clock, P. M., and select, by ballot, five persons from each ward to represent them in a City Convention, to be held at the Court House, on WEDNESDAY, Dec. 24th, 1856, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor to be supported at the ensuing election.

The City Convention will also appoint a City Executive Committee; and the meetings in the several wards are requested to appoint a Vigilance Committee in their respective wards, which shall report themselves to and co-operate with the City Executive Committee.

The ward meetings hereby called are also recommended to take measures for the nomination of full tickets for ward offices and Councils, and to make such nominations either at that time or at such subsequent time as may be then appointed. By order of

WILLIAM VARNUM, Pres't
GEO. L. McCOMB, Sec'y.

LOSSES ON THE LAKES.—The losses on the Lakes for the year 1856 have reached $4,000,000. In 1848, '49, '50 and up to 1855 they ranged from $400,000 to $2,797,839. This year the enormous increase of $1,200,000 over last, is a noticeable fact. In spite of this terrible destruction of property (we say nothing of loss of life,) we presume that the commerce on the lakes in the last eight years has increased fully in the ratio of the losses above noted. So great is the enterprise of our people, so pressing the demands of commerce, that despite shoals, tempests and harborless shores, our lakes have been whitened with the sails of our merchants' ships, while useless legislators have been hair-splitting about "constitutional powers," and Pierce* getting votes printed in blank to save him trouble in cases of emergency. We believe it is conceded that Congress has the power to build lighthouses on our coasts, whether they be lake or sea-coasts. It has the power to build lighthouses and beacons on rocks or shoals:—but to remove said rocks and shoals! Ay there's the rub. It is constitutional to display a warning against the hidden danger, but not to remove the danger itself!

Chop-logic will not avail much longer against the urgent demands of an ever-increasing commerce and the just clamor of the multitudes of go-ahead people, who are studding our great lake and river shores with towns and cities. All ready the fogies are beginning to give way! Already President's veto—on this subject, like tem-pins are only set up to be knocked down. Four millions of dollars sunk and destroyed in a single year! Put that against a four hour speech of Gen. Cass, on the St. Clair flats, [not the General but the speech on the flats].

SUGAR.—We learn by the reports of proceedings in Congress and by letters of correspondents in that city that the subject of the duties on Sugar is beginning to occupy the public attention, and move the legislators in session there to some action in the premises.—Gen. Houston has moved a resolution for the suspension of the duties for two years. As has been remarked by a trustworthy correspondent of the press, if the planters of Louisiana and Texas expect to save any thing of this tariff in their behalf they do well to bend gracefully, if indeed the Senators from Texas speaks for them.

Mr. Slidell showed last session, that the production in the United States had fallen off from 460,000,000 to 120,000,000 a rate pounds of diminution threatening the extinction of the culture. If there is to be speedily nothing to protect, the tax for protection will soon become unperfuous for producers, and additionally burthensome upon consumers. The importation of sugar last year amounted to $24,000,000, on which the duties amounted to $7,200,000.—This sum was a premium upon the production of the 120,000,000 of pounds furnished to the general consumption by Louisiana and Texas, the value of whose crop was probably not more than $7,500,000, or nearly the exact amount paid by the people each year for the protection of the staple.

It is time this burden was removed. The 30 per cent ad valorem duty operates as a tax upon entire consumption, and all for the paltry number of pounds raised in a couple of States. A movement will doubtless be made during the present session to remove the duty entirely and it is probably in expectation of this that Gen. Houston has interposed his motion for suspension.

THE ARROWSMITH HOAX EXPLAINED.—A correspondent of the Savannah Republican explains how Mr. Arrowsmith the credulous Englishman and correspondent of the no less credulous London Times, came to be hoaxed. The Republican's correspondent says the hoax was actually played off upon Mr. Arrowsmith by a mail agent between Augusta and Columbia. On being accused of being connected with the matter, recently, the agent said he had amused an idle hour in fabricating the story, and getting into conversation with an Englishman who was passing over the route, on the subject of Southern atrocities, read him his effort. The traveler requested the copy of the story, which he gave him, without suspicion of the use that would be made of it; and you may imagine his astonishment as well as amusement when it made its appearance in the Times as a true and genuine scene, as witnessed by the acute Mr. Arrowsmith, on his passage from Macon to Augusta, on the 28th of August last.

RAILWAY BRIDGE ACROSS THE ALLEGHENY.—This work is nearly completed and when entirely so, will form the connecting link between the Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railways, giving us a continuous line from Philadelphia to Chicago, a distance of 833 miles. This bridge is of the most substantial character as may be known even to the uninitiated in the science of bridge-architecture by a glance at its solid piers and abutments and the well braced and guarded superstructure. As soon as the track is down the cars will be able to make their way across the Allegheny which has hitherto been a dividing flood between our two great routes of travel to the East and West.

ARIZONIA.—The Albany Journal says:—"The "whopper" that Arizonia has 10,000 people in it, is equalled only by the pretence that it has mines of gold, and hills of gems. It has only thirst, gravel, snakes, centipedes, cactus plants and misery. Appurtenant to those are at the outside 1,000 Indians, Mexicans, and Halfbreeds. A State full of them would fester in any political atmosphere. Such as they now are Jack Ketch would be their fittest Governor, and the gallows their most saving institution."

TENNESSEE FREE BANKS.—The panic in regard to the Tennessee free banks, says the Louisville Journal, is subsiding, the brokers have been and will continue to redeem the note of the Bank of Chattanooga and other free banks secured by State stocks at 2½ per cent. discounts and those of the free banks not secured by state stocks at 5 per cent. discount.

WINTER WEATHER.—At Dubuque, Iowa, it is stated, snow has fallen to an unusual depth—in many places drifted for miles to the depth of fourteen or fifteen feet. The streams are frozen over hard and fast—and the teams pass over them with as much safety as though the ice was granite rock.

THE PRESBYTERIAN QUARTERLY.—This excellent Quarterly for December is on our table.—Besides the various articles more specifically intended for preachers, we note an admirable essay upon "Duelling." It is logically arranged, its object being to illustrate the history of duelling; its characteristics, and the remedy for it. The writer goes on to give its history from the days of its bloody birth of savage revenge, through all the haunting days of chivalry down to this day. At present it has none even of those things which might formerly have been plead in its behalf to excuse it. It has nothing of the apology of a prevalent sentiment that physical courage only constitutes virtue. It has none of the dignity arising from the belief, right or wrong, that God would interpose in behalf of the injured. It has none of the pride, pomp and circumstance which attended a tournament at the time when Henry II. was killed; it has scarcely any of the apology, and has none of the greatness which it had even when Francis I. challenged his rival Charles V.

The writer then considers the characteristics of this mode of warfare, its absurdity and its sinfulness and passes to discuss in detail how this crying sin may be remedied.

The reader of this Quarterly will never fail to ponder with much care and great pleasure the reviewers, department. We doubt whether a more accomplished reviewer than Wallace, can be found in this country. We have been delighted with an article in the present number on "Recent Poetry," in which Longfellow, Kingsley, Browning, Whittier, Lowell, Motherwell, Cornwall, Trench, Massey, Read and others are introduced through their productions to illustrate the writer's peculiar views. He is more than inclined to the belief, that there are more true poets in the world to day than there ever were before. This article alone is worth more than the whole volume will cost.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13, 1856.

GENTLEMEN:—I do not feel quite in as good a humor as I would like to and I want to tell you why. The Gazette is the only secular paper published in this city which I take. Its political news and literary character are more in accordance with my own views and taste than are those of any other paper published amongst us. Then, too, I have the pleasure of an acquaintance with the Editors, and appreciate them highly as high-minded, honorable men. Now, my trouble is here: when I took the paper home yesterday morning, I said to my family, "You will find the beginning of a tale, which, from the usual good taste of the editors, I have no doubt will afford you pleasure." They enjoyed the first instalment very much. This morning, while reading the second part, I enjoyed a good deal of satisfaction in fancying the treat it would afford my wife and daughters. I began to have my own sympathies excited in behalf of the principal character, and felt satisfied with your judgment and taste in the selection, until I came to the denouement of your plot, which certainly surprised me no little. Without anything to excite the least suspicion that you had any other object in view than to afford your daily readers a little innocent enjoyment, I could scarcely believe that you had deliberately taken advantage of their confidence in you, to entrap them into a position from which they could be extricated only by buying one or more numbers of the "New York Ledger, the great family weekly paper, which can only be obtained of T. R. Callender," &c., &c. I have no doubt that amongst your several hundred subscribers you will find a good many who feel as I do, that we have been "rather sold." Now, sir, I am obliged to ask your earnest attention to this trifling annoyance which may, if continued, lead some who don't know you as well as I do, to have wrong impressions in regard to this matter.

HONESTUS.

REMARKS.—We sympathise deeply with our correspondent "Honestus," and will confess that we felt the most poignant regret at what he (or she as the case may chance) has suffered. We can only shift the responsibility for our alleged shortcomings upon the shoulders of the editor of "The Ledger," who wouldn't "pay" for having the whole story published in the Gazette. We will do what we can to induce him to be liberal to the full extent next time. For this present, however, "Honestus" must "down with his dust" for the good of the printer, folk, and patronize Callendar.

THE NAVAL ENGAGEMENT BETWEEN THE NICARAGUAN SCHOONER AND A COSTA RICA BRIG.—One of the most creditable triumphs achieved by the filibusters in Nicaragua, was that in the recent naval engagement, in which took place off the port of San Juan del Sud. The Costa Rica brig, the Orse de Abril, (11th of April) left Punta Arenas on the 11th of November, with munitions and supplies for Gen. Canas, in the way a vessel of 240 tons, and was armed with six nine pounders. She had on board besides her sailing crew, about 100 riflemen, armed with the Minnie rifle. She was commanded by a Peruvian Captain, named Valladrestra. On the afternoon of the 23d November she hove in sight of the harbor of San Juan del Sud. The steamer Vanderbilt, Capt. Garrison, commanded by Captain C. J. Faysoux, immediately sailed out of the harbor, to give battle to the Costa Rican. The schooner is only 70 tons burden. She carried two six-pounders and 28 men—three of those volunteers. The brig immediately prepared for fight, and opened the engagement by firing the first shot. Faysoux kept the broadside of his vessel to the nose of the brig, and it is said that every shot he fired told. The engagement commenced, about 5 o'clock in the evening, and ended ten minutes after 7. The last shot fired by the Granada carried away the brig's stern and caused her magazine to explode. Previously to that she was fast sinking from the effect of the balls she had received. Faysoux after the explosion had his boats manned and humanely ordered his crew to try and save life. Forty-four of the Costa Ricans were taken from the vessel and from the water, thirteen of them being badly burned. Among the prisoners, were the captain, the mate, the Padre, and a first lieutenant of the army. Those who were able to march were sent to Virgin Bay, and were, with the exception of two officers, set at liberty by Walker. Their gratitude for this act was expressed in a letter to Capt. Faysoux.

One of the officers retained, Col. Martines, (though he called himself only Sergeant Major,) was allowed to write to General Canas an account of the engagement. The following is a translation of his letter, in which he claims for the victory of the Granada a fact that she fired red hot balls, which was not the case:—

COSTA RICAN ACCOUNT OF THE FIGHT.

VIRGIN BAY, Nov. 25, 1856.

Gen. Don Jose Ma Canas, RIVAS, Nicaragua:—On the 11th of this month, Col. D. Manuel Canas, embarked in the Costa Rican man-of-war, the Eleventh of April, four officers, one sergeant, one bugleman and eighty riflemen, under the command of the commandant of the ship, Don Antonio Valladrestra, in which the undersigned served as second commandant. Beside the riflemen, there were aboard twenty sailors, who were to work the ship, and the four brass pieces of artillery, nine pounders, were also embarked.—On the 12th, at 4 o'clock in the morning, sail was made on the vessel, her destination San Juan del Sur, until the morning of the 23d; when the wind not permitting her to do more, the command ordered her to cruise in front of the port until the wind permitted her to do so.—About 3½ o'clock, on the same day, we saw coming out of the port the Nicaraguan men-of-war San Jose, which, after having made several attacks, approached us. The commandant of the Eleventh of April, prepared immediately to attack her, which he commenced to do, when the two vessels were about five hundred yards apart, at 5 o'clock, P. M.

Our ammunition for the cannon was ball and grape; but the enemy had the advantage of having red hot shot and congreve rockets. Our rifles shot the conical ball, and, although the enemy did not fire as often as us, yet his shot had more effect from the nature of his projectiles. The spirits of our soldiers were good, and after two hours fighting, although our vessel had received two balls, yet her crew worked with great coolness.

About 8½ o'clock we received in our magazine a red hot shot, which immediately set it on fire; we found it impossible to extinguish it. The enemy, who during the fight was taking in various directions around our vessel, gave us time to put the fire out by retiring. A half an hour afterwards the fire was almost extinguished; but the vessel, on account of the quantity of water which slowly entered her, commenced sinking by the head. At this time the enemy came up by the stern, within eighty yards of us, offering us assistance, and to this effect sent us a boat; ours were lost. In this boat embarked the commandant of the "11th of April," the Padre, and others badly wounded by the fire and ball. Five minutes afterward the vessel went down by the head, the sails of the foremast carrying down people with her, also floating to starboard. All those who were able saved themselves by swimming, amongst them the undersigned, who, together with the others, were taken aboard the San Jose. On Monday, 24th, we landed at San Juan; in number about thirty-eight. The wounded remained there under the care of a doctor named by the authorities of the place; the others, under guard, were sent to Virgin Bay, in number 29.

The commandant of the "11th April," the Padre and Lt. Don Pedro Munos remain in San Juan del Sur, very badly burnt, and I, with our officer, the first sergeant and twenty-five soldiers are here.

The killed and wounded in the battle of Massaya are not given. They amounted to about 70 Americans.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Another Instance of Tape Worm Cured

by the use of Dr. A Lange's Celebrated Vermifuge, prepared by FLEMING BROS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15, 1852.

This is to certify that I was troubled with a tape worm or more than six months. I tried all the known remedies for this dreadful affliction, but without being able to destroy it. I got one of Dr. McLane's Almanacs, which contained notices of several wonderful cures that had been performed by his celebrated Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros. I resolved to try it, and immediately purchased a bott'e, which I took according to directions, and the result was, I discharged one large tape worm, measuring more than a yard, besides a number of small ones.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. McLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. McLane's Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and Canada. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS

Kennedy's Medical Discovery.—It should ever be the duty of an editor to lay before his readers anything coming under his observation that would be of interest or benefit to them. Impressed with this idea, we wish to introduce to the perusers of our paper Kennedy's Medical Discovery. We know it is like introducing a familiar friend, for this remedy for twelve years has ever been in our midst. Yet still there may be some who have never applied themselves of its superior powers of healing. To you who are suffering from Scrofula, Ulcers, Coughs and humors of every kind we would say, delay not, but try the greatest remedy that a kind providence has ever vouchsafed to make known to man.

Home Testimony.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 16, 1856.

Mr. Solomons:—Dear Sir: I am happy to give this assurance that I can add my testimony, with many others, to the value of your Pills. I have been troubled with the dyspepsia for about a year and I never put them on without benefit. Respectfully,

J. L. READ.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 16, 1856.

MR. SOLOMONS:—Being compelled to use Spectacles, I have never been able to get a pair but what made my eyes ache. I was induced to get a pair of yours, but always relished until I obtained a pair from you. I can now try day or candlelight with their aid for any length of time with the greatest ease and comfort.

PITTSFIELD STEEPLE,
BETWEEN FOURTH AND DIAMOND ALLEY.
PITTSBURGH.

MR. SOLOMONS:—Sir: The benefit I have received from the Spectacles obtained from you, induces me to express the pleasure I have received from them; they suit my eyes to perfection. I have now all occasion to discard them, day-light, as well as by car, with the same ease as when a boy, which I can say to no other glasses I have worn. It affords the greatest pleasure to avail myself of this medium of testifying how satisfactory has been my own experience of your skill as an optician.

Yours, truly, PETER LEEPER, Bishop.

Detroit, Oct. 24, 1852.

FROM THE MAYOR OF ROCHESTER.

ROCHESTER, April, 1851.

MR. SOLOMONS—Sir: Having called at your office in the Arcade, and purchased two pairs of your patent glasses, I have found them superior to any I have ever used before; they are better suited than I could have expected. I have now put them aside, and can see without them as well as I could when a boy.

Important Notice to those Afflicted WITH CHRONIC DISEASES, by Dr. A. S. HEATH, from New York City.—Finding it impossible to attend personally to all my patients, and being unwilling to trust such responsible duties to assistants or students, and for the purpose of suppressing the sale of worthless and injurious quack medicines, as well as the impositions advertised under pretitious names, I propose to send recipes gratis or on receipt of letter stamps or one dollar, &c.—to obviate the above, and to accommodate patients in all parts of the country, I send medicine, with full directions for use in all cases of Fits, unless treatment is required for a longer period than one month, when the fee is the same for each month. The fee for all curative operations, including that for the radical cure of hernia, will depend upon the peculiarity of the case. Patients will give a full statement of all their symptoms as the remedies are prepared with an especial reference to each case. All money letters should be registered. The first part of my literary work will be sent to any address on the receipt of 10 cents.

The only Medal Awarded by the New York Exhibition to the English or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers has been obtained amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, or their whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is attached for its table and invigorating properties, its by ritual use enables the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is exquisite, and I think medicinal. can with truth say there is nothing in a traveler's baggage so essential to his comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce.

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most Palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and is a universal demand, which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.

Age and Debility—As old age comes creeping on us, it brings many attendant infirmities,—Loss of appetite and weakness impair the health, and want of activity makes the mind discontented and unhappy. In cases where all age adds its influence, it is almost impossible to add vigor and health, and although many remedies have been tried, all have failed, and HOSTETTER & SMITH'S HOLLAND BITTERS were known and used in every case where they have been employed they have invariably given strength and restored the appetite. They have become a great agent for this alone, especially to those who are suffering from loss of appetite and general debility. In cases of long standing chronic diseases, they act as a charm, invigorating the system, thus giving nature another opportunity to throw off the complaint.

CAUTION—Guard against purchasing an imitation. To prevent imposition, be careful to ask for Hostetter's Holland Bitters.

☞ Sold at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by the proprietors, HOSTETTER, SMITH & CO., Manufacturers of Pharmaceutic and Chemical Products, Pittsburgh, Pa., and by druggists generally. oct2
