

GALLERIE-CITY DEPARTMENT

PITTSBURGH: MONDAY MORNING, FEB. 18, 1913.

Resolutions. Governor—This body met again at nine o'clock yesterday morning, when a discussion took place on the report of Mr. J. Parker on "Corporate Punishment."

Mr. Dickson was in favor of corporal punishment as a mode of compelling obedience of children. He did not believe in graduation as the only means.

Mr. Hastings thought expulsion was a good way of enforcing obedience to discipline. The report was adopted.

Mr. Hill of Upper St. Clair read a report on "Saturday Teaching—Should it be abolished?" The report being given to discussion, several gentlemen descended on the subject, and it was then adopted.

Mr. Fry of Birmingham, read a report on "The Duty of Self-Improvement on the part of the Teacher, and the means of accomplishing it," recommending attendance at Normal Schools.

Mr. Winkler of Charities, suggested the attention of the convention to the fact that a number of ministers, assisted by his daughter, in conducting a system, which is the inventor of "Teaching Grammar by Means of Amusing Practical Illustrations."

Mr. Winkler of Charities, delivered a long and interesting essay on "The Duty of Self-Improvement on the part of the Teacher, and the means of accomplishing it."

By Last Night's Mail

From Nicaragua. To-day's N. Y. Times has the following intelligence received by a special correspondent who came in the Calabas.

Mr. E. N. Rogers, U. S. Mail Agent at San Francisco, who left Nicaragua on the 10th of January, informs us that advice had been received there from Gen. Walker, to the effect that month—which is for 10 days later than previous advice.

It is stated that the report, which reached here some days since by telegraph from New Orleans, that Greyhound was in possession of the Costa Rica, was untrue.
