Many charges are urged against him but whether with justice I cannot say, one thing I can say, and that is that were it not for the personal wishes of the Governor he would not be confirmed. The confirmation will be up to-morrow in the Senate. The board of revenue commissioners meet this morning. But 16 out of 26 members of which the board consists, answered to their names at the hour of meeting. Col. Magraw the State Treasurer is the presiding officer according to law. John M. Foster a democrat of this place was unanimously elected chief clerk. The pointment of the delegate from your district who is known to have openly favored the election or Mr. Buchanan has excited no little surprise here. It is true the office is not a political one. But I hold that where a man is favorable to and sympathizing with the cause of freedom who is in every way qualified to discharge the duties of the office with ability can be found, he should have such an appointment when the power of it is clearly in the hands of the Resulties nor it is clearly in the hands of the Resulties of the family are respectable.
