GAZETTE-CITY DEPARTMENT. PITTSBURGH:

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 2, 1857. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

FIRE.—ARREST FOR DISORDERLY CONVEY.—About eleven o'clock Friday night, a fire tork out in the cooper shop of Isaish Kfoesen, Edjoining Dilworth's planeing mill, corner of Seventh and Grant streets, but no material dsmage was sustained, as the fire was soon exinguished When yatchmen Ray and Alls discovered the fire, they give the alarm, and entered the shop, where they found the owner lying intoxicated, and a lighted smalle lying beside him which he had dropped amongst the shavings. The watchmen, arrested this man, and while they were taking him to the watchmen, a young man who seemed to know more about the duty of the polies than they did themselves, latterformed with them in the discharge of their duties, and swore that the watchman should not arrest the intaxinated individual. They took the meddling follow into custody and brought him before the Mayor, who very properly, fined him for his interference. Mr. Dilworth appeared before his hours, and exhonorated the other from any interiors of incendiarism, and he was also discharged on payment of a fine of $55. The meddling gentleman threatons to sue the officers for false imprisonment, but we are of opinion that he had better not. The rowdies are all beginning to think the Hayor intends to enferce or der, which is a very just conclusion.

Officers Hague, Richardson, Wray, Reed, Hamilton, Hastings, Spance and Moon, were dispacehed from Pittsburgh. A large amount of the goods have been recovered. From subsequent information received, we learn that nine others of the gaug have been greated, making alroteen in al. The arrests were made at various points, Crestline, Wooster, Manafield, Oroville, &z. One woman only was arrested as having been concerned in the robberies. She was merely a receiver of the stolen goods.

All the officers have returned with the excep-
