THE LAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

VOLUME LXX...NUMBER 175. PITTSBURGH, MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 16, 1857. ESTABLISHED IN 1786. From the London Mark Lane Express.

FAT AND GREASH — While purchasers occasionally complain of the extreme fatness of the class of domestic animals now raised for the shambles, we nevertheless hear of no surplusage of tallow. The price of animal fat keeps up, and the demand is more extensive than ever. The housewife finds she has to pay a large price for the suet for her Christmas pudding; while the cook obtains a remunerative market for her kitchen stuff. BEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS.
