and now over me variou assertiment of comestic articles.

Mr. Kroesen also deals extensively in Willow ware of all kinds, which is purchased from first hands, and therefore offered at lowest prices.

We were comewhat surprised to see the extent of the trade of this gentleman. His orderbook shows quite a display of business throughout the West and North west. We noticed sundry orders from Kanbas, Nebraska, lown and Missouri. We are glad to see that in this humble, but useful branch of manufactures, our Pittsburgh artisans are receiving a fair share of the trade of the great West.

turned as elected. Justice of the Peace for that borough, built appears that this was occasioned by a wrong letter in the name of his opponent, Mr. Levi Howard, R., which gave fifteen votes to "Levi, Haward." The vote; stood: James Ealer, 93; Lovi Howard 91, and Levi Haward 15. It is contended by many of the oitizens of the borough that Howard is entitled to the office, and a petition to this effect, 'numerously algoed, his nic circulation, and will be presented to the Courre of Common Pleas sometime this week. If these votes are declared valid, Howard has thirteen of a majority, and the friends of this gentleman, we understand, are quite sanguine.

Cononen's Inquest.—Coroner Alexander on A Rare Chance for Investment. Saturday effection held an inquest on the body of a German woman found dead in her bed at a louge in the Eighth ward. The oircumstances lusion that she had died from tended to the concusion trains and had deed from the effects of excessive intemperance, and a verdict was rendered to that effect. She presented a terrible epectacle of abandoned humanity, and adds one more victim to the extpant of the still within a couple of weeks—both being females.
