Desire to Fine Clothing!
211 BROADWAY, ...NEW YORK.
Second door above the Astor House.
WOULD suggest to the Trade, that they will be supplied for Spring and Summer trade with their usual extensive stock of the finer qualities of
READY MADE CLOTHING.
In reference to which they would observe, that the facility with which their goods can be sized, every garment being marked in figures and letters, the same size each manufacture should give them a preference over any clothing, the sizes of which are indefinitely marked. The difficulty of readily ranging garments in this way, it is presumed, has been very forcibly realized. It is worthy a strict attention is directed to a determination to render our garments equal in every respect to the best custom work. fe6dmwy

Our Oil is made at our factory in Newfoundland, and each bottle has our signature over the cork, to which is added our Private Stamp, as thousands who used Oil in general, have been deceived to health by using the spurious article. Prepared only by DR. I. BUTTS & CO., 138 N. SELLERS & CO., Pittsburgh. For sale by Druggists generally. fe6dmwy

"PRAIRIE FLOWER" SUPERSEDED!!
A New Novel by Emerson Bennett.
THE ARTIST'S BRIDE;
OR,
THE PAWNBROKER'S HEIR.
By EMERSON BENNETT, Esq.,
Author of the "PRAIRIE FLOWER," "LENI LENOI," "CLARA MORGAN," etc.
12mo. Cloth PRICE ONE DOLLAR. 414 Pages.
IF EMMERSON BENNETT had never written his many delightful and thrilling stories of border life, of prairie scenes, and Indian warfare; this new story of "The Artist's Bride," would have placed his name on the record as one of the best of American novelists.
"The Artist's Bride" is one of the most thrilling, narrative productions we have ever read, and yet the incidents are so true to nature, so lifelike, that the reader can scarcely realize the fact that he is reading fiction. The contrast between the Lawyer and his student, Charles, the most between the Lawyer and his student, Charles, the most narrative are striking, and serve to illustrate two distinct individuals we are likely to encounter in the course of our every day life. The amusement to be derived from these pages will be great as the moral instruction imparted. Altogether, Emerson Bennett has done himself credit in this, his latest production.
