New York, June 18, 1857. Editors Gazette: Our eity is literally boiling over with excitement as, we are yet in the midst of a rebellion, for which we are solely and es-pocially indebted to our law-abiding Misyor Yernando Wood. Of course the telegraph has already told you how Mr. Concorer wished to take possession, quietly, of his office as the new Street Commissioner, having been lawfully and properly appointed by our good Governor King, whan he was resisted and eren forcibly ejected together with his attendants, by Woods' minions. Bennett and Willet confassed "that the ex-press orders of Wood were to turn Conover out of the office at all haurds?' therefore, Judge Hoffman of the Superior Court granted a war-rant for the arrest of Mayor Wood and some others who directly inclided this riot. Coroner Perry was ordered to garve it; he went to the Hall; approached as near as the railing in Wood's office and then announced his husiness, when a peremptory message came from the Mayor's private office to aid in *erving the warrant, and in trying to enter ware repulsed and most shockingly balen, severely wounding abot 20, some of whem cannot survive; if so, there blood should rest on Mayor Wood.'
