Is was fifty years ago, In the pleasant month of May, In the beautiful Pays de_Vand, A child in its craille lay. And Nature, the old nurse, took The child upon her knes, Saving : "Here is a story-book Thy father has written for these,

"Come, wander with me," she said, " luto regions yet untrol; And read what is still unread In the manuscripts of God."

And he wandered sway and away, With Nature, the dear old nurse, Who sang to him night and day The rhymes of the universe,

And whenever the way seemed long, Or his heart began to fail. She would sing a more wonderful song, Or icll a more marvelous tale.

So she keeps him still a child, And will not let him go. Though at times his heart beats wild For the beautiful Pays de Vaud. Though at time- he hears in his dreams The Ranz des Vaches of old, 1977 And the rush of mountain streams, From glaclers clear and cold.

And the mother at home says " Hark ' For his toice I being and years; It is growing late and dark, And my boy dises not return !" THE HALL STORN IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUM-

Ancric SCENES ON LAKE SCHERIOR.—The steamer Lady Elgin, arrived at Chicago on the 10th inst., from Superior, which port she lefty on the the 12th. She met with much impediment from ice. At Grand Island the ice extended from shore to shore, but after a delay of two days sho Marquette was still closed with ice, and in some places it lay in masses of tweity or thirty feet in Data Sci and the intervent of the Size of the Unit of the Size of the Size of the Size of the Water. Marquette was still closed with ice, and in some places it hay in masses of twenty or thirty feet in thickness, strongly reminding the beholders of the Arctic sceness ographically described by Dr. Kane. Anyone desirous of experiencing the right wars of the Arctic regions can do so with little treeble if they take an early start to the north-west by way of Lake Superior. Huge fields will not probably have disappeared before the mid-dle of July, may not again obstruct the maright ion of the lake at the same season for the next century. Marquette was still closed with ite treeble if they take an early start to the north-model of June, and which will not probably have disappeared before the mid-tle of July, may not again obstruct the naright century. Marquette was started by Dr. KEYSKR'S 140 Woop Sr., At $1 per bottle Dyspepsia, White Swelling, &c.
