PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1857.

READING MATTER ON EACH PAGE OF THIS PAPER.

Two gentlemen of some prominence in this community (and one other of no prominence whatever) have stopped the Gazette on account of their dissatisfaction with the course we have pursued toward the late Tax Convention.

The burden of their complaint is that we did not publish Mr. Williams' elaborate report to that Convention upon the subject of railroad subscriptions.

We did not publish that report for reasons satisfactory to ourselves, to which we did not deem it necessary to refer at that time; but inasmuch as that fact has been made the basis of a little private persecution, we must be permitted to say, in self-justification, that the Report in question was never offered to us for publication. The Chronicle, an afternoon paper, announced one day that it had received the manuscript and would publish it on the day following; but no one ever came near us to give us the opportunity of publishing it. Our rule and the rule of all the morning press has always been, with regard to matters of which a general publication may be desired, never to publish them after they have been furnished exclusively to any other paper, unless as advertisements. This rule we have persistently adhered to, and it is one necessary to the maintenance of the equal rights of the press. If the writer of a document wishes it to appear in all the morning papers, he must see that each of them has a copy or printed proofs at the same time and that the evening press does not obtain it in advance of them. If he wishes it to appear exclusively in one paper, he selects the one that suits him best. In this case the Report was given to the public, ostentatiously, in advance of the morning press, and the latter, in the exercise of a true self-respect, refrained from copying at second hand what had in the first instance been withheld from them.

We allude to these facts only for the purpose of putting ourselves right before the public.

With regard to the two individuals in question, neither of them should throw stones at us upon this railroad question. They have both been so mixed up with railroads and railroad subscriptions that charity to themselves ought to teagh them a little charity to us. They both owe very much of their position in public life to the unstinted aid which the Gazette has given them, for nearly twenty years past in one instance and for more than ten years in another; and that they should betray a proscriptive feeling, now, because of a fancied difference of opinion, after all the favors they have individually received from this press, was hardly to be expected of them. But we do not intend to retort upon them. Our only regret is, that two such men should be capable of manifesting such a spirit.

—The Gazette has frequently had to pass through such peculiar seasons as the present. There will come times when we cannot all think alike, and when an independent paper like this must necessarily alienate some of those tender minds which cannot brook a difference of opinion. But the maintenance of a fearless and independent position is of far more value to us than the patronage of thin-skinned friends; and hence we go on in the faithful discharge of our duties, thankful to those who stand by us, and charitable to those whose views and feelings lead them the other way. From the very beginning of this controversy the Gazette expressed, as it now expresses, its approval of a thorough and impartial investigation into the railroad subscriptions made by this city and county. We have never thrown a straw in the way of such an investigation; and if those who engaged in the late scrutiny did not treat us fairly in giving publicity to the result of their labors, the fault of its non-appearance in our columns is theirs, not ours. Our whilom friends, to whom we have referred above, do not pretend to go a whit further, in this matter, than we have professed our willingness to go; and we fancy that if, hereafter, we should be tempted to visit upon them, as occasion may serve, the proscriptiveness they have shown toward us, they will prefer to be spared from such an imitation of their own example.

JANUS-FACED.—Several days since we made some extracts from the late speech of Douglas at Springfield, Ill., and accompanied them with such strictures as we deemed proper. As we stated at that time we found the speech in the Missouri Republican it having been either reported for, or sent to that paper. Among others this extract occurred:

"All history had proved that in no part of the world, or of the world's history, had the negro ever shown himself capable of self-government, and it was not the intention of the founders of this Government to violate that great law of God which made the distinction between the white and the black man. That distinction is plain and palpable, and it has been the rule of civilization and Christianity the world over, that whenever any one man, or set of men, were incapable of taking care of themselves, they should consent to be governed by those who were capable of managing their affairs for them."

We find another report of his speech prepared for the latitude of Springfield in the Illinois Register in which the above sentences endorsing as they do in the fullest manner the tyrant's plea that "might makes right" are so softened down as to read in the following manner:

"The history of the times clearly shows that the negroes were regarded as an inferior race, who, in all ages, and in every part of the globe, and under the most favorable circumstances, had shown themselves incapable of self-government, and consequently under the protection of those who were capable of providing for and protecting them in the exercise of all the rights which they were capable of enjoying, consistent with the good and safety of society."

The Cincinnati Gazette gives an account of a sharp operation of a feminine swindler, in that city, who, copying after many lords of this creation, left the millinery and trimming business and her creditors, to whom she owes about $8,000 at home and a comfortable sum in the East. She left between the 3d and 4th of July. The Gazette says endeavors to find her have been made without success, thus far, and we learn that one of the "victimized" offers five hundred dollars for her discovery.

Whether the fair milliner became infected with the present defaulting disposition of her masculine brothers or not, we cannot say, but we propose her as the next candidate for a lucrative office."

THE accident on the Marietta railway caused the death of two young men of Indianapolis named Bullard, nephews of Rev. Dr. Bullard, who was killed at the Gasconade bridge, Mo.—They were grand children of Dr. Cotton, of Marietta. Mr. Brigham, whose wife was killed, was from Marietta. On Thursday six were dead, and one or two others were in a dangerous condition. The editor of the Cincinnati Gazette says that to any one who has been on the spot of the accident, it is only surprising that every person in the car was not instantly killed. The perpendicular height of the bridge there, is fifty-seven feet, and the gulf below quite rough.

QUEER TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS.—An advertisement in a New York paper announces the appearance of one of the series of Waverley novels as "Old Morality," with an illustration of "Old Morality at his Work." One of the published canons of the late General Convention of the Episcopal Church read as follows: "Bishops may be tried for crime and immortality."

GERMAN PRINCESSES.—The Brunswick Journal announces that not less than fifty German Princesses are of an age to be married; and hence, of course, eagerly looking out in the matrimonial market. On the other hand, there are not more than half a dozen continental princes who are of an age befitting the expectants.

THE MORMONS DEPRIVED OF THE PRIVILEGE OF CARRYING THE MAILS, &c.—The Postmaster at Independence, Mo., has received an official notice from the Postmaster-General that the contract for carrying the mails from thence to the Salt Lake has been set aside; and he is therefore ordered to withhold the mails until further orders. This is done by virtue of a right always reserved by the department, to rescind mail contracts on giving due notice and one month's pay to the contractors. In this case the contract was taken by a Company of Mormons at Salt Lake City, who have already made several trips under it. So general were the complaints of the mails having been violated and letters opened, especially the correspondence of the Government officials, that it became quite evident these Mormon contractors were mere tools of BRIGHAM YOUNG. The Administration has also taken another step toward insuring the faithful performance of the mail service in Utah. A postmaster had, it seems, been appointed for Salt Lake City, who was not a Mormon. A Commission was formed to him, but never reached its destination, and duplicate copies failed likewise. In fact, he was not recognized by BRIGHAM YOUNG. He has now received his commission in person at Washington, together with full instructions as to his course, and will be sent out supported by a protecting military force.

DIABOLICAL ATTEMPT TO DESTROY A CHURCH.—An attempt has been recently made to blow up the church of the Rev. O. B. Frothington, in Jersey City. This church, which was lately built, is beautiful in its construction and an architectural ornament to the city. It is a Unitarian church.

On Friday night last some desperate characters broke into the church, probably by means of false keys, and disfigured it in several places, particularly the organ, of which they destroyed three keys. They then lighted a fire and turned on all the gas, evidently with the intention of creating an explosion and destroying the church. By some fortunate accident, which is not understood, the revolting scheme failed of success.—The matter was not discovered until Saturday, when the sexton went into the building as usual upon that day of the week to prepare it for the services of the succeeding day. It is thought that this violent demonstration was in obedience to some of the prejudices entertained against the church and its pastor.—N. Y. Post.

A COMPARISON.—In Fillmore county, Minnesota at the recent election for delegates to the Constitutional Convention, 1800 votes were polled. This is but a single county, and by no means the largest in the territory. In Kansas, where almost simultaneously an election was held for constitutional delegates, 1600 votes were polled in the whole territory. Now if 1600 votes are enough to entitle a territory to admission as a State, Minnesota has enough for some twenty or thirty states. Fillmore county alone might set up for itself on that principle.

WE WANT FAIR PLAY.—The Washington Union publishes a telegraphic report of the proceedings of the Democratic Convention in Georgia, but suppresses that portion of the narrative which tells of the resolutions denunciatory of Walker's Kansas policy. Are the Democracy of Georgia to be repudiated by the Administration? Is it by such artifices as this that the Union intends to deceive the country as to the sentiment of the South"—Gentlemen, give us fair play.—The South.

MRS. GENERAL GANO, who was one of the 25 persons who settled Cincinnati, died there recently after a residence of 68 years. Her maiden name was Mary Goforth. She was born in the city of New York in 1768, and was there educated and married. Her marriage occurred in 1787. Her distinguished husband, Gen. John S. Gano, was born in New York city in 1766, and died in Covington, Ky., in the 70th year of his age.

COL. FORNEY is determained to be hell sheep or none. His latest move is an attempt to force Mr. Buchanan, of the Pennsylvanian newspaper, to sell out. If his offer is not accepted during the coming week, Mr. Forney will commence a new Democratic Journal with a capital of $75,000 to start with. The ostensible difficulty is in relation to the "Main Line." The Locofocos are opposed to the sale; the Pennsylvanian favors it.

GEN. PILLOW thinks Mr. John B. Hall Tennessee will be the Republican candidate for President in 1860, if such arrangements can be made as to give him a reasonable chance of carrying his own State. In case Mr. Hall should not prove available, he says Mr. Wm. H. Seward will be the candidate. Which side of the fortification is the General digging the ditch now?—Honesdale Dem.

WEEVIL.—The Rochester American states that the weevil has made its appearance in the wheat fields of Livingston county, N. Y., which are already suffering from its ravages. Farmers are of the opinion that this dreaded insect will be found more destructive in the Genesee Valley the present year than in any preceeding it.

HOW IT WAS BUILT.—The monster iron steamship Great Eastern belongs to members of the Institution of Civil Engineers, in London, who subscribed $2,600,000 towards building it. This amount and the result exhibit the character of the institution, and their ability to accomplish what they undertake.

THE BURNING OF THE MONTREAL.—The number of persons known to have been on board the Montreal, exclusive of the crew, is 338. Of these there are saved 114, including some of the crew, making the total loss of life over 250 The number of bodies found and taken to Quebec is 168.

DR. J. R. WHITTEMORE, of Newport, is announced as the independent Republican candidate for Congress in the Tenth Congressional District of Kentucky. Dr. W. was formerly editor of a Democratic newspaper

BARNUM GONE.—The Bridgeport papers, announcing the departure of Mrs. P. T. Barnum and family for Europe, state that Mr. Barnum intends to make his future home on the other side of the Atlantic.

THE RIGHT USE OF WEALTH.—The receipts of the different religious and benevolent societies in London, have, during the past year, amounted, in round numbers, to the large sum of five millions of dollars.

A TALL LUNCH—Fashionable Restaurant —Waiter-er-er-r, got any fresh sh-sh-sh-ell o-y-s-t-e-r-s? No, but we've just got some fine green turtle. 'Nough said—bring me half-a-do-zen on the half-shell, quick.

HOW TO SWEAR A JEW.—The Boston Courier says there is a dilemma in the Courts as to the proper mode of making a Jew swear—allow us to suggest treading on his corns.

AIME BONPLAND, the naturalist, and friend and fellow-traveller, of Alexander Von Humboldt, has, notwithstanding his great age, just set out on a botanical research in Paraguay.

ONE of the high-minded Democratic Aldermen of Brooklyn is proved to have taken a bribe of $2500 to overlook a nuisance in that city!

MARRIED—At St. Louis, on the 23d inst., by Rev. J. B. Pryor, Miss LAURA HARMON, of St. Louis, to Mr. W. STACKHOUSE, of this city.

Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.—Another Great Cure effected by Brandreth's Pills.—The wife of Pieter De Witt, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She has been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some Brandreth's Pills at our office, which few grew tone to her stomach, her appetite and strength returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. one thing you can rely upon, that we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true.

Drs. C. M. FITCH & J. W. SYKES
Have concluded to extend their stay in Pittsburgh, till SATURDAY EVENING, July 18th, and will remain at the ST. CLAIR HOTEL, where they may be consulted by those wishing to avail themselves of Dr. Fitch's system of treatment.

The combination of remedial measures adopted by Dr. Fitch and Dr. Sykes has been amply tested, and is accordingly praised below in practice all that it claims to be in theory, that its ingredients do not hesitate to assert, that by their system, relief may be obtained in all cases not absolutely beyond the reach of remedies.

By this mode of treatment, the advantage of Medicated and Atmospheric inhalations is added to that of appropriate internal remedies, to penetrate and sustain the vitality of the general system; and these with such mechanical means as the case may indicate, prevent to proper attention to exercise, diet, bathing, friction, &c., &c., will not only afford more speedy relief in almost all cases, but will effect permanent cures in many cases, in which only partial and temporary relief could be obtained from any one of the above measures singly. But although many otherwise fatal cases of consumption may be thus relieved, there are still many which passed beyond hope, and those who are in any way inclined to a disease so insidious, and so fearfully fatal as consumption, cannot be too careful to give their cases early attention.—The delay even of a few weeks may, in many cases, turn the scale against the patient.

Where it is possible, we always prefer to make a personal examination, and thus ascertain the precise condition of the lungs, as we wish to understand, in each case where we have to a chance of doing good; and we wish no one to come to us who is not ready to lose the truth.

Those unable to visit us will, in writing, be careful to state their cases fully, answering, at length, our published list of questions, which will be sent to any requesting it; and the necessary remedies, as well for diseases of the lungs and Stomach, as for Female Diseases, may be sent by Express to almost any part of the United States. Consultation Free.—St. Clair Hotel, Pittsburgh. { DR. C. M. FITCH, M. D.

DR. KEYSER'S SHOULDER BRACES—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than 3 years past we have constantly worn the Washington suspender Brace, manufactured by Dr Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood street, in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to its merits, it answers for a brace and suspenders, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to continually tend to bring the shoulders to their natural position and expand the chest. Women, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of enormous "skirts," should also procure these braces. Be particular in procuring the kind mentioned, as many of the braces sold are humbug. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Druggist, 140 Wood street, sign of the Golden Mortar. je26-2w&wsP
