It is true, the figures are for the port of New rous outspoken spirit for which the Palmetto as New York is not only the great importing pation of Charleston by the English. ures indicate prety plainly the state of the national commerce for the year.

The increase over the preceding year, in round numbers, is $28,000,000 - not a much greater in reasc, perhaps, than the accompanying increase alation in the same time; but should not a great people, as we boast ourselves to be, be continue to grow greater year by year?

How was this increased import paid for? A pertinent question. In produce, you will say? the year was $75,928,842, against $75,026,244 st year—a scarcely perceptible increase. But, e in the same period, our export of gold increased from $22,580,991 to $46,942,248—or more than doubled. The increased imports, therefore were paid for in gold. The European manufacturers, who supply us with what we could as well make ourselves, will not take our produce in payment; they must have the bullion.—

Nearly the entire yield of California gold, last year, went abroad to pay for foreign luxuries or Then Goldwell the recommendation of the South with the magic aid of a cowhile.

nearly the whole of the increase being in gold.

How, it may be well to ask, do our experts compare with those of other nations. Our experts are our income—the means upon which we rely to pay for our expenses as purchasers from other countries. Do they keep pace with our wanted growth? On this point we clip the vaunted growth? On this point we clip the following from the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer. "Weareapt to congratulate our selves on the unor the former we have reason; but of the latter the figures do not prove our statements. In the last ten years, the exports of the United States have increased 107 per cent., while the increase in the exports of France for the same period is equal to 130 per cent; and the increase of the exports of Great Britain for the same period is equal to 23 per cent. and the increase of the exports of Great Britain for the same period is equal to 23 per cent.
