Circuit Court for having acrecised the dutien imposed upon them by the statutes of the State. It the democratic party can compass it they will all be severely punished for exercising allegiance upon their own solit the laws of their own State.

The question aities whether Ohio is really possessed of the attributes of sovereignty. According to Judge Leavitt's decision any fool, knave or secoundrel who may get an appointment as U. S. Commissioner may issue a writ at any time, arrest any citizen of Ohio-governor, judge, aberiff, legislator, farmer or mechanic, and the Federal Marshals may seit the designated citizen upon any pretense, however frivolous, however illegal, however unconstitutional, and drag him before this petty Commissioner: and there is no power in any State Court which the State nor any of her citizens has any rights which these federal bloodhounds are bound to groped. The Marshal and his deputies may right shich these federal bloodhounds are bound to groped. The Marshal and his deputies may right shich these federal bloodhounds are bound to groped. The Marshal and his deputies may state that you have been departed by the United States Courts, makes an irresponsible set of officials whom it empowers, suprems over both the people and their State anthorities. The States mare to large and the state have no large and the state have not have a such a province of the general government. And this is the case with every other State, as wall as Ohio.
