Famine in China.—The Frend of China, of May 9th, received by the Overland Mail, says that the famine prevailing in that country creeds all that the oldest living man has ever witnessed. The rebels are making progress, the capital of the province of Kwang-Si, Kwel-Lung, having fallen into their hands. In the province of Kwang-trag, the famine is so sovere, that even the women are forming themselves into bands of robbers, have seized the sword and gone forth plundering in order to obtain sustenance.

John B. Goudh has recovered the Bible given him by his mother, which he lost in a Bristol, R. I., groggery, fifteen years ago. A few weeks since it was accidentally found in the corner of an old stille, where it was probably thrown at the time.
