"The effects of this grasshopper scourge which is now being inflicted upon a large portion of our territory cannot well be over estimated. All kinds of bulless most suffer thereby not only, but starvation, are starvation, dreadful as is the word must be the lot of many, unless timely assistance is rendered.—There are thousands of families here who have had hard work to get through the last long winter.—Their last dollar has been expended in getting in their little crop, their only dependence for the future, their only support for the winter which will soon be upon them. This, their last and only hope is now being completely and entirely destroyed by the grasshopper. In many fields not switzed the celebrated guide of the Mammoth Cave.
