horrified at riots in Baltimore or Louisville, of which democrats may be the victims; but they adopt Riot as a legitimate party weapon in the Metropolitan city. They claim a blind veneration for the U. S. Supreme Court, but hold up to public coatempt the Court of Appeals of the Empire State. They claim of the will of the Pensylvania! Why was not Wilmot in Pensylvania! Why was not Wilmot in Pensylvania! Why was not Wilmot in Pensylvania! Why was not Milmosota and their acquiescing in the demand of the South that nearly the entire people of Kangas shall be disfranchised in the formation of a Constitution. Squatter Sovereignty has everywhere been ignored by the party, notwithstanding it was their rallying cry but one short year ago. Trace it where you will, it is the party of violance, fraud and resistance, employing any pretext for party success. It has no fired principles—none but the great one of public plunder. The end, with it, in all cases justifies the means. Take Philadelphia for instance. The Court, there, has just decided that at the election last fall, in a very few election districts, the locofoco leaders managed to stuff the ballot-boxes with 1800 fraudulent votes, by means of which they cheated Wa. B. Maxx out of the office of District Attorney. If the scrutiny had been carried throughout the entire city, doubless the number of fraudulent votes would be swelled to many thousands. Therecan be no question, now, that the three Locofoco State officers elected last fall were chosen by these very illegal votes, and that they now hold their offices by virtue of a gross, and glaring fraud upon the ballot-box. Their majority in the States wish may be constant the supremacy of the people to rule, and the duty of the minority to submit to the government of the majority to submit to the government of the people—the right of the people to rule, and the duty of the minority to submit to the government of the own bounds, and the restriction of the powers of the General Government to such matters as concerned all the States alike. But all this is now changed. The people have now no right to rule, and the decident of the people have now no right to rule, and the supremacy of the several States within their own bounds, and the restriction of the powers of the General Government to such matters as concerned all the States alike. But all this is now changed. The people have now no right to rule, and the duty of the minority is on the right of the government to such matters as concerned all the States alike. But all this is now changed. The people have now no right to rule, and the duty of the minority is on their side; but when the majority may rule, in a short space of time. But the success of the General Government to such matters as concerned Trace it where you will, it is the party of violence, fraud and resistance, employing any pre-text for party success. It has no fixed prin-

To come down to particulars from these generalities, let us recur again to the case of Philatheir orators and presses. But what the party then charged upon its opponents it has now learned to practise itself. Last fall it not only octonized voters by the thousands in Philadel-phis, but it procured the printing of about 3000 phis, but it procured the printing of about 3000 naturalization. Certificates, which were fraudulently filled up and given to unnaturalized for eigners, all of whom exercised under them the privilege of voting. It was with these colonized and fraudulent, totes that the party carried Philadelphis last October. One of the men cleeted by these wotes has just been judicially ousted in consequence of them, but the three State officers, one State Senator, and at least two members of Congress all hold their seats in virtue of that glaring and undeniable fraud. And not only so; but Mr. James Buchanan himself owes the Presidency to the success of that iniquity. Had this fraud not been perpetrated in October, the democracy would have been defeated in this State, in which even it would; have been impossible for them to have carried it in November, and without Pennsylvania Buchanan could not have been elected. rania Buchanan could not have been elected, and wrote as we would at home a litle after Thus the party owes its national existence to an outrage upon popular rights, which should have Thus the party owes its incitonal existence to an outrage upon popular rights, which should have consigned every actor in it to the Penitentiary.

Look also at New York. The party there, as elsewhere, had have the where are the where are ruins of the past-oldeastles, abbeys, monasteries and churches show the devotion and

To come down to particulars from these generalities, let us recur, again to the case of Philadelphia. In 1840, towards the close of the Harrison campaign, the democrats affected great horror at what was then called "Pipe-laying," "oor colonizing fraidulent voters—which the charged upon the Whigs; and for many years "pipe-laying," was the general theme of Acquirator Madrianis Smith.—We learn they thought, to their party interests. The city was in a state of alarm and uncasiness day after day, and the blood of the citizens and the officers of the law stained its pavements in overy direction. But what of that? Riof and forcible resistance to law are democratio when exercised in behalf of democracy.

But the party went even further than this, It adopted the "higher law" doctrine, not in its legitimate application but in a revolutionary at laid down the brood report that that its passed it is and a right not many a price of the law and a right not many a price of the law and a right not many and pretty will be rather more interesting than the Bond street heorine.—Phil. The Democratic papers are making themselves hoarse in denouncing a certain church in slichigan which expelled a member for having yoted for James Buchanan. If any Church did this, they did a very silly thing.

But the papers which speak most harshly of this case, says the Albany Journal, have no word of condemnation for those Churches at the Bouth who compel their pastors either to preach that Slavery is a divine institution or leave. Everywhere it is evincing an utter disregard for the law, the courts, the established authorities, and the voice of the people as shown at the ballot-box, invoking to its aid riots, rebellion and revolution—resistance in any and every form, for the purpose of maintaining the party should be called the "Democratic" party form, for the purpose of maintaining the party should be called the "Democratic" party supremacy.

Does the legislature pass a law unpalatable to its leaders? Straightway they set about to nutlify and resist it. Do the Courts pronounce the constitutional? The Judges are at once marked men, targets of abuse, and objects of political persecution. Do the people elect their representatives for any specific purpose and fall to return a majority of "Dead Rabbits?"
