PITTSBURGH: THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 30, 1857.

The "democratic" Central Committee of this dresses, designed for the especial edification of generally are composed of an amount of cant, political flummery and unmeaning generalities that would be disgusting to any other than democratic stomachs, and are the productions of the pen of some "ready writer" who adopts this plan for the purpose of placing himself permanently in the "line of succession" for the emoluments and the honors of a public station. Last year Mr. Former filled this oracular position,—and this approaching October election. These addresses Forms filled this oracular position,—and this of the demand to the demands the demand th

As to the Court in Philadelphia being Republican, that is all moonshine. The Republican of Philadelphia have never yet had the power t elect a Republican Judge in that city, and we do not believe that either of the Judges sympa thires with the Republican party. We know that one of them was a delegate to the New School General Assembly at Cleveland, this summer and took sides with the South on the Slavery question. They were elected in 1851, with very little reference to politics, and the Post is the only paper that has attributed their decision in the District Attorney case to political bias. The Pennsulvanian has not dared to do it, although it is ordinarily sufficiently reckless in political matters. It has not even presumed to question it would have done so if it could. The fact is the decision in that case was the inevitable re suit of the legal exposure made before the Cour of the gross frauds practiced by the locofocos a the election in October last. Political bias had nothing to do with it. No sourt could honestly have made any other decision.

The locofoco party cannot get rid, by any sucl or its responsibility for them. They were demeans of preserving the dominance of the party in the state and nation, and the power the part now possesses was derived from the success of se frauds. A party thus put in possession of the government by a concerted violation of the laws which throw safeguards around the rights of voters, may well be termed a party hostile to CALIFORNIA .- The political intelligence from this State shows that the patronage of the ad-ministration has been too much for Broderick in his efforts to control the State Convention The Southern factionists of the party, backed by custom house and other official patronage, have carried a majority of the delegates. Broderick will be compelled hereafter to fight his own battles against Buchanan, in his seat in the Beniate chamber, and on the stump before the people of California. From this administration he has nothing to expect in the future. But he is a politician of tact, energy and perseverance, and may give the rulers at Washington some trouble in their political household. All his antecedents give indications that he is a man not easily put down, and more particularly so when arbitrary measures are attempted. With his political principles, we certainly, have little sympathy, although we would prefer to have him in power to the pro-slavery demagogues led on by Weller and Herbert, who now seem to be the chosen pets of the national administration

"LEATHER AND PRUBELLA."—How the altitities." by custom house and other official patronage the chosen pets of the national administration

The Locofoco press makes a great ado over the Metropolitan Police Law of New York, which they denounce as an infamous piece of tyranny designed to take the management of municipal affairs out of the hands of the peo-ple. It is remarkable, however, that a law milar in its provisions was passed by the demword of condemnation for that act, because it perates in their favor.

SOMETHING TOO NICH OF THIS. - The New York | THE DEMOCRACY IS A PLUTTER. - Our article | Times, when it, went over to the support of the of Monday, showing that the democratic party administration policy in Kansas, hardly anticipaied being known under the lead of the Washingtom Union; and subject to being associated with its objectionable ulterances. Yet such is its position. The Times and the Union came and a half of wrathful splutter to us, in a style its position. The Times and the Union came and a half of wrathful splutter to us, in a style its position. The Times and the Union came and a half of wrathful splutter to us, in a style its position. The Times and the Union came and a half of wrathful splutter to us, in a style its position. The Kansas dictator talks as if the southern attacks upon him; but the latter, in its advocacy of the Kansas dictator talks as if the South were the entire country and the North and its people as being of no concern. It talks of Walker "dragooning" the "Abolliton the proposition of the same kind on the councils of the nation," and speaks of "Gor. Walker's fidelity to the South," as if, in that do not the talk was and to the councils of the nation," and speaks of "Gor. Walker's fidelity to the South," as if, in that and now that the Post has shown us where to direct our aim with the most efficiency, we shall not be slow to improve our opportunities.

A HAPPY comment on the annihilation of time and Southern purposes only, to which mission as sent out there to subserve Southern purposes to any so.

But this does not suit such journals as the Times. It cannot afford to defend Walker on such grounds. It therefore kicks out of the same with the rest of the same kind on the councils of the nation," and speaks of "Gor. A HAPPY comment on the annihilation of time and spaces by locomotive ugency, is as follows:

It therefore kicks out of paper being thrown under the lead of the many or the purple peace, has created a wantington Union, and subject to being associated derial flutter among the leaders of the party with its objectionable utterances. Yet such is here. The Post of yesterday devotes a column its position. The Times and the Union came simulfaneously to the defence of Walker against which leads us to suspect that the ghost of its honors of a public station. Last year Mr Former filled this oracular position,—and this season the dutydevolves on Mr. Buckelew, who expects, no doubt, more consideration and better reward for his services in this line than was bestowed on his predecessor. The address contains the usual high-flown luadations of the respective candidates on the Stateticket, than whom—according to its assertions—there never were purer men, greater statesmen and more learned jurists. The democratic party is commended in the extravagant language which for years has been adopted by demagogues, when it was their interest to mislead and deceive the people—finiterest to mislead and deceive the people—finiterest to mislead and deceive the people—tury ago by the author of the Declaration of locations organization. It has been tried, it is bold and open in conduct; it is magnanimous, patients and national. Founded more than, half a contary ago by the author of the Declaration of public affairs, and planting itself early, add throughoat its whole career, upon a strict construction of the Continution, and a sparing use of the powers of Government, has preserved our American system from degeneracy and failure.

There is a dash of irony in the above quotation which will cause a smile to play on the party, when it falls under their notice. How they must laugh in their sleeves at the idea of deluding any person with such chaff! "It is bold and open in conduct; it is magnanimous, the party, when it falls under their notice. How they must laugh in their sleeves at the idea of deluding any person with such chaff! "It is bold and open in conduct; it is magnanimous, the such as a sparing use of the powers of deluding any person with such chaff! "It is bold and open in conduct; it is magnanimous, the such as a semile to play on the connectance of the "knowing ones" of the party, when it falls under their notice. How they must laugh in their sleeves at the idea of selection to the connectance of the carterion trains a sparing the content of the carter istration truly, and of all preceding administra tions. "Fidelity to the South," is and has been the great test of all who aspire to positions of national trust. It is not fidelity to the country, where it treats with contempt the will of the republican principles that underlie free governpatriotism and magnanimity its endorsement of the tyrannical bogus laws of Kansas affords inoppression and wrong which is exacted by those deed a fine sample. The last sentence quoted is in power. The South rebels against the slightso notoriously false, and savors so strongly of est departure from this fidelity; and the Adminmodern demagoguism that it carries with it its istration always yields when the South rebels.

THE THEEATENED KANSAS WAR, -This valorous attempt of Walker to frighten or to ruin the people of Lawrence will appear more wanton when it is remembered that Leavenworth City has an organized government with Mayor and ther municipal officers, and in fact even now, with the hirelings at the doors of the persecuted city of Lawrence, no one can say what the people of that place have done except to organize a local government for the purpose of bridging a ravine, watering the streets making sidewalks since, why were not the United States troops ordered to invest that place? Why did not the Locofoce papers of that time denounce the people of that city as traitors, insurgents, etc. " A letter from Lawrence gives the following ac-of Appeals of the State of New York was a Republican Court, or that the Court in Philadelphia which ousted Cassidy was subject to the same designation?

The members of the New York Court are politically classed as follows:

Hiram Denio, Deni. W. H. Shankland, Dem. Alex. S. Johnson, do Alonzo C. Paige, do Saml. L. Selden, do Levi Bowen, Republican Other Bowen, do Geo. F. Comstock, K. N. It will be seen that there is but one Republican out of the eight. The Court decided, 6 to 2, that the New York Police law was constitutional, the two who dissented being Judge Brown, democrat, and Judge Comstock, Know Nothing. The other five democratic judges decided in favor of its constitutionality.

The attempt on the part of the Post to make if appear that the decision in question, condemning as it did the armed resistance to that law mide by the democratic party, came from the middle of the post to make if appear that the decision in question, condemning as it did the armed resistance to that law mide by the democratic party, came from the server and was therefore the regult. in. Some of them were absent from town at the election. Gov. Walker has write for the arrest of the persons thus voted for. He has gone off at half cock. This stupid warlke demonstration is the most insane thing that was ever done in Kansas.—Don Quixutto's tilt against the wind-mill was a joke to it."

We learn that, in order to raise mone start a Repudiation paper in this city, those who are soliciting subscriptions allege as a neessity for it that there is not now a single paper in this city in which the opponents of the Rail-road Tax can have a hearing or obtain the insertion of a communication. There is no truth whatever in the allegation, and the most, if not all, of those engaged in circulating it know it to be untrue. The other papers can speak for themselves; for ourselves we can say that we have never account. nave never refused to insert any communication offered us on the Tax question, and our column have been open at all times to the discussion of that question, pro and con. If the opponents of taxation have not availed themselves of their privilege in this respect, it is not our fault ... No loubt it would be more pleasant to them to have an organ of their own; but they ought to be manly enough to put it on that ground, and not resort to the trick of fabricating the story of a grievance that has no existence. When, after the first session of the late Tax Convention, we referred to the remarks which we understood Hon. Thomas Williams to have obtain a hearing in any of the city papers, he replied through our columns that he had been misunderstood, and admitted that he had no tions in several of the city papers. We have no objection whatever to the establishment of a Repudiation organ here; but we will not permit its projectors to circulate, with impunity, a falsehood concerning us, as the basis of their appeal for help. THE MAIN LINE.-The Philadelphia North American mentions a report that capitalists heavily interested in the Union and Schuvlkill Canals are disposed to invest largely in the en-terprise of consolidating the Main Line of the Pennsylvania Canal with the Union Canal, thus making a continuous water route from Philadelphia to the West, provided fair terms can be obtained. It adds:

"LEATHER AND PRUBELLA."-How the utilitarianism of the present invades the romance of the past may be seen by the notice we publish from an English paper of the proposed sale under the hammer of the Castle of the great Talbot together with all its contents. Think of an tioneer knocking down the armor that took of a whole line of Talbots prostrated with a similar in its provisions was passed by the democratic legislature of Lousiana to take the control of New Orleans out of the hands of its citizens. The locofoco papers have never a hivered vainly upon the bodies of that valurable condemnstion for that act, because it away by the merchants at whose ancestors the Talbots curled their proud lips in scorn!
