The combustion is supposed to have been caused lation, who know, and knowing dare to say by the heat of the hay and grain which were de-posited in the barn. The loss is estimated to be what they think makes not only for their imme between $7,900 and $8,000. diate interests, but that of the whole state, and diste intersets, but that of the whole state, and especially for Western Virginia. "The fact is that the people of that region of coun-try, as well as over the western dirision of our state, are beginning to wake up to their true interset. This they see can only be reached by an influx of popu-lation—of the right kind of populsion—which does not consist of captains and colonels, but of bore and inew laborers—men who have the heart and hands to go to warks and rid out the wilds and ope up the bills of our highly favored western Virginia. The people have seen that the stand still, abstractionized poing, which was inangurated in the early days of the common wealth, whon it was thought unnecessary to do more than till enough to feed a parse popula-tion, will not do in this age of the world." SENATOR RUSK'S DEATH, by suicide, is men tioned in the four Orleans Frequence, is men-thority of a gentleman from Nacogloches, who says he attended his funeral on the 30th ult. The bays no altended in sinteral on its 30th ull. The overet caused great consternation and grief. The fown was clothed in mourning for the loss of this distinguished man, under such terrible circumstances. The gentleman assigns no cause for the deed.

A CHARMENG DOMESTIC CIRCLE. - A St. Francis correspondent of the Helena(Ark.) Dom-orat says that a sanke den was discovered a few days. ago, near Taylor's creek, in that county, containing upwards of two hundred and forty reptiles, thirty of which were large rattle-snakes, and the balance moccosins and black-snakes. INNIGBATION .- The New York Times gives tabular enumeration of the ships, passengers, etc., arriving at that port during the month of snakes. PROTECTION FRQU MONOPOLY.--In various counties of England protective societies have been formed of persons who pledge themselves not to purchase a thimble full of sugar until it has declined four cents per pound.
