THE great excitement of yesterday was the sudden arrival of the steamer Tennessee, from Greytown, having on board 200 deserters from the army of Gen. Walker. These poor fellows accepted the invitation of the Costa Riccan gov-ernment, and took refuge in its camp when Walker's case had become hopeless. Fulfilling their promise, the Costa Riccans provided for them, until the arrival of the Tennessee, which be a stimulation with the parties to whom the should buy so largely of foreign wares, when we could just as well make as good ourselves if we would only encourage home labor. But looking at it commercially, our increased importa-tions would be of no moment if our exportations kept pace with them. But there is just where the shoe pinches. They do not keep pace, by a stipulation with the parties to whom the Transit Contract was awarded, left this port of but are falling off as fast as the others in And what is the prospect of the future? by asplantation with the process to mind the Transit Contract was awarded, left this port on the list of August, for the purpose of bringing them home. They were received in town yes-terday—were marched up to the City Hall, and paraded, a melancholy spectacle, on its steps, while sundry politicians pleaded charity for them; they promenaded through Wall-street, where they collected $16(1)—were fed in a Ful-ton Market eating-house, and the bill $44 planked down from the collection. Eight of the deserters were sent to the Almahouse, two to Bellevue Hospital, three forwarded to Philadel-phis, and the rest quartered for the night at the Police Stations—creept a few whose credit was good enough to secure their beds and board at the hotels.—N.
