This Execution of M'Kim.—At the time of his trial, M'Kim was a strong, healthy man, with the ready dash of health glowing on his countenance, and his whole appearance betokening the utmost vigor mentally and bodily. To day, though he has not fallen off mursian fiesh, he appeared pale and we was not fallen off mursian fiesh, he appeared pale and was, with a sickly has pervacing his countenance, and a look that, despite all his effort to conceal it, marked him as the victim of the deepest mental agony.

"After the stiempted escape of the prisoner was rested by the fers...D.S. Judkin, O.O. McLean, Sheriff Port, the Jailor, and from that time till-ten the convict was occupied in singing, prager and exhortation, in which the elergymon joined. At forty-five minutes past ten the unhappy man was propared for the gallows, and a procession being formed he was conducted to the scaffold. He walked, and a pretty strong competition.

The Masillon News says the wheat traile is now brisk, there being pienty of buyers in this condition, in which the elergymon joined. At forty-five minutes past ten the unhappy man was propared for the gallows, and a procession being formed he was conducted to the scaffold. He walked with a lightness of step that astonished the spectators.

After calmly surveying the spectators for a few moments, he proceeded to address them, and spoke.

We were not present at the moment when the testimeny of Dr. M. was laid before the Mayor, but we learned from the reading of it, in one at least of the afternoon papers, that the Doctor testified to his belief, on the strength shallers, the Markow Fill amination, that the girl was a virgin when she testified to his belief, on the strength indirect amination, that the girl was a virgin when she thus rashly snatched herself away from life.

We would not, if we could, shield any man, gallty as the Dispatch assumes Cordell to be, from the rigor of the law or the just and condign contempt of outraged society; but we contend that after the testimony of Dr. Murdoch in the case, we have no right to attack Cordell in the premises. It devolves upon any one so doing to impeach the Doctor first, it is necessary to call in question his testimony. Has the Dispatch any ground for such a position?

Lawrence Co.—The barn of Col. Wm. R. Wallace, formerly commissioner of Lawrence Lawrence Co.—The barn of Col. Wm. R. Wallace, formerly commissioner of Lawrence county, was struck by lightning during the severe thunder storm of Friday afternoon last, and was with its contents, entirely consumed by fire.....The Agricultural Fair of L. county will be held on the 17th and 18th of next month..... The New Castle Gazette says Mr. William White, of Neshannock township, this county, on the 20th ullimo, lost sight of a very fine four year old cow; hunted for her daily up to the 11th inst, when he discovered her in an ore pit. Here the poor animal had laid without food and without water for 22 days, and yet she was alive when found, but reduced to a perfect skeleton. The earth was removed and with much care she was brought out of her prison home, yet so far reduced that she could neither eat nor drink, and died within half an hour of her delivery.

He leaves miniscross warm personal friends here, who will, doubtless, be rejoiced to learn of his property and extended usefulness in his new home.

THE AQUEDUCT.—We learn from the Post of yesterday that a few of the timbers of this structure having given way and caused a leak, the Aqueduct Committee of Councils have arranged with John A. Roebling, Esq., Civil Engineer, to superintend the repairs. Mr. Roebling was the builder of the aqueduct, and thoroughly understands its re-construction.

JUSTICE J. F. COCKBAYE, of McKeesport, yester-day, committed to jail to await trial, in default of bail, a woman named Bridget Winter, charged with committing an assault and battery upon, and threat-ening to kill, Hannah Houscholder, a young daugh-ter of Jonathan Houscholder, of that borough.

With regard to his hopes for the future, he remarked that he had made has peace with food, and was going to Heaven to his Redeemer.

His last words were, "I leave my poor wife, mother and child in the care of Heaven;" and then, turning to the Sherif, said, "Fou can go should as soon as you please." At twenty-five minutes of one the drop fell, and the unbappy man was unbred before his young Norcross lost his life.

Wills M'Kim was speaking from the seaffold, the conduct of the crowloutiside was truly disgraceful.

The unfortunate man spoke so as to be heard several squares away, yet the rabble yelled and shouted and hooted so at times that his voice was entirely drowned.

There were three military companies in attendance,
and, alide that it was only by the greatest exertion
that the peace was preserved.

After hanging some twenty minntes, the body was oxamined by a physician in attendance, and, life being pronounced extinct it was cut down. Tho next was found to have been dislocated, but the features were searcely altered, and beyond a purple circle around the neck, produced by the rope, there was builtills-change in his appearance.

It was then removed from the senfold and placed

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The steamers Moses Taylor and Splendid, both lying in the Cunard dock, Jersey Cir, were burned this morning. The Moses Taylor was a new boat, belonging to the Deleware and Lackawana Railroad Company. She was insured for $13,000. The Splendid was owned by G. J. Scott, and was insured for $10,000. was owned by G. J. Scott, and was insured for $10,000. Mr. Scott's son was aboard the latter, and it is feared he perished. The Conard steamship Arabia was, at one time, in imminent danger.

CINGINNATI, Aug. 21.—Last evening a four story brick building occupied by Chas. Bardman, tobacconist, fell with a tremendous crash, under the pressure of sixteen hundred barrels of whiskoy which had been stored in the second and third stories, by Calvin Fletcher. The walls fell against a building owned by A. K. Skiff, and forced in the entire side. Two other buildings are also damaged. buildings are also damaged.

St. Paul, Aug. 21.—The Democratic Conven Sr. Paul, Aug. 21.—The Democratic Convention to-day passed a resolution for the appointment of a committee to confer with the klepublicans for the purpose of submitting but one Constitution to the people. It is not probable that the members will meet in one Convention, but a great obstacle to the immediate settlement of the difficulties is removed.

The rumored collision between the Sioux and Chippowa Indians is without foundation.

WASHINGTON CITY, Aug. 21.-The Interior Department has received intelligence from reliable gentlemen and fugitive Mormons that Brigham Young is preparing to resist Gen. Harney; that he has relapsed into the grossest infidelity and atheism, and continues to hold up the Government of the United States to the contempt of the Mormons.

Boston, Aug. 21.—It is reported that Blanch ard, Sherman & Co. have suspended in consequence of the failure of Bates & Co., announced this morning.
