M'Mullin has also a post in the Custom House and the work of the best things we have read lately is the following:

"Dan Sickles said, in a recent speech at a Tamman's meeting, that the President land acted with pre-eminent wisdom in "sending the stalwart Walker to Kansas to cut off the head of the hydre, monster."

In Kansas, should the Union-savers secure the scendancy, he might rise to such a height as to ccupy some day a seat in the United States cenate, as a colleague of Stringfellow or Afchison! As matters now stand, considering Bill's nvaluable services as a democrat, and his "willing" propensities generally, we shall hold our-selves prepared to hear of his appointment by

Mr. Buchanan to a Governorship or Judgeship in Kansas or one of the other Territories. Our Philadelphia "bruiser" is no doubt on terms of intimacy with the President, whose mansion he must have visited frequently-during the last Presidential campaign, in the capacity of a leading politician. We are surprised that our democratic cotemporaries have not made more of Bill's Canadian achievements. They would be a glorious setoff to Mr. Packer's lack of "back bone," and likewise show that want of courage is not a family failing. Moved by a desire to do justice to our democratic friends, and at the same time The democratic party, having been deprived actuated by a sympathetic feeling for their forone great source of plunder and peculation, in lorn condition through the timidity of their the transfer of the main line of the State improvements to the management of a private company, seems disposed to make the most of the opportunity for further depredations on the Treasury afforded by the canals still in possession of the Commonwealth. The fountains of corruption on the Allegheny Mountains and on the Columbia Railroad having ceased to flowand the Internative wood and iron contracts, and the lucrative wood and iron contracts, and the fraudulent "estimates," by means of which dishonest and unprincipled politicians have been rewarded for party services at the expense of the people, having no longer an existence—If the treasury leeches, like a peak of famished walves, have commenced their depredations in achievements of one of their most prominent further depredations on the and influential Philadelphia politicians.
