SHALL BUSINESS.—A KANSAS COTTAPORMENT.

Of the St. Louis Democrat says;

'Walker don't like the New York Tribune.
Neither, it appears, does our respected Jeemes, the bachelor of the White House. There is a little place—or townsite—called Greeley; in the southern part of Kansas. The proprietors applied for a post office. Therequest was granted, provided the same of the changed to Welker! The alteration was made. We have a Walker postoffice, therefore in the town of Greeley! Don't that "smell pretty loud" of the milleanium!"

The bark Emil Taylor, Capt. Taylor, of New Bedford, Massachusetts, was lying at Gibson's wharf, Baltimore, yesterday, having arrived a few days since from Gence. She is discharging the cargo, which consists of the finest marble. Among the cargo are: twenty columns, each weaty feet long and two and a half feet in diam three to ten tons each.—Weath. Union.

Sending to Italy for marble, when it exists all around us in this country, seems like a very singular mode of developing the resources of one own country. National buildings, it strikes us, would be more worthy of the name if they were constructed of American marble. This is a miniter in which the Government and the country.
