PITTSBURGH: SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 19, 1857. BEADING NATTER ON EACH PAGE OF THIS PAPER.

The Changed Tone of our Enemies. Last year, during a campaign when the patriotism and love of truth and freedom of our political friends induced them to rally around the gallant FREMONT, and struggle valiantly for the rescue of the government from the vandal hands which disgrated it, they were stigmatized by every term of reproach which the hatred and renom of locofocoism could invent. They were called "Nigger Worshippers," "Nigger Thieves," "Traitors." "Pestilent Fellows." and by every other vile name which the lowest blackguardism sould suggest. Their candidate was traduced as a "thief," a "defaulter," a "Catholic," an "alien," &c., and those who supported him were made objects on all possible ridicule and contempt. They were hooted at and reviled on all possible occasions; their meetings disturbed; their processions stoned; their banners tornand their processions stoned; the banners tornand their ban mutilated; in short, every indignity which it was possible to inflict our friends were then compelled to endure; and when, by fraud, they were cheated out of the success they had fairly carned, how the locofocos abused their ill-gotten victory by jibes and taunts and mockery, our Republican associates in that campaign are feel-

A year has not passed since then, and yet these viliflers of ours are now courting Repub lican votes and begging the men they abused so outrageously to vote with them and for them, and give them a locofoco victory in old Allegheny, over which to crow throughout the length and breadth of the land. The tiger feet which last year were bristling with claws to rend and tear us are now as velvety to the touch as if no claws were there. These fellows are most exceedingly smooth-spoken, now, as placid as the great Oily Gammon and as inoffensive as if they never knew wrong. How indignant they are at the sufferings of the people! How ready they are to relieve them with abundant promise that mean nothing! How cloverly they shake hands and try to be friendly! All they want is office, and the chance to shout that Allegheny has been redeemed from Black Republicanism and that Democracy is at last triumphant in this stronghold of the enemy. They want to get into the citadel by flattery and cajolery, and lying promises, that they may holst their pirate fing over it. They are as lavish of promises, now, as Nena Sahib was to the garrison of Cawapore; but surrender to them once, and they will prove as faithless and villainous as he. We counsel our readers to give no heed to these hypocritical rogues. They are the same | p now they did then. Their present attitude is but a trick to throw you off your guard and cheat a victory from you which they cannot honestly win. Do not fall into the treacherous pit they are digging for you. Not one of them is worthy of come moment of your confidence. They are your enemies and the enemies of your country -the same bitter, unrelenting foes of freedom and friends of Slavery and Ruffianism they were in Issoe, and instead of listening to their appeals overy Republican in the county ought to be glad of so early an opportunity to rebuke them for the gross frauds and cheats by which they forced Buchanan imo the Presidency in spite of the popular will. No promises they can make are worthy of belief. They have cheated, and fleeced and defrauded the people wherever they have had the nower and they will roll you if signed.

fiecced and defrauded the people whorever they have had the power, and they will rob you if you but give them the chance they coret.

Friends of freedom! Your cause is as holy, and they are and as worthy of your devotion now the following failed to be a failed of the following failed to be a failed of the fai behalf, as last year. Kansas is more in danger to-day than she was then. Be not seduced by siren songs to trust the men whose hostility to Freedom has hitherto handed you together, but rally as one man, and renew, at the polls, your the epistle of Rev. Brownlow and congratulate __Cor. Phil. Eve. Bull the epistle of Rev. Brownlow and congratulate the benighted peoples of the New England States on the priceless boon about to be conferred upon them by the new Missionsay. He says:

"The villainous agitation of the Slavery quetion by your long-faced hypocrites and vagabond philanthropists of the North is only is intended to give birth to new and more lofty schemes of disunion and to more bold and harardous entorprises in the States and Territories.

"It is Northern Abolitionists, scores of whom are here in the Stuth in disguise, who stir upour slaves to these acts of murder and violence. Some of them are filling our pulpits—some compying high positions in our colleges—some editing political and religious newspapers—some editing political and religious newspapers—some editing political and religious newspapers—some work lilling condensated.

our slaves to these acts of murder and violence. Some of them are filling our pulpits—some occupying high positions in our colleges—some editing political and religious newspapers—some editing pools—and some setting geods—and some steating through the country as secret agents of Abolition societies, enticing hegroes to run away. These scoundrels ought to be lynched, rode upon rails; and in many justances hang!

It is my purpose to spend this coming Winter in the principal cities of the South, lecturing upon the subject of Slavery, the morality of the North-contrasting the condition of free persons of color in the Free States with that of the slaves in the South. In the Spring I purpose visiting the New England States, and repeating the same lectures. In other works, I propose it the same lectures. In other works, I propose it the same lectures. Netherland, which have already heen commented on to some extent in all the journals of the day, except the "democratic." He says.

Mr. Netherland is an honorable man, a human gentleman, and is not a slave dealer, and never was. I have known him intimately for thirty years.

He ways also that the statements in relation to the slave-whipping behind the Presbyterian church in Rogerwille "is at variance with the facts." He does not state what the facts are.

Low PRIOR FOR WHEAT. -- We learn that three Low Price for Wheat.—We learn that three cargoes of wheat, about 30,000 bushels, were sold in Joliet, Illinois, on Saturday, at the low price of 40c, per bushel. This is a great sacrifice, but the reason of the low sale was that the farmed the sacrifice of the vicinity clubbed together to ship their own wheat, got it to Joliet, and were forced to sell at 40 cents. Wheat in this city du Saturday was 70@73c, with very light sales.—Miltraukee American, Sept. 14.
