AN EX-COMMUNICATION—SAINT PATRICK'S CHURCH, COLUMBUS.—We alluded yesterday to the difficulty in this congregation of Catholics in consequence of the determination of Archbishop Purcell to displace Father Meagher. We learn that the difficulty is of a more serious character than we stated. Mr. Meagher has many friends in the congregation who are resolved that no other priest shall minister to them. The Archbishop has removed him and appointed another; but Mr. Meagher will not leave his people, and the majority of the congregation applaud his determination. They will not receive another, and the Trustees have locked up the church and the tunnery attached, to prevent his entrance. The Archbishop, to punish their contumacy, has excommunicated them. How the matter will end remains to be seen.—State Journal.

WILMOT IN VENANGO.—A large number of citizens assembled at the Court House and organized by electing Col. W. W. Shaw, of Jackson, President. Col. James S. Myers in a few well timed remarks introduced Judge Wilmot to the audience who then proceeded without ceremony, without any attempt at oratorical flourish, to deliver one of the most logical and powerful addresses it has been our good fortune ever to listen to. For over two hours he held the immense crowd spell-bound. His lucid recital of facts, his clear and concise reasonings, his candid and scrupulously honest way of treating subjects won for him the approbation of all who heard him.

The Court House was packed to its utmost capacity—in fact the attendance was much larger than we had expected, the appointment happening in the throng of seeding and oats harvest. After Judge Wilmot had finished his able speech the meeting adjourned.—Venango Citizen.

THE LATE BENJAMIN RUGGLES.—This venerable Ohio pioneer, whose death we noticed at St. Clairsville a few days ago, in the year 1810 was elected President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for the Third Circuit, extending from St. Clairsville to Cleveland. His obituary states that "he held the first Court that was ever held in Cleveland, when there were only a few houses down along the Lake Shore. He frequently held Court in the various counties of his Circuit, under the trees, before any public buildings were erected." Judge Ruggles was next elected to the United States Senate, and served eighteen years in that body. Associated with Randolph, Cass, Clay, Webster, Calhoun, &c., he discharged the duties of the station with ability and great conscientiousness, and secured the respect and confidence of all parties.—Sandusky Reg.

THE locofocos are attributing the failure of "Putnam's Magazine" to the fact that it discussed political topics. The Philadelphia Ledger says, the feeling in the United States literature and politics must be kept distinct."

Why is it that the locofocos have occasion to divorce politics from every thing else? Literature and politics, they now tell us, will not do together. Just as little, according to their policy, will politics and religion do in company. What is the matter? This, that the locofocos are engaged in an attempt to divorce politics from natural justice and the promptings of humanity, which attempt literature and religion cry out against.—Honesdale Dem.
