And do not most thinking men among you propose to subvert and reconstruct it?' Still no answer. This gloomy silence is another conclusive proof, added to many other conclusive evidences we have furnished, that free society in the long run is an impracticable form of society; it is ever starving, demoralized and insurrectionary.

it is ever starving, demoralized and insurrectionary.

"We repeat, then, that policy and humanity alike forbid the extension of the evils of free society to new people and coming generations.

"Two opposite and conflicting forms of society cannot, among civilised men, co-exist and endure. The one must give way and cease to exist, the other become universal. If free society be unnatural, immoral, unchristian, it must fall and give way to a slave society—a system old as the world, universal as man."

The Muscogee (Ala.) Herald, another valiant Buchanan organ, says:

"Free Society! we sicken at the name. What is it but a conglomeration of greasy mechanics, if thy operatives, small fasted farmers, and moon struck theorists! All the Northern, and especially the New England States, are devoid of society fitted for well bred gentlemen. The prevailing class one meets with is that of mechanics struggling to be genteel, and small farmers who do their own drudgery; and yet who are hardly fit for association with a Southern gentleman's hody accurate. This is your free ciety! we sicken at the name. What gentleman's body servants. This is your free society which the Northern hordes are endeav-oring to extend into Kansas."

"Masor And Discov's Life: a History, Including an outline of the Boundary controversy between Pennsylvania and Virginia. By James Vezca. Pittsburgh; W. S. Haven 1851."

This is a pamphlet of 58 pages, embracing, in this separate form, a chapter in a work new in press entitled "The Monongahela of Old," &c., in the preparation of which the author has been engaged for the past two years. It investigates and elucidates a very important contr which raged in early times, and gives a history of that celebrated line which has come, in these latter days, to mark the boundary between the North and South. The pamphlet will richty repay perusal. For sale by W. S. Haven, corner of Market and Second streets.

let us add, the purpose of every one should be to repress excitement and encourage that feeling of security for which there is so strong a basis. The misfortune which has overtaken Philadelphia need not be, and in all probability will not be, general. It is local in its origin, and will likely be only local in its effects.

Hon. James Vercu.—This distinguished gentleman was in the city during the week, and was introduced to many of our citizens. The bench of the Supreme Court will be honored by his elevation to it, and we trust we shall have the pleasure, after the election, of announcing

There is no candidate before the people of the State who stands fairer on the record than Mr. Veech. Firm and conscientions in his convictions of the truth of the principles of the party that has placed him in nomination, he cannot by any means, be considered a politician in the modern sense of the term. NEW YORK.—The following is the State Ticket nominated by the Republicans of New York:

Judge of Appeals—Timothy Jenkins, of Oneida, Sceretary of State—Almon M. Clapp, of Eric. Comptroller—Robert Denniston, of Orange. Treasurer—John T. Hogoboom, of Columbia. Canal Commission:—Coriel F. Thurston, of Chemang.

Attoracy General—Wm. Cartis Noyes, of New York.

State—Engineer—George Geddes, of Onondaga. Impector Prisons—Thomas Kirkpatrick, of Albany.

This ticket is a very strong-one, and will be elected by an overwhelming majority. Tinothy Jenkins was formerly a democratic member of Congress, and Messre. Demnisors and Hogsmon were also, until last year, leading and influential democrats. The following resolutions were adopted. They are terse and pointed:
