KENNEDY'S BANK NOTE REVIEW. As a reliable reference money guide and good counterfuit de lector this work, perhaps, stands in the very front rank. It is the oldest Delector now put liabed in the country, and has always maintain-ed a good reputation for the accurracy and honesty of its reports of banks. We commend it to business men. WHEELING BARES -We learn from the Wheeling Intelligencer that at a meeting of the Boards of Directors of the several Banks, held Monday morning, the following resolutions were adopted: SWERNERS, The Banks of Philadelphia, Balti-
