A Dastardly Trick!

A Dastardly Trick!

BUTTS FIXED FOR ELECTION DAY:
THEER HUNDRED BEPUBLICANS SUMMOVED:

One of the vilest electioneering tricks ever practized in this or any other county came to day knowledge yesterday, and our exposure of it will doubtless stir up the blood of our Republicans readers to fever heat.

The seems that, there has been some backwardness in the payment of the content of the Treasurer, Thomas Blackward, and our exposure of the Treasurer, Thomas Blackward, and the payment of the payment was detected and would be promptly exposed, gave to one of our contemporaries the following note, authorising a postponement of the hearing on the summonses issued:

Sir. It was my intention to avoid appointing any cases before inc on Tuesday, the 18th inst. that being election I have appointed many cases for that day. I will, therefore, hold over all auch cases to the 14th and 15th or this month. On either of said days the parties may attend as may suit their convenience at any time during said days.

Jas. C. Cennis, Ald.

October 8, 1867.

Those merchants in the country, therefore, whe have been summoned to appear on Tuesday next will take notice that they need not attend. They have had a taste of the tender mercies of Locofocolsm; let them therefore stay at home and devote the day to the task of defeating the party that has thus attempted to oppress them.

Republicans: You see the spirit which actuates these men—the spirit of Toryism and Border Buffinnism combined. Give them but power—let them but possess what they are now seeking to accomplish with the aid of Republican roots, and to be opposed at every turn by their democrate representatives, and the both congress that who fought against them. Republicans think thay have scood this long mought.

There is here now the head of a large iron manufactory in that clip by the name of Buldwar who carried his dough-faceiam so far as to eign the call for the notorious dinner given to that renogale, Wm. B. Reed, ere he went as min the color of the tendent of the task of defeating the party that has thus attempted to oppress them.

Reed, ere he went as min The instincts of tyranny are huge in them and socively at work, and all they lack is a full opportunity for action. Go to work, then, with a will, to defeat them. It needs but a warm, earnest and devoted effort to accomplish.

BELL, harping on this string. He tolls his country hearers, we learn, that "there is something rotten about the Court House," and advises them to elect his ticket as a remedy. Now this man came a squatter into the county some years ago, and has been about the Court House, in one place or another, ever since. Some eleven years of his life, as near as we can recolled, he has spent within its precinct; and he is doubtless looking forward to several more of the same kind. However it may becomeothers, it certailly does not become him, to growl at the leaf of the same kind. However it may becomeothers, it certailly does not become him, to growl at Denotoracy in Oragon.—A convention to form a State Constitution for this territory assembled at State, O. T., on the 20th of August. The pro-slavery Democrats got control of the body, the most scurrifous attacks were made upon the Free State men, and, finally, the Border Ruffian Buchaniers, with pistol and bowle-knife, rushed pell-mell upon their opponents. Two men were wounded with pistol balls, and one Free State Democrat-was stabbed in the abdomen. During the meles fifteen shots were fired. The Mayor was at last obliged to turn out the forces of the city, and at the head of the posse disarm these blood-thirsty ruffians and save the Court House from an awful scene of blood and murder. A correspondent of the Tribune writes:

FORSARING PACKER.—Wein Forney, a brother of Col. John W. Forney of the Press, and until recently an active supporter of the bogus decautioned against the tricks of the enemy usu nocracy, is out against Packer, the candidate of that party for Governor. He gives his reassays:

"I am not the only Democrat who has valid reasons for opposing Pennsylvania bogus democracy, and while I express that opposition frankly and humbly too, through the medium of the press, thousands will do so through the silent channels of the ballot-box, and the result will be an overwhelming defeat to those who wish on election day through fear of having judgment | Double Dealing-More and more of it! given against them by default. The ingenuity that devised this can be little short of hellish. Talk about oppression in the collection of taxes:

It is oppressive enough to be sued at home for a tax due the State; but to be halled away from home, a distance in many instances of 25 miles, on such an arrand, and that too on election do year. The such processing that the such processing that the such processing the such proces on such an errand, and that too on election day, we are told, printing a Republican paper, which weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to continually with the deliberate purpose of cheating the parties sued out of their votes, in the hope of thus the democratic ticket in Cambria county. were reminded of the provision in our State Tag DIFFERENCE.—The Manchester (N. H.) Constitution designed especially to prevent such | American says there are three thousand laborers oppression as this. It is as follows:

"Electors shall in all cases, except treason, felozy, and breach or surety of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on elections and in going to and returning from them."

The spirit of this provision, it will be seen, is to leave the voter free from all legal annoyances on election day, and it is as much a breach of its spirit to summon a man away from home to a significant of the summon a man away from home to a significant or summon a man aw

THE Albany Evening Journal proposes should be allowed to keep him from voting. The scheme to refund to railroad companies the attempt to cheat these men thus summoned out duties paid by them into the U. S. Treasury for of their chance of voting was therefore a gross the iron they have imported. It would deplete infraction of their constitutional privilego. If the Treasury, and aid the railroad companies: they should refuse to attend, and judgment but would it do the country any good, or be any should be given against them by default, the protection against further importations of the Courts would afford them instant remedy by kind thus rewarded? Would it not be paying a [Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.] The following letter from Bakerstown, in this connection, will explain itself:

Dear Sir: The low, mean and truckling resorts of some men to obtain their ends astonishes me. Another Locofoco trick of great transparency is being practical lu order to prevent a few Republicans from attending the election polls on Tuesday next. I saw yesterday a well-known constable of your city here summoning the merchants of Bakerstown who are Republicans to appear before Esquire Cummins on Tuesday next, at two o'clock, an hour at which it is impossible for persons lividg at a distance from the city, to attend. The constable, one Thomas MCoy, to attend. The constable, one Thomas MCoy, to attend. The constable, one Thomas MCoy, to attend. HARRISBURG, Oct. 7, '57-A. M.

ble for persons living at a distance from the city to attend. The constable, one Thomas M'Coy, stated here that he had summons for 300 merchants in the county to appear on that day, to answor the Commonwealth in default of paying their license. It is evident that none but Republicans are summoned.

As soon as these facts were ascertained, Alderman Cummins was informed that we were in possession of them, and he, seeing that the trick was detected and would be promptly exposed, gave to one of our contemporaries the following note, authorizing a postponement of the hearing and three in the Seants declaring by their votes will, to defeat them. It needs but a warm, earnest and devoted effort to accomplish their atter overthrow.

"The Courar Horse Clique."—In times not long gone by it has been the fashion to decrythe "Court House Clique," and it was by no means uspepular to do so; but it strikes us as a little touch above ordinary coolness to hear the present leader of the Repudiators, Mr. Ed. Campton of the control of the Repudiators, Mr. Ed. Campton of the control of the Repudiators, Mr. Ed. Campton of the control of the Repudiators, Mr. Ed. the same kind. However it may become others, it certainly does not become him, to growl at "the Court House Clique."

Nor does it become those with whom he is cooperating. The Sheriff's office is their headquarters, and the jail one of their chief points of operation, even the vagrants within its walls being pressed into their service and commission do to circulate their mendacious handbills. They have partial possession of the Court House now, and their aim is toget, full possession, and instal a "Court House Clique," the like of which the county never saw before. If there is any "clique" about the Court House, now, it is composed of those who are using all the influence of the Sheriff's office and jail in behalf of the Benciff's Office and jail in what is term expires upon the evening of the like the rectangles of the star the clicket.
