ALLEOHERY BOARD OF CONTROL.—This body in to a Thesday evening, but we had followed it up so persistently for three consecutive ap-pointments and always found no quorum, that we missed the meeting at which a quorum was actually present. At this meeting a petition was presented, signed by Mrs. Annie C. F. Sin-clair and nineteen others, (female teachers,) re-lative to salaries. Read, and on motion of Mr. Stockton, seconded by Mr. Danlap, referred to Committee on Finances. The Second Ward Bard reported the nomina-tion of Miss Margaret Lank as assistant teacher in the Medium Department of school house 2, in the place of Miss Eliza Fleeger, resigned. On motion of J. P. Slerrett, Eaq., the nomination was unanimously confirmed. The accounts of the tax collectors of the Dis-trict were then presented.
