-----THE DEMOGRATIC ADMINISTRATION AGAINST THE HORE MISSIONARY SOCIET. --- The Washing-ton Union of the 16th, in announcing the dis-covery that the northern missionnrics (belonging to the. Home Missionary Society) among the Chootaws have begun to aginate the question of abolishing slavery in the Indian Territory, re-marks, "that the more reflecting part of the nation freely express the opinion that these pale faced agitators should be driven out of the country, because they justly consider them dangerous to the pasce of the people. In a word, as "enemies to social order." The Administration organ encourages this project of expulsion, because.-"I. tary to the avarice of the moneyed class, would be turned to the solid benefit of all the other classes. Again, such a course would keep trade agoing. Again, such a course would keep trade agoing. Tight as money is, not a cent has been annihi-lated—it exists all about us somewhere. At this separately small sums, must be exchanged for the numberless articles of food and raiment re-quired at the coming on of winter. If prices hold up, this exchange will be as seanty and put off as long as possible. But let reduced prices be advertised, let it be understood that goods must be sold at all events, and the stores will be crowded under a little panic of the right kind - adollar will be spent here and five or ten there, resulting in hundreds or thousands to the neterprising dealers. Thus may hearded specie for direct on money will be key up, and the basis maintained for an easy renewal of prosperous times. Everything will grow bet-ter by degrees, while of him who recklessly sticks to old prices and wholly relies on borrow-ing, it may be said, "the last end of that man the basis maintained for an easy renewal of tradeneous find wholly relies on borrow-ing, it may be said, "the last end of that man the spect that the first." Of course, to many individuals this method is not feasible. They cannot wait, or their stocks would be insufficient to realize their neede, or other good and indispatable reasons might be cited. But where it is possible, we believe it to be advisable on every ground of personnt and public expediency. If advertising is indispen-sable when customers are runshing to buy of their own accord, and only want to know where to go, it is doubly necessary in these times when the fact. We observe that the New York merchanta -especially those in dry goods- are advertising just at this time with the most enlarged liberal part, abolitionists, who do naught else but fo-ment difficultias. "2. There is reason to believe that an organ-ized plan to abolitionize the southweatern super-intendency has been matured. If success should it or own these efforts there may be a re-enactment of the late disgraceful scenes in Kansas. "3. The missionaries, from their constant in-itercouse with the Indians at their fire-sides, is ick-beds and sated religious meetings, exercise great influence over them." "Regarding it as the opinion," says the organ of Mr. Buchanan, "of a large, if not the larger part of the Choetaws—"that any man, be ho white or red, who undertakes to agitate the subject of slavery among that people, is an ene-my to the peace and well-being of the Choetaw mation—we anticopate an expulsion of the abolition musionaries, if not the adoption of measures of a more decided character toward them."

and. We conserve that the New York merchanic esseptially those in dry goods—are advertising just at this time with the most enlarged liberal ity, and it becomes our dealers to see whether the path of wisdom for them does not lie in the same direction.—Boston Journal. For Sale or Kent.

ADVERTISING IN HARD TIMES.—Suppose a merchant, with his store full of goods, finds that he has got to submit to some sacrifice in order to meech is demands, what is the best thing he can do? The hypothesis is probably enough to be, bocause the method which will afford relief to one, is not advisable, or if so, not available, to another. But still, as a general answer, what is better than this: ent down your prices, ad-vertise vigorously, and sell off your goods? In the first place, if a ascrifice is unavoidable, abd the result be the same pecuniarily to the dealer, it is far better that the community in general should resp the benefit of it, than that
