We see it inimated that DotorAs will oppose this new villaip, hut we can find m grounds for the inimation. The Chicago Time, bis home organ, does indeed talk faire, after a fashion, but it is talk capable of a double mean-ling. It says:— "When Kansas applies for admission the state constitution the will of the people fairly expressed? If so the Dem-sorration will be—Is this Constitution the beem-ins will not, and ought not to be admitted with the Constitution. We hardly thisk there is any man in the country who has any jubt as to the winds of the people of Kansas on the quee-tion of slavery or no slavery."
