the intelligence of the Taller of Lucknew. An other day, and it would have been too late there day, and it would have been too late. Havehoef and Niell, with their 2500 mes, fought their way, to the place just of the outworks were mined and about to be blown up by the encmy. On the next morning they stormed the intraction ments of the besiegers, and were masters of the greater part of the city. At Delhi, more than a third of our assaulting force of 3500 men were tilled and wounded, and at Lucknow about one-fifth, namely, 600 out of 2500.

Such of your readers as remember 1847 will find the present letter almost a transcript of the one published in the Commercial Advertiser about the middle of Novémber in that year.

Sandersons, the London discount brokers, have stopped with liabilities amounting to three or four millions sterling, (they did the like in 1847) the City of Glasgow Bank, with a capital of one million sterling and liabilities probably to four or five times that amount, have followed the Great Western of Scotland, a panic run for gold has set in upon all the Scotch and Irish banks, two millions sterling in sovereigns have been taken from the Bank of England during the last three days for their support, the remaining London discount houses from Overend's among the assailants.

On the 24th of September General Outram downward have been alarmed at the possibility of a sudden and universal withdrawal of their deposits at call, external pressure has been applied to the Government by the representatives of a sudden and universal withdrawal of their deposits at call, external pressure has been applied to the Government by the representatives of the panic-mongers and speculators of all sorts, and the charter act of 1844 has again been suspended.

The Bank of Eagland have still about seven millions sterling of gold in their possession, and the effect of the step now taken is of course not in any way to interfere with the convertibility of their notes or the law of specie payments. Under the act of 1844 they are allowed an issue of fourteen millions sterling on securities, and wroything in excess of this must be based on specie. The withdrawal just effected of nearly £2,000,000 of sovereigns for Ireland and Scotland has consequently been tantamount to a sudden contraction to that extent in the English currency. This happening at a period when every-tone was seeking to provide himself with twice as many notes as he really wanted, diminished the power of the Bank to grant accommodation at a moment when its resources were being taxed to the utmost, and when any new

This happening at a period when every, one was seeking to provide himself with twice as many notes as he really wanted, diminished the power of the Bank to grant accommodation at a moment when its resources were being taxed to the utmest, and when any new cause of pressure would have found a large portion of the public ripe for panic. Still the Bank Directors were perfectly prepared to hold their ground, and amongst the leading privation bankers and merchants no disposition was manifested to see any exceptional means of relief resorted to. The Government, however, were assailed by the discount brokers who for weeks sailed by the discount brokers who for weeks saile

MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHIOLICAN has saved my life, as I verily believe. I tried dectors and medicine until it seemed us-less to try longer, when I met with a lady who recommended the Cutholican soutroney? that I deemed it my duty to try it. I was mostly troubled with deranged monstruation. My symptoms were principally pains in the back and alsolomen, bearing down pain at the time of the lines, anxiety tiles someti to be anotherious and sometime anxiety tiles someti to be a building, and the morning, date, near, shoulderings, fall good to be a building in the morning, date, near, shoulderings, fall good to be a building in the morning, date, exceed the whole of the morning of the precisely when storping, creat irritability of temper, almost constant inclination to pass water, great revilessness and dearte to were or feel unbappy. I was not only outlively cared myself of all these symptoms, which I have given as an imperfect account of my sufferings, but I have known so am many others cured in our town that I feel bound to let you know, that others who are similarly situated may also the relief.
