B. RIDDLE & Co., EDITORS and PROPRIETORS. PITTSBURGH:

THURSDAY: MORNING, DEC. 3, 1857. Republican City Convention. THE REPUBLICANS of the city of Pittsburg!

THE STRODICAL CONVENTION.—A Convention of Clergymen and Elders from the Synods of Pittsburgh, Allegheny Clify, Wheeling and Ohio is in session at the church of Mr. Paxton in this city. There are some 356 or 400 gentlemen present in it, and the Rev. Dr. Hoge, of Columbus, Ohio, is President. The exercises are such as a proper product of the content o of religion, and enkindle anew the spirit of brotherly love and kindness among the clergy. The coldness in the churches and the almost which has not the first characteristic of a cordial union about it, their most potent agencies for good in this land. It has surrendered the American Tract Society into the hands of the weakest of its supporters; it has shorn the million pages which it scatters broadcast over the land, of pregnant truth that goes with logical force home to every kind of crime in church or state. It has tamely abandoned the right to speak, against the sum of all villainies, Slavery. While for the month of August the contributions from the North to the A. T. Society was $18,000, from the South dictates to the vast body of religious, enlightened and anxiously laboring men, who sorrow over the dearth in the churches what they shall and what they shall not say upon a question that involves the breach of that law of love whose spirit informs and vivines all the teachings of Christ.

The pulpits of a large portion of the United States proclaim the example of patriarchs and prophets of oid, as binding in the matter of holding slaves: they defend slavery as a necessary and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and anxiogate which easily and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the prophets of the salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the prophets of the salutary prop in the basis of a good and well developed and salutary prop in the prophets of the salu dial union about it, their most potent agencies sary and salutary prop in the basis of a good sary and salutary prop in the basis of a good and well ordered society, while another portion, vasily the larger, and more enlightened, deem any reference to this subject, as political preaching, unjust, improper and calculated to breed discension. Unjust and improper to denounce what contains within itself the germ and bud and fruit of every sin! which implies the separation of husband and wife, the sale of a brother in the church by the his pather and council is the church by the his pather and council in the council of the min sufficient quantities. the gospel as it is in its purity and holiness!what it is intended for. To bring not peace but what it is intended for. To bring not peace but a sword is the object for which the Gospel came, While the church retains this leprous spot upon her body, she will need to have these Conventions, and they will have to be held until this question be met fairly which is shaping itself for the near future. They are more important than even those more expert meetings tested. than even those more general meetings together—in such hodies as at Lexington this year—where the master dails upon the Lord to bless souls and save them, while the auctioneer plies his busy hammer within sound of the church, selling men and women for whom Christ died as yell as for the king or the prince. Aye! it were better that this whole question of the re-waste. Like a wen upon the human body it draws off the vital powers from their natural channels, and transforms into a sickly fluid what is a healthy body goes to the support of the frame and the supply of the powers of a vigorous life. It is slavery in the connection which it claims with the church, and with the immunity from denunciation which it demands from the clergy, that is producing coldness and correlessness throughout the churches of the waste. Like a wen upon the human body it the Bank officers caved in, and counted the $10,000 in gold.

vention. If prudent, cautious and reliable men can be induced to run, it seems to us, in view of the importance of selecting the best men as candidates, that the ward meetings should send delegates in unpledged, and leave the selection of a ticketto their discretion and good judgment. Of course, if they think proper to do otherwise we shall not complain; we only throw out the suggestion for consideration.

The selection of candidates for Controller and City Treasurer ought to be made with direct.

The selection of candidates for Controller and City Treasurer ought to be made with direct reference to the interests of the city. They are not offices with which to reward partisans, but offices with which to reward partisans, but offices of special importance to the gittens, to which none but men who can command the general confidence should be named—men of undoubted honor, capacity and integrity. If the Republican Convention presents were of the control of them has been pundoubted honor. doubted honor, capacity and integrity. If the Republican Convention prosents men of this stamp, the ticket it nominates will be invincible. It will carry every thing before it. The only hope of the democracy is, that we may make one or two weak nominations out of the three, and so give them an opportunity. We have no apprehension that they will be gratified.

For Mayor, the only names so far presented are those of the present incumbent. Mr. Weaver.

For Mayor, the only names so far presented are those of the present incumbent, Mr. Weaver, and Wm. F. Murdoch, of the Sixth ward. For Controller, the name of Henry Lambert has been proposed by a correspondent of this paper, and we learn that he has consented to accept, if nominated. The name of S. F. V. Bonhorst has late been mentioned. Both of these gentlemen proposed by the Pacific as having a high ratio been mentioned. cheering news that the people of New York City have risen superior to party drill and defeated that arch jacobin and demagogue, Fernando Wood. The total vote was 84,000—6,000 more than last year at the Presidential election, showing that probably 5,000 lilegal votes were polled, and all for Wood. The legal majority for Tieman is undoubtedly 8,000—enough to vindicate, thoroughly, the capacity of the people for self-government. It took a good deal to rouse the people of New York to this defence of decency against violence and blackguardism, but they have done it nobly, and deserve the

I do not think that the President is quite so resolute in his determination to sustain the Convention as he was at first. There are indications of its restorable effect, to which thouse that he begins to have some doubts of the policy,—although he committed himself'so deeply that it is difficult to see how he is to change front now.
