Why make an exception of the alarery question by taking it out of that great rule of self-government which applies to all the other relations of life?" The very first proposition in the Nebraska bill was to show that the Missouri restriction, prohibiting the people from deciding the slavery question for themselves, constituted an exception to a gen-eral rule, in violation of the principles of self-government, and hence that that acception, should be repeated, and the slavery question, it is all other questions, submitted to the people to be decided for themselves."
Sir, that was the principle on which the Ne-braska bill was defended by its friends. In-the adverse constituent whole object was to abolish that fulcous exception, and make the rule gene-ral, universal, in its application to ell matters which were local and domestig, and not nation-al or federal. For this reason was the language arrowaved with the Prevident has quoted; that ante Company and Pitte HOS. J. HUNTER, Agent Farmors' and Mschanics' Insurance Co., 90 Water street.
