FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 25, 1857.

☞ OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.☜

News of the City and Neighborhood.

CITY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—Russell Errett, Chairman.
C. W. Coffin, First Ward.
George Wilson, Second Ward.
William Shields, Third Ward.
Dr. F. W. Shaw, Fourth Ward.
P. C. Negley, Fifth Ward.
Thomas A. Rowley, Sixth Ward.
James S. Franklin, Seventh Ward.
Lewis Kim, Eighth Ward.
Hugh Hammond, Ninth Ward.

Pursuant to a resolution of the City Republican Convention, the above named gentlemen are hereby appointed and constituted the Republican Executive Committee for the city of Pittsburgh.

A. M. BROWN, President.
Pittsburgh, Dec. 24, 1857.

The above named Committee will meet at the office of Alderman McMasters, Fifth street, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 29, at 7 o'clock.

RUSSELL ERRETT, Ch'n.

DON'T FORGET THE CARRIER.—The punctual carriers of the GAZETTE will present their best respects to our kind patrons about Christmas times in the shape of a neat New Year's Card containing a calendar for the year and other matters of interest. A very little of the "aredidit" from each of our numerous patrons would be a handsome compensation for the labor of the carrier that has to take a good many steps in the course of a year for the benefit of newspaper-readers.

CHRISTMAS.—It is said that in some of the good old German cities like Nuremburg, the dawn of Christmas, that is the very first moment after the clock has struck 12 midnight, throughout the whole city, every neighbor, having watched for the clanging bell, throws up the window if they be in doors, or shout from the street if they be there—the happy Merry Christmas wish. One of the finest and most touching scenes in the whole "Faust" of Goethe is that wherein the learned Doctor is presented with the deadly poison in hand just ready to take it, when Christmas hymn aroused him to a sense of the duties of life, and caused him to dash from his hand the deadly potion. In the old English cities bands of rosy children paraded the streets singing:

"God bless you, merry gentlemen,
Let nothing you dismay,
For Jesus Christ, our Saviour,
Was born upon this day."

To save us all from Satan's power,
When we have gone astray."

Perhaps in romantic old Germany the ancient customs still prevail, and perhaps in England. Here, however, the stores and shops withdraw the attention from other and more romantic and historical sports or ceremonies. We hope sincerely that all which can render the day pleasant may be fully enjoyed, and so to our readers all we give a "Merry Christmas."

THE CRUCIFIXION.—A painting of the crucifixion will be on exhibition at the Cathedral this evening. The Union says the artist lately completed it in Rome after having been engaged for a great length of time. It is painted and finished in the highest style, and was presented to St. Paul's Cathedral, in this city, by the artist. It is twenty-seven feet high, and twelve feet wide, and is very life-like, and perfect in every feature. It will be exhibited on Christmas evening, at 7 o'clock, in St. Paul's Cathedral, on which occasion a grand concert will be given by the choir, under the direction of Professor Wamblink, assisted by a number of eminent vocalists, who have kindly volunteered their services.

The object in exhibiting the painting, is to raise funds for the support of the destitute orphans, who are in a state of absolute destitution. Together with the above, we learn that the collection taken up in the Cathedral and the different Catholic Churches on that day will be for the same object. The first service will commence at nine o'clock A. M., and the last at 10 o'clock.

CENTRAL BANK OF PENNSYLVANIA.—The stock of this banking institution which was to be established at Hollidaysburg, did not succeed in finding buyers among the people in consequence of the hard times. The Blair County Whig of Tuesday, says:

"A few days ago two gentlemen from Buffalo, New York, arrived in town, and agreed to take the entire stock of the institution. The Commissioners convened and by resolution agreed that they should have the stock, which, we understand, has been accepted by the parties. The Commissioners adopted a resolution giving the privilege to any previous subscriber of stock to withdraw the same if he desired, which was also accepted by the Thayers, and their money to be refunded. These gentlemen, we understand, have the 'rocks' in gold and silver to commence operations. It is expected that the Bank will go into operation in the space of sixty days."

SMALL PAY AND GREAT LABOR.—The County Superintendent of Mercer Co., in his annual report, just published, says that during the year he has delivered 21 public lectures, and 94 others in the schools—thus addressing in the aggregate about 9000 men, women and children. He has examined 162 teachers at his residence, and held 66 public examinations outside the village where he lives; he has made from one to six school visitations in every district in the county in all 118; he has written 400 letters and found the paper and the stamps; he has held three County Institutes, which cost him out of pocket $34; travelled, in the discharge of his duties as Superintendent, 1,900 miles, 204 of them on foot; attended the State Teachers' Association in Williamsport last summer, and received for the whole service a salary of $408.

LAKE SUPERIOR.—The Ontonagon Miner, of Dec. 5, says:

"The first overland party of the season left here for Chicago, by way of Wasau, on Thursday morning last, consisting of Messrs. Hart and Hatch. Mr. B. Draper, an old and experienced woodsman, goes as guide.

Messrs. Livermore and Day will leave here for below next Monday. Mr. L. G. Emerson, a gentleman who has been over the road several times, acting as guide."

The friends of Mr. H. H. McCullough, an old citizen of Pittsburgh, who has been doing business for seven or eight years over on the North Shore, not far from Pigeon river, are becoming quite anxious about him. He usually returns home for the winter about the 20th of November. For this year he has not yet returned nor has there been one word or news from him in any of the papers which have met our eye.

DANGEROUS.—We have alluded before to the danger to travellers who may be let off the trains of the P., Ft. W. & C. R. R. at Federal st. depot, Allegheny city. The track at that place is on trestle work, some ten feet above the tow path of the canal; and there not only is no railing to prevent strangers from slipping over the platforms, at night, into the canal, but the outer track is not planked over at all. Should any accident occur, (and we have heard of several narrow escapes,) the company should be held accountable for criminal carelessness. The cost of a rail would be very trifling.

HANDSOME DONATION.—The superintendent and officers of the Insane Asylum, desire us to present their thanks to those ladies of Allegheny and Pittsburgh, who so generously contributed for the purchase of one hundred and fifty yards of carpet for one of the Wards, for female patients, and also to those who gave their time and labor in sewing it, and placing it in the Ward. They feel satisfied if those who have interested themselves thus in behalf of these insane, could witness the comfort and home feeling imparted by this act, that they would feel fully repaid for their generosity.

PENN LITERARY SOCIETY.—The third anniversary meeting of this Society will be held in Lafayette Hall on Tuesday evening next. The exercises, by the most talented young men of this and our sister city, will consist of essays, orations, debates, etc. We learn also that our friend Mr. Rhodes, of this city, has just completed a painting of William Penn for this Society. It may be seen in Gillespie's window. We have no doubt the exercises of their approaching anniversary will be such as to interest all who may attend.

THE Christian Church in Richmond, Va. is under the charge of a reverend gentleman formerly of this city. His many friends, our readers, will be glad to learn from the following in the letter of a correspondent of his success. He says:

"Under the care of one of our best pastors, Bro. W. J. Pettigrew, it is evidently rising in usefulness and growing in enterprise. They deserve honorable mention for their liberality and zeal in the Lord's cause both at home and abroad. Scarcely free from the expense of remodeling their house of worship, they have done nobly for the missionary cause."

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—A fellow named Patrick Murphy was driving a load of coal down Smithfield street yesterday afternoon, when a little boy threw a stick under the wheel of his wagon. Pat picked up a piece of coal from his load somewhat larger than a man's fist, and hurled it into a crowd of boys behind his wagon. It struck one poor little chap on the forehead, inflicting a frightful gash from which the blood streamed all over the little fellow's face. The Mayor committed Pat to jail, where he is to remain fifteen days. The boy's wound is not serious.

CRIME.—We have often thought that crime is locomotive, that it travels here and there, like an epidemic. Last Spring we had a visitation in this vicinity. Every one will remember how its black record unrolled here for a season. Lancaster seems now to be suffering from a visitation.

A double murder was perpetrated there about a week ago, of which everybody has read by this time. The two fellows who are believed to have committed the bloody deed have been fully committed for trial at the Oyer and Terminer on the 18th of January next.

On the night of the 15th instant, the store of Messrs. W. & F. Paxson, in the vicinity of Lancaster, was entered and robbed of a large amount of goods. The robbers entered the store by taking off the shutters of one of the windows, and after taking as many goods as they could secretly dispose of, set fire to the building. Six colored men have been arrested on suspicion of having committed the crime.

On Friday night last, two men broke into the house of Mr. Jacob Hiestand, situated near Lancaster, and passing through several rooms proceeded to the one occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Hiestand. Here one of the burglars grasped Mrs. Hiestand by the throat and dragged her out of bed, while the other made a furious assault on Mr. Hiestand with a knife. The latter sprang out of bed and grappling with the villain, succeeded in getting the mastery. Meeting with this determined resistance, they effected their escape, but not until one of them received considerable injury by being struck on the head and knocked down by a chair in the hands of Mr. H. No arrests have yet been made.

MRS. RUSH AND HER SUPPORTERS.—Mrs. Rush closed her engagement here last evening. She was called before the curtain at the close of the first play with great unanimity. With considerable emotion she made "a speech," in which she stated that she had actually been upon the stage but nine weeks! She need not have attempted to deprecate adverse criticism, because in general she deserves but little. We are glad that this lady has met here with so good success, and can say that she has truly deserved more even than has attended her. To great beauty and innate modesty she joins, we are certain, an ardent desire to compass that "grace of art" which makes even those less gifted in beauty than she is successful. Experience, study, a careful culture of the voice and observance of those thousand little nameless graces that go to make up the artiste, will bring Mrs. Rush to fame.

Meantime, we are sure Mr. Dubois will commit his part to memory.

Mrs. Vandeering played her part well and that is all that can be said of any of the subordinate characters. They had not committed their parts and they threw in remarks that had no part nor place in the play. Mr. Dubois comes on in the last act and is delighted in finding his wife—"The most surprising prize of all."

Is there any such passage in the play? Upon the whole, there was an excellent, finished, just criticism among the subordinate players last evening, and we hope there will be less ground for it hereafter.

AT THE THEATER, this day, two great pieces will be performed. Mr. Couldock will appear in both.

At the Gaieties, great bills are also offered, and the whole strength of the company, stars and all, will contribute to the success of the pieces.

Various other places of amusement and benevolence will be open on this day, and we trust all people will do the best they can to enjoy wisely, pleasantly and rationally an occasion which occurs but once a year.

HOLIDAY BOOKS, PAPERS AND PICTORIALS.—Messrs. Hunt & Miner, of Masonic Hall, Fifth street, keep a full assortment of all the eastern papers, (illustrated for the Holidays,) Magazines, elegant Annuals, and other Books suitable for gifts. We are indebted to them for sundry favors of late papers and periodicals, all of which are unusually full of illustrated matter peculiar to the season. Look in at Masonic Hall, and procure a budget of papers or books

RATHER COOL.—A man called at the house of a citizen of the first Ward, Allegheny, on Wednesday, and asked for the loan of a hatchet. The lady not recognizing him, enquired his name and residence, which was given as that of a near neighbor. The fellow has forgotten to return the article, and we make this mention of his impudence to warn our readers against loaning anything to a stranger.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Williams.—The case of the Farmers and Mechanics' Turnpike Company for use of Michael McCullough vs. Collart and Long, was decided yesterday in favor of the plaintiff. After this, the jury was discharged until after the holidays, the Court in the meantime engaged upon the argument list.

RESUMING WORK.—The Lancaster Herald says: We are glad to learn that arrangements have been made whereby several of our Cotton Mills will shortly be put in operation. Work will be resumed in No. 1 about the 1st of January, and in No. 2 several weeks later. This will be good news to the hundreds of operatives who have been thrown out of employment, in the midst of winter, by the stoppage of the mills."

CHRISTMAS GIFT.—Just in time comes a graceful gift to hand as a make-weight with other things. Here is The Atlantic Monthly, as neat and as welcome as ever. Go straight to DEMPSTER'S, opposite the Theatre, and invest 25 cents. The table of contents is toothsome. Read's small review of the President's message you will find there.

ILLNESS OF Mr. MCAULEY.—James McAuley, Esq., President of the Iron City Bank, has been seriously and severely ill, having been confined to his house for some weeks past. His numerous friends will share our gratification at learning that he is recovering.

ARSON.—A warrant was issued this week for Sally Fleming for burning the house of one Ballou, near this place, which took place some time ago. She is a sister of Charlotte Jones, of "Bill" Jones; etc.—Mon. Republican.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS to all, say we; but how shall we make the day pass pleasantly? Why after doing justice to the "right good fare," prompted by loving hearts and prepared by kind hands, let us hasten at home, free, pure air and see the sights that is, we mean examine all late improvements, all works of beauty or of art, and among the rest don't forget that work of beauty, simplicity and utility on exhibition at 85 Fifth street, of which so much has lately been said by the press. Now is your opportunity to be satisfied with reference to its merits. Go immediately to 85 and see it for yourselves.

THE LITTLE GIANT DOWN ON THE ADMINISTRATION.—Senator Douglas created a sensation in the Senate, yesterday, by hauling the President over the coals on the Kansas question. The Senator was in high feather, and looked remarkably well, having recently obtained for himself a new suit at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

Telegraphic.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 24.—A requisition has been made on the Treasury for $250,000 for the pay of the members of Congress from the 4th of March last, under the joint resolution passed. Of this amount over $120,000 has been already disbursed in gold, in addition.

The Pawnee delegation of Indians and a delegation of Pawnees from Nebraska have arrived, both on business with the government.

The President has issued a proclamation setting apart the 15th of February for taking the sense of the voters in the District of Columbia on the new code of laws.

Contracts for engraving the plates of the Treasury Notes have been made, and the latter will be issued in about two weeks. Their denominations will be $100, $500, $1000.

The President in reply to the resolution of the Senate was transmitted to that body yesterday the correspondence which took place nearly a year ago in reference to the bombardment at Greytown. Count Sartiges, it appears, asked for indemnity for actual losses sustained by French subjects, who, he says, found it physically impossible to remove their goods from the conflagration caused by movements of the commander of the sloop-of-war Cyane.

Mr. Marcy, in reply, informs him that the President has not been able to find the right or even equity upon which reclamation can be sustained, and in a long dispatch expounds to him the international law. Sartiges has evidently expected this, and says that he will not fail to send Mr. Marcy's communication to the French government. No response to the letter is contained in the documents. Although any correspondence with Great Britain, none was transmitted to the Senate.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 21.—A Kansas letter to the Democrat says that on the evening of the 16th a battle occurred at Fort Scott, between the pro-slavery and free State men. Five of the former were killed, among them Blake Little, a new member of the Lecompton Convention. Several were wounded on both sides. Twenty free State men were taken prisoners and confined in a fort. The Missourians have assembled in strong force on the border, and more fighting is apprehended. The difficulties were caused by Clark, who is notorious as the murderer of Barber, Deputy Sheriff, collecting taxes from the free State men, and seizing property in default of payment.

The Territorial Executive Committee have issued a call for re-assembling on the 22d inst. the Delegate Convention, at Lawrence on the 24 instant, to take into consideration the best course to pursue in consequence of the Legislature having failed to submit the Topeka Constitution with the Lecompton instrument.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Dec. 24.—On Tuesday night the Governor vetoed the act recently passed by the Legislature providing for the legalization of the suspension of specie payments by the banks, but the bill was passed over the veto by the Legislature by a two-thirds majority.

TORONTO, Canada, Dec. 24.—A serious affray occurred at the election held at Fergus to-day. One man was killed by a shot fired, and another was stabbed.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

Money operations in the street continue to be very limited. The amount of available business paper is very small and of inferior grades it has been found so impracticable for the street discounts, that little of it seeks the market. There would be no lack of money if lenders would regain confidence. This is still the barrier to any activity.
