Hugh Hammond, Ninth Ward.

Pursuant to a resolution of the City Republican Convention, the above named gentlemen are hereby appointed and constituted the Republican Executive Committee for the city of Pittsburgh.

A. M. BROWN, President.
Pittsburgh, Dec. 24, 1857.

The above named Committee will meet at the office of Alderman McMasters, Fifth street, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 29, at 7 o'clock.

RUSSELL ERRETT, Ch'n.

Our Municipal Election.

On this day week, Tuesday, January 5, the people of Pittsburgh will be called upon to choose their municipal officers—mayor, controller, treasurer, councils and ward officers. Are our Republican friends fully aware of this fact and prepared for the task it imposes on them?

The Republican Convention has presented a very strong ticket for city officers, and the ward nominations appear to have been made with prudence and judgment. Whatever the disappointed aspirants may think, it is the duty of all to rally around the nominees, give them a hearty support and secure their triumphant election. There is but a week left for work; let that week be wisely used, and its opportunities properly improved.

An idea prevails, we fear too widely, that the popularity of our worthy mayor will be sufficient to carry the whole ticket safely through, without any effort. There could be no greater error. The popularity of the Mayor is an undisputed fact; but it is not a substitute for the political effort we owe to our principles. Too much reliance can be placed upon it, but must not be, if we wish to achieve a complete triumph.

There never was a better time for the Republicans of Pittsburgh to show their strength and give a rebuke to the Buchanan administration. The management of the locofoco convention, which meets to-morrow is in the hands of the national office-holders, and they will present a ticket pledged to the support of the administration in its maintenance of the Lecompton swindle. The lines will be fairly drawn, and hence, on Tuesday next, the people will have the first opportunity that has occurred for passing condemnation upon that swindle. It is a rare and blessed opportunity; and we trust that every Republican in the city will esteem it his privilege as well as his duty to rally to the support of the Republican nominees on Tuesday next, and pour the first broadside into the Buchanan hulk. It is a chance which ought to enliven and cheer us; for the victory we are able to win is one that will tell, now, on the politics of the country, and be of as much consequence abroad as at home.

In January, 1840, when the Whigs of this city rallied manfully and elected their Mayor by a sweeping majority, the event was hailed all over the Union, as the harbinger of the glorious victories which followed throughout that eventful year. A like victory, now, will be hailed in like manner; and we trust to the patriotism and devotion of our political friends to accomplish it.

The result of neglecting to vote at municipal elections, so prevalent among the commercial and highly educated classes of the community, has been shown in New York. There, year after year, this duty was neglected until the whole power of the city passed into the most unworthy hands, and it required a fearful struggle to dispossess them. Had these classes been mindful in time of their responsibility, this necessity could not have happened them. Let our citizens take warning. We want no Fernando Woods, no admirers of Buchanan's infamies to administer our city government. Let them be jealously excluded; and all the more so when it is remembered that if the locofoco elect one man on their ticket, or are suffered by our neglect to come at all near to it, the result will be claimed as an endorsement of the Buchanan administration.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE IN KANSAS.—The territorial legislature of Kansas has adjourned, and its acts are thus briefly summed up. It repealed the law by which the constitutional convention at Lecompton was created, and enacted a militia law, which was vetoed by Stanton and passed over his veto. Provision was also made for a fair submission of the Lecompton constitution to a vote of the people on the 4th of January next, which was approved by Stanton, and a law was passed to punish election frauds, which was also approved by him.

The militia bill is thus given in miniature:

"This law repeals all the militia laws enacted by the last Legislature. The new organization takes place under the supervision of a board of officers, consisting of one major general, eight brigadier generals, one adjutant general, one inspector general, one quartermaster general, one commissary general, and one surgeon general. These officers are elected by the Legislature. The Governor of the Territory is a member of the board, and is commander-in-chief of the militia."

This military board has power to organize, equip, drill, and put into a serviceable shape, the militia of the Territory. A majority of the board are empowered to call out the militia in any emergency, and to act independent of the commander-in-chief."

Gen. Lane was elected Major General of the militia under this act, and a full board was elected along with him. This gives the free State men a legal foothold of power which ought to render them invincible, if they have the discretion to make a good use of it. With a legalized army of ten thousand men, they ought to make the Ruffians of Missouri tremble in their shoes.

TAKEN AT LAST.—Mr. Edward Campbell, who last year passed himself off as an "old-line whig," a "Republican," and a "no-party man," and under these various guises carried forward his various intrigues, was, on Saturday night last, nominated as a democratic candidate for Councilman in the Third Ward. He shines on that ticket among the Simon Pures of locofocoism, three of his colleagues on the ticket being unmistakable Irish Catholics. Henceforward the people will have no difficulty in knowing where he stands.

"The only thing that has astonished me in this whole matter is the forbearance of the people of Kansas. If they had taken the delegates to the Lecompton Convention and flogged them, or cut their ears off and driven them out of the country, I would have applauded them for the act."

The above is an extract from the speech of Senator Broderick, of California, and it expresses a correct sentiment in very appropriate and easily understood language. In cutting the ears off of these disturbers of the peace of Kansas, however, the safest plan would be to cut their heads off just behind their ears.

CHARLES MACKAY writes to the London Illustrated News that slavery in this country is a difficult and complicated, as well as an exasperative subject. He says: "many abolitionists are prepared for the fiat justitia, but few fiat coelum."

BIGLER'S SPEECH.—The Union and Post are both devoting their columns to the "valuable" speech of Bigler made in the Senate a few days since. The Post hasn't much to say about it, but the Union thinks it a very great speech and in lauding it, gives Douglas a thrust by showing that:—

"It is here proven (in Bigler's Speech) beyond the possibility of evasion or escape, that Mr. Douglas did not a few months since, think when an enabling act was silent, that the proposed State Constitution must be submitted to the people."

No doubt of it: but what has Bigler proved in relation to his own course? Oh shame Mr. Bigler!

Who can forget how he declared, in our City Hall, in 1856 when he was flanked by John Van Buren loaded with whisky—who can forget his declaration that "he had come among his fellow citizens to plead for the full submission of all questions at issue in Kansas to the people of Kansas!" Will the Union publish Bigler's speech made in Clarion during the campaign of last fall?

As for his late speech in the Senate, it would take all the organs of the party and all the trumpets and tin whistles and all other instruments to rescue it from absolute contempt, and then they could not avail. Why, the man is the laughing stock of the country. There is only one man more contemptible, and that is "our President," who is believed by many to be the original of Thackeray's "Jeems Yellow-plush." Some shrewd fellow with an eye for pictures has described Bigler as he stood out and declaimed his bad manuscript in that "great speech." He was lugubrious. His leaden eye rolled in a fine frenzy up to the dimly lighted ceiling, and his doughy features absolutely shone—with perspiration that oozed out of him in great drops and rolled off the end of his nose and chin like peas. Occasionally he caught a side glance at Douglas, who sat writing busily, and taking no notice whatever of the rude antics that Bigler was passing off for oratory. At last Mr. Bigler finished; his wit down and swabbed his face vigorously with his bandanna; he grinned a ghastly smile at his masters, whom he had been serving "in his weak way." His downcast aspect showed that he felt the weight of contempt which even those he was crawling in the dirt to serve were silently heaping upon him. Sod picture! How did the image of "Buck, Breck and Free Kansas" rise up before him!" "Never shake thy gory locks at me" this Pennsylvania "orator" might well have exclaimed. But he did not see the ghosts of his former murdered promises, for his eye caught Douglas rising to give him a broadside. It came at last, and there lay Senator Bigler as the Guerriere is said to have appeared after the first onset of the Constitution. Swept clean, fore and aft, nothing left of him but a wreck. He rose and deprecated the construction which Douglas put upon his remarks. When asked by the "small giant" what he did mean, he explained, and thereby floundred into some worse position, until at last in despair he sat down and became a statue. Under the shield of silence he found his only protection. An eye witness says that as the colloquy proceeded, at every fresh attack and blow of Mr. Douglas, the audience, especially upon the Republican side of the Senate, greeted the orator with audible laughter. It was like a ring combat between a practised Ping Ugly," and a broken winded man. At each round, and when the weaker party for the moment shrunk away from the contest a murmuring applause echoed through the Senate.

Such is a picture of the great orator and defender of the administration, Wm. Bigler, while delivering his "great speech" on the Lecompton Constitution.

NOW FOR IT.—We presume that the telegraphic dispatch which we publish this morning from Kansas is reliable. If so, all that the "Democratic" party need do for themselves is to bring Kansas into the Union under the constitution as now chosen. There is the whole question now fairly before Congress, and the President, in justice to himself, his party, the Kansas-Nebraska principle, Senator Bigler, the Pittsburgh Union, the American Eagle, and the great "Constitution" which is the only domestic institution and which needs just now fatherly care, ought to use the cord and the bow-string until he force the refractory members of the party into the support of Kansas with the slave clause in her constitution. We wait, "Messrs. Buchanan, Breckinridge and Free Kansas," to see the "principle of the Kansas-Nebraska Bill" carried out. We ask no more, we expect no less. No dodging. It won't do on this present occasion. The voice of the people has been heard. Kansas knocks at the door with a slave clause in her constitution. Will not the Democracy let her in?

CHANCE FOR A COURT MARTIAL.—Commodore Paulding has behaved most outrageously. He has arrested Walker and his crew, as pirates, after the President and all his officials had permitted him to escape. Of course, Paulding will be court-martialed, and Walker will be permitted to go back again. These naval marplots will have to be taught a lesson.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As the Convention for nominating a candidate for Assembly, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Backhouse, will soon assemble, it is the duty of the Republican party to nominate a gentleman of ability and experience, one who will be able to defend the interests of Allegheny County in the Legislature; and as the southern side of the county has no representative in either branch of the Legislature the present session, it is important that that side of the county should have a fair shake. Permit me to suggest the name of Col. HIRAM HULTZ, of Snowden Township, as a gentleman well qualified to act in the capacity of representative. He has had experience as a legislator, and has capacity to discharge the duties pertaining to the office.

An Infallible Cough Remedy—I had been sick three months, not able to do anything, with a cough and settled condition of the wind-pipe; I tried several of the best physicians in this city without receiving any benefit all of them told my lungs were affected. I was confined to my bed during the greater part of this time, I expectorated a great deal of matter from my lungs. The first two doses of your Pectoral Syrup that I took, I could not take without laying down in my bed, but before I had taken two bottles I was entirely cured. I have been well ever since. My sickness commenced about the first of March, of this year. I am now, and was at the time of my sickness, living at Thomas Patterson's, in Union street, near the Diamond.

Dr. Keyser's Shoulder Braces.—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than 8 years past we have constantly worn the 'Washington' Shoulder Brace, manufactured by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood street, in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to its merits, it answers for a brace and suspenders, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to continually tend to bring the shoulders in their natural position and expand the chest. Women, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of enormous "skirts," should also procure these braces. In particular is preventing the kind mentioned, as many of the braces sold are humbugs. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Druggist, 140 Wood st., sign of the Golden Mortar. de26:d&w2

THE HEALTH OF AMERICAN WOMEN

—For many years I have been troubled with general weariness and languor, both mental and physical; capricious listlessness, dull headache, pain in the head and temples, coldness and tendency to stiffness, palpitation of the heart, very easily flattered or excited, appetite variable, stomach and bowels deranged, wiggrals. Any mental or physical exertion was sure to bring on all the symptoms, and I had in addition, falling of the womb, and great pain in that region. One physician after another exhausted his skill and gave me up. A patient and persevering use of MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON fortunately cured me and I have no words sufficient to express my thankfulness.

Mrs. JULIA ANNE JOHNSON.

I can truly say that I have been a sufferer for many years with whites and deranged menstruation. After a while I had other troubles, such as pale face, indigestion, wasting away, general languor and debility, pain in the small of the back, a sort of dragging sensation, pain between the shoulder blades extending down the spine, loss of appetite, trouble in the stomach and bowels, with cold hands and feet and dreadful nervousness. The best excitement would make me feel as if I should fly away. I tried doctors and doctors, and nostrums, one after another, without the benefit. One bottle of MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON changed the tide of my symptoms for the better, and now I am entirely and radically cured. I advise that every woman could know what it will do. CLARISSA OBER.

MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON has saved my life, as I verily believe. I tried doctors and medicine until it seemed useless to try longer, when I met with a lady who recommended the Catholicon so strongly that I deemed it my duty to try it. I was nearly troubled with deranged menstruation. My symptoms were principally pains in the back and abdomen, bearing down pain at the time of the illness, bloating, colic, nausea, constipation, feeling as if the back and limbs were bruised or broken, evectations and vomiting sensory (the seemed to be a burden), disturbed sleep, faintness, shudderings, fatigue on walking in the morning, faintness, constipation, pressure of blood in the head, dizziness, especially when stooping, cruel irritability of temper, almost constant inclination to pass water, great restlessness and desire to weep or feel unhappy. I was not only entirely cured myself of all these symptoms, which I have given as an imperfect account of my sufferings, but I have known so many others cured in our own town that I feel bound to let you know, that others who are similarly situated may also find relief.

EMMA YORBURGH.

For a long time I had Uterine complaints with the following symptoms: I was nervous, emaciated and irritable, seemed to abound in complaints, some of which I will try to give you: pain in the lower organs, and a feeling as if some thing was going to fall out; inability to walk much on account of pain; fullness; aching and dragging, and shooting pains in the back, loins, and extending down the legs the joints; profound by riding caused great pain; bearing down pain in the left side, stomach and bowels; headache, with ringing in the ears; every fiber of the body seemed to be out of tune; great irritability; intense nervousness. I could not bear the least excitement without being prostrated for a day; I could scarcely move about the house, and did not take pleasure in anything. I had given up hope, having tried everything, as I supposed in vain, but a friend called my attention to MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON. I took it, hoping against hope. Most fortunately it cured me, and there is not a healthier or more grateful woman in the country. I trust all will use it. It is truly the woman's friend indeed.

Mrs. FLORENCE ESSLER.

DOVER, N. H., Feb. 2, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation, and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convince us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size and one dozen $2 size, and believe us yours very respectfully,

(Signed) DANIEL LATHROP & CO.

HICKORY GROVE, St. Charles Co., Mo., Nov. 13, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were inclined to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been partially covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with high hope of success, but, to our surprise, and the joy of all our friends, a very few applications restored the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby recommend your Restorative, as a safe remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours, respectfully,

GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attached that of original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind. Yours respectfully,

DANIEL L. MURPHY.

THE LIVES OF

HENRY FIFE

AND

CHARLOTTE JONES!

With their Confessions of the Murder of

GEORGE WILSON AND ELIZABETH McMASTERS,

PUBLISHED BY HUNT & MINOR.

It contains,

CORRECT LIKENESSES OF THE CONDEMNED,

A HISTORY OF THE CASE,

SYNOPSIS OF THE TESTIMONY, AND

THE STATEMENT OF MONROE STEWART,

The Work contains forty eight pages.

FIFE'S CONFESSION is unusually interesting, it commences with his early life, and after giving in detail the numerous adventures, in which, during his tortuous and eventful career he has been engaged, it comes to the dreadful night, when the butchery of the Wilson family was perpetrated, and the crime of Murder added to his various other offences.

CHARLOTTE JONES' HISTORY is equally interesting, and her details of the bloody and inhuman part she played in the terrible tragedy, full as graphic, her deportment in early life, and the subsequent acts to her abandoned career, are all truthfully narrated, and are full of instructions to those who would avoid vice and the sins and crimes and shame that must attend it.
