PITTSBURGH:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 30, 1857.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

PITTSBURGH—ELECTION, TUESDAY, JAN. 5.

MAYOR,
HENRY A. WEAVER,
Controller—HENRY LAMBERT.
Treasurer—WM. EICHBAUM.

ALLEGHENY—ELECTION, TUESDAY, JAN. 12.

MAYOR,
James Miller,
Director of Poor—A. DAVIDSON.

THE Union in its answer to our queries, relative to the effect of the late vote on the slavery question in Kansas, quotes at us an article from the Louisville Democrat. It is like an appeal from John drunk, to John sober. It is unfortunate that in self-defence the Union is obliged to appeal to arguments made in papers radically disagreeing with itself, to prove what it the Union, does not itself allow to be true. With equal propriety it might have quoted from its own columns before it had changed ground on this question.

The Union concludes:

"And now we would ask, does that paper undertake to assert that the Constitution of the United States was submitted, as we expressed, "to a vote of the people?"

The answer is most undoubtedly that it was submitted: whether it was submitted "as we expressed" or not, we are unable to say, because we do not know what our neighbor means by "as we expressed."

The editor of the Union asserted also that the constitution of this State was not submitted to the people of the State. We pointed out his mistake and as he does not allude to it further we presume that he is satisfied of his error.

COM. PAULDING.—Poor Paulding! He is to be court-martialed, it will be seen by our dispatches, and cashiered probably, for daring to interfere with the dishonest policy of the administration in the covert aid it was giving to the filibusters. Let the administration try it.

We have said from the beginning, and the facts now bear us out, that the President was playing the hypocrite in denouncing the filibusters, and that he was all the while secretly aiding them. Walker will be dismissed, of course, and Paulding punished; but the veil of deception will be stripped from the President, and he will stand forth before the world a self-convicted hypocrite.

WHAT WILL THEY DO WITH HIM?—Now that Com. Paulding has, by his faux pas, thrown Gen. Walker into the hands of the administration, the question arises, What will they do with him? To try him and convict him is the farthest thing possible from the purposes of this filibuster government. The N. Y. Times thus hints at the course that will be pursued:

"Walker, now that he is in the power of the Government, will probably be tried—but we presume there is very little chance of his conviction or punishment. It is always very difficult to prove the precise offence which constitutes a violation of our neutrality laws—in cases, we mean, where our own citizens are concerned, though it is little enough to establish it when charged upon the Ministers and Consuls of foreign powers. Walker will probably chafe somewhat at the loss of time which his trial may involve, as he will naturally be anxious to enter upon the organization of a third expedition."

WE are now, for the first time in several years, able to quote with approval an article from the N. Y. Express. In the following we concur heartily:

"The Federal Government cannot inflict a constitution upon Kansas—but if it thinks it can, it must try through the processes of law, not through the Federal troops,—for if the Federal troops are brought into action to enforce foreign government upon the people of KANSAS, the Federal troops will be resisted just as quick as any other troops. When this is done, we northern conservative men, who have been preaching submission all along to the Lecomptonites, for the sake of peace, and because time would correct all wrongs, shall—we mean the "Resist," "Resist," "Resist," of secession—"unto death." The right of self-government is worth a civil war."

INTEREST ON DEPOSITS.—The British Chancellor of the Exchequer has, it will be seen by the following extract from his speech in the debate in the House of Commons on Friday, Dec. 11, come to the same conclusion as the financiers on this side, relative to interest on deposits in bank. He said:

"But, sir, it is by no means true that no light has been cast upon the operation of this Act in the course of years, and that we are able, with the evidence taken by previous committees, to form a complete judgment on our present system of banking. I would only direct the attention of the House to a fact well known to all persons who are at all acquainted with this class of subjects, viz: the great expansion which the system of holding money on call has received within the last few years. It is undoubtedly, to a great extent, to the abuse of that system—which I believe is in the main a wholesome and beneficial system, tending to collect together and to turn to good account the scattered resources of the country, but, nevertheless, embracing features in it which are containing within it elements of danger—that many of the evils of the recent crisis may be attributed. It is the system of giving interest upon banker's deposits —formerly almost unknown in this country, but for many years practised to a great extent in Scotland—which has made a great practical change in the working of our banking laws. Every one must see that there is a great difference between deposits placed with a banker for the sake of safe custody and the convenience of drawing—where the depositor keeps only the smallest sum which is sufficient for ordinary payments, and where he draws it out in small sums, as was formerly the case in England—and the deposits which are always of the nature of investments, where the depositor receives a high rate of interest, where he seeks to augment instead of to diminish them, and where (particularly if he is a banker) he has occasion to draw out large sums at the shortest possible notice. The difference between the two is manifestly great, and it is not dependant on the law, but it has a great effect on our banking system. With reference to this subject I will take the liberty of directing the attention of the House to a passage in a letter from Mr. Cotton, addressed to me in October, 1856—more than a year ago—which is printed in the appendix to the report of the Bank Committee, and which, I think, shows some foresight as to the operation of this system. Mr. Cotton says:

"The system of banking in Scotland, which has lately been introduced into London, viz: to allow interest on deposits at call, or on short notices, has given, and will give rise to serious inconvenience, as the depositors, in the event of a monetary crisis, will demand payment when they would not sell their own securities."

This, I think, shows a foresight and a consciousness on the part of Mr. Cotton of what was likely to be the effect of this system."

FROM OREGON.—We compile the following table of the election returns from the papers. It is the returns of all the counties yet heard from. Those counties marked with an asterisk are official:

THE GOLD ROTTING AT THE WEST.—The Missouri Democrat has news from Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, that the corn is rotting to a disastrous extent, both that which is on the stalks and in the cribs. This, says the Democrat, is a matter of grave importance.

THE HARMONIOUS DEMOCRACY OF DETROIT.—The Cleveland Review says that there was a call circulated in Detroit for a meeting of "Democrats in favor of the Administration," at the City Hall, Monday evening last:

"The Buchanan men, to ensure the possession of the Hall, had locked the door and taken the key, but the Douglas men, gathering in some force before the hour announced, broke down the door and went in. All attempts at organization proved failures, though over two hours were employed in so doing. If a man of one party rose to speak, he was forced down or his voice drowned by the cries of the other. One speaker had scarcely opened his mouth before a big paper wad upon the side of his face silenced him, and he sank into the crowd. The scene is described as surpassing Bedlam. At a quarter after nine o'clock, a man succeeded in making himself heard, and he offered resolutions expressive of the approval, by the "Democracy of Detroit," of Mr. Buchanan's administration, and expressive of the opinion that the people of Kansas should be permitted to vote on the Constitution.

Another man followed with resolutions endorsing the administration and Mr. Buchanan's message.

Both were put, and both received the full storm of yells and shouts. There being no chairman, no one could tell which received the approval of the majority. The meeting dispersed without accomplishing anything, further than furnishing a convincing proof that the peace of the "happy family" of Democracy is disturbed."

THE VIRTUOUS HARD MONEY ADMINISTRATION DESCENDING TO RAGS !—The most passionate and the most elaborate point argued to Congress by the President, in his message, was the mischievousness of paper money—the unconstitutionality of bank notes—and the virtues of a currency of gold and silver. Leaning against the Sub-Treasury, the President emphatically declared that the Government would "continue to discharge its liabilities to the people in coin." At that very moment, a scheme was matured to issue Treasury notes for at least twenty millions of dollars!

The Administration which attributes all the financial ills of the country to "paper issues" is to turn banker on a system, which, if practiced in the State of New York, would land the adventurous financier, in the penitentiary. Treasury notes of one hundred are secured by State stocks and bonds and mortgages. These Treasury notes are to be issued upon the faith of the Government. The former are redeemable and convertible, safe and confided in. The latter, in the strictest sense of the word, are shinplasters.—Alb. Exc. Jour.

THE SUSPENSION OF LABOR AT PROVIDENCE, R. I.—The Providence Journal has collected an account of the great suspension of labor in the manufacturing region of which Providence is the centre. It says:

"It shows such an interruption to productive industry as was never seen here before. We judge that more than three-quarters of the cotton machinery is idle. The suspension of the woolen machinery is not so general, but it is very large, and is increasing.

"The cotton mills stopped almost to 502,291; number of hands thrown out of employment 9,661. The number of cotton mills now running have 216,628 spindles, and employ 2,070 hands. The quantity of woolen manufactures is estimated at $150,400 in cotton goods and $137,915 in woolen goods."

THE private letters by the Persia are quite cheerful from England, but from the Continent indicate that the revulsion is spreading. The London and Paris letters state that no further important disasters are anticipated in those cities; but that business is very dull and merchandise very much depressed. At Hamburg there had been in the aggregate 121 failures, very few, if any, being of strictly first-class houses. In London, business matters had assumed much the same aspect as here. A general liquidation was going on, with a great indisposition to new enterprises and a comparatively easy money market. The continued receipt of gold from this side subsequent to the sailing of the Persia, cannot but have exercised a very favorable influence and done much to restore confidence.—N. Y. Trib.

THE REVULSION IN EUROPE.—The news by the Persia shows that the revulsion is spreading eastward with increased energy. Within the short space of fifteen days, no less than four ten mercantile houses had stopped payment in Hamburgh. Some of these have extensive connections in Denmark and Sweden, and the merchants of Stockholm and Copenhagen suffer severely. Old houses which have stood for years, have either fallen or are tottering. Business is paralysed, and trade in all the commercial cities of the Baltic is at a stand. The warehouses are crammed with merchandise, but in the unsettled state of prices nothing can be exported. Private letters from Belgium state that Failures are still occurring in England, and private credit has suffered immensely. The working population is in considerable distress, especially the manufacturing towns, where business is almost suspended.

THE Treasury Department, under direction of the President of the United States, has fixed the rate of interest to be borne by the first issue of Treasury Notes; $6,000,000, at three per cent. per annum; the Notes to run for one year; but receivable at all times in payment of Customs and other Public Dues, with the accumulated interest calculated to the day of payment. Of this issue, $3,000,000 has been assigned to the City of New York, provided so much is applied for in season, through the Sub-Treasurer, Mr. Cisco. These Notes will be of the denomination of $100, $500 and $1,000. They will not be fully prepared for distribution until about the 16th January.—N. Y. Times.

A MISER IN AGONY.—The house of one Brookings, at Gardiner, Maine, was burned on Saturday night week, and in the cellar, after the fire, were found $8000 in gold and silver, fused by the heat. The old man had been in the habit of hiding his money in stone heaps and walls on the farm where he lives, and a long stocking full of silver coin was found in a stone heap, by his brother a short time ago. At the time of the fire he had $600 in bills, and the silver and gold found in the cellar, stowed away under the chamber floor, next the fastening. It was a sight to behold (says a correspondent) to see the old miser frantically calling upon the bystanders to shoot him.

A MOLASSES SPECULATION.—We noticed a lot of molasses now landing on Widgery's wharf, which was originally imported into Baltimore, where it could have been sold for about fifty-five cents per gallon, but was held for a higher price. Not finding a sale there, it was re-shipped to Boston, and not meeting buyers there, was again re-shipped to Portland, where it is selling as it comes from the vessel at twenty-five cents per gallon.—Portland Adv.

COMTE D'ESCAYRAC IN MEXICO.—Comonfort has imitated Louis Napoleon, broken up the Federal Congress and the Supreme Court, and had himself declared absolute Dictator. The people of Mexico seem to stand the change very well. It is all one to them whether they are a republic or a despotism. They can be as factious and revolutionary under one as the other, and contented under neither.

EX-GOVERNOR WALKER intends to take the stump against the Administration in the South. He has letters approving his course from leading Democrats of Maryland and Texas.

HON. FRANCIS W. PICKENS, of South Carolina, has been nominated to the Senate for the mission at St. Petersburgh, and not Mr. Buchanan, of Maryland, as was rumored.

THE LITTLE GIANT DOWN ON THE ADMINISTRATION.—Senator Douglas created a sensation in the Senate, yesterday, by hauling the President over the coals on the Kansas question. The Senator was in high feather, and looked remarkably well, having recently obtained for himself a new suit at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

CARNAGHAN (Federal st., Allegheny) has made special provisions for the holidays by replenishing fully, his stock of Gents and Boys Clothing &c. The attention of buyers is now invited to an assortment of goods in the above line, believed to equal in style and workmanship, any of its kind offered in our cities. His terms being strictly Cash enables him to sell at low rates.

DR. FITCH would also add that as he is accustomed to deal frankly with his patients, none need apply who are afraid to learn their true condition, the actual state of their lungs, and their probable chances of recovery.

An Infallible Cough Remedy.—I had been sick three months, not able to do anything, with a cough and stuffed condition of the wind-pipe; I tried several of the best physicians in this city without receiving any benefit at all of them said my lungs were affected. I was confined to my bed during the greater part of this time, I expectorated a great deal of matter from my lungs. The first two doses of your Pectoral Syrup that I took, I could not take without laying down in my bed, but before I had taken two bottles I was entirely cured. I have been well ever since. My sickness commenced about the first of March, of this year. I am now, and was at the time of my sickness, living at Thomas Patterson's, in Union street, near the Diamond.

DR. KEYSER'S SHOULDER BRACES—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than 8 years past we have constantly worn the Washington Expander Brace, manufactured by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood street, in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to its merits, it answers for a brace and suspenders, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to continually tend to bring the shoulders to their natural position and expand the chest. Women, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of numerous skirts, should also procure these braces. In particular is procuring the kind mentioned, as many of the braces sold are bunting. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Drug Depot, 140 Wood east, sign of the Golden Mortar. Price 2½ cents.

THE HEALTH OF AMERICAN WOMEN
For many years I have been troubled with general weariness and languor, both mental and physical; caprice, listlessness, dull headache, pain in the head and temples, coldness and tendency to stiffness, palpitation of the heart, very easily flustered or excited, appetite variable, sometimes and bowels deranged, with pain. Any mental or physical exertion was sure to bring on all the symptoms, and I had in addition, falling of the womb, and great pain in that region. One physician after another exhausted his skill and

SHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON fortunately cured me, and I have no words sufficient to express my thankfulness
Mrs. JULIA ANNE JOHNSON.

I can truly say that I have been a sufferer for many years with whites and deranged menstruation. After a while I had other troubles, such as pain face, indigestion, wasting away, general languor and debility, pain in the small of the back, a sort of aching and dragging sensation, pain between the shoulders, trembling every time I attempted to walk, nervous trouble in the stomach and bowels, with cold hands and feet and dreadful nervousness. The least excitement would cause me as if I should fly away. I tried doctors and drugs, and everything, one after another, without the benefit. One bottle of MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON changed some of my symptoms for the better, and now I am entirely and radically cured. I wish that every woman could know what it will do. CLARISTA OBER.

MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON has saved my life, as I verily believe. I tried doctors and medicine until it seemed useless to try longer, when I met with a lady who recommended the Catholicon so strongly that I deemed it my duty to try it. I was mostly troubled with deranged menstruation. My symptoms were pulsation, pain in the back and abdomen, a dull, heavy down pain at the time of the illness, bloating, colic, nausea, constipation, feeling as if the back and limbs were bruised or broken, exhaustion and vomiting anxiety (life seemed to be a burden,) disturbed sleep, faintness, shudderings, fatigue on walking in the morning flatulence, constipation, presence of blood in the head, dizziness, especially when stooping, great irritability of temper, almost constant inclination to pass water, great restlessness and desire to weep or feel unhappy. I was not only entirely cured myself of all these symptoms, which I had been years in the perfect accusers of my sufferings, but I have known so many others cured in our town that I feel bound to let you know, that others who are similarly situated may also find relief.
EMMA VOSBURGH.

For a long time I had Uterine complaints with the following symptoms: I was nervous, emaciated and irritable, and had a disposition to complain, some of which I will try to give you: pain in the lower organs, and a feeling as if some thing was going to fall out; inability to walk much on account of a feeling of fullness; aching and dragging, and shooting pains in the back, loins and extending down the thighs; pain in the head, especially in the forehead, with spasmodic shootings and pains in the side, stomach and bowels; headache, with ringing in the ears; every time of the day seemed sore; great irritability; intense nervousness. I could not bear the least excitement without being prostrated for a day; I could scarcely move about the house, and did not take pleasure in anything. I had given up hope, having tried everything, as I supposed, in vain, when I was induced by my attention to MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON. I took it, hoping against hope. Most fortunately it cured me, and thereby saved to me a benefactor of more grateful woman in the country. I trust all will use it. It is truly the woman's friend in need. Mrs. FLORENCE LESLIE.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.
Our little son's hair fell off some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his breathings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success; but, to our surprise, and the delight of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has a healthy scalp, and an luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child.
We can therefore, and do heartily recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours, respectfully,
GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
