The above, works are for sale by E. Miner. No. 32 Smithfield ist, and W. A Gildenfenney. FiRh st, opposite the Theatre.

Our readers will observe by the advertisement in another column, that the furniture and fix tirtes of the St. Clair Hotel are offered for sale, together with the unexpired term of the lesse. The House is too well and favorably known to require more than this passing notice. At this season of the year, as the spring travel is just about to commence, the purchaser of the St. Clair would have a rare opportunity of at once stepping iffto a large and profitable business. Capt. J. D. W. White, the assignee, may be found at the Hotel, to whom we would refer enquirers.

We learn the following items from the annual reports to the Councils of Manchester: Thomas H. Gilson, Wharfmaster and Board Measurer, reports the measurement of 860,000 feet of lumber. Due borough thirteen per cent., $12,00; wharfage collected, $142,20; collector's fees, $71,10; balance, $71,10; whole amount due borough, $83,00.

The Treasurer reported the list of receipts and expenditures, up to date, as follows: Receeipts, $1,610,19; expenditures, $1,650,69; due Treasurer, $49,50. The Treasurer reported the list of receipts and expenditures, up to date, an follows: Receipts and expenditures, up to date, and have an discovered an expenditure and provided for the last four provided for insured for insured in the expenditure and provided for insured for i
