A VIEW OF POLITICAL AFFAIRS, IN WHICH PRESIDENT BUCHANAN WILL BE INTERESTED.—Washington, Sunday, Jan. 10, 1858.—There is a general rolling over of things in Washington, and it is difficult to see the light. The Kansas, Utah and Nicaragua imbroglios are condensed together, and they are producing a general chaos. The filibuster and Utah matters, however, may be put aside for the moment, except so far as they become entangled in their active influences with Kansas. The great question now pressing upon public men here is the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution—the struggle upon this point will be bitter and desperate. It is clear that Kansas can only be admitted through the active and determined support of the Administration, and but for this the Democrat would have been more roughly handled in the late debate, both in the House and Senate, upon the connection of the Administration with the unlawful capture of General Walker upon the soil of Nicaragua by Commodore Paulding. The Administration is now weak, and the Southern men are very anxious to strengthen it, so as to make its efforts in behalf of the admission of Kansas, under the Lecompton Constitution, more influential. This will account for their ignoring other issues in which they differ from the President.

The position of things is strange. Mr. Buchanan has been fighting against the South all Summer in resisting the desperate efforts to make Kansas a Free State, and Judge Douglas has been siding with the South in insisting upon the legality of the acts of the Territorial Legislature, and upon the sovereignty of the Convention And now, what a change of position between them! Mr. Buchanan is with the South, and Judge Douglas is with the Black Republicans. Both have changed. Mr. Buchanan did, last Summer, write a letter to Gov. Walker, in which he said to him, "You pursue all your influence to have the Constitution referred back to the people for ratification or rejection upon this question, and I must stand or fall." This letter will soon be published. Judge Douglas, last Summer, in his speech at Springfield, urged the sovereignty of the Convention, and its right to determine absolutely upon the Constitution of Kansas. His change is explicable. Free soilism is omnipotent at the North, and the admission of Kansas with a pro slavery Constitution would be the destruction of the Democratic Party. As one of its leaders, he will fall with it. To prevent this, he is struggling to abolitionize the Democratic Party. He is unfettered by still another consideration. he has been a candidate for the Presidency since 1848. The North has had two Presidents in succession, and the South will not tolerate the nomination of the next one from that section by the Democracy. This postpones Judge Douglas for several years longer. A great cycle this, in the life of a man now-a-days.—Douglas, then, is for change; confusion, anarchy, in order to advance himself. He is now appealing to the "Free North," and is preparing the way for a sectional fight. It will come, and let it come. But Douglas is gone. If the bowstring was around his neck, and the sack prepared for his voyage down the waters of the Hellespont, he would not be more fatally gone. The Black Republicans will not put their standard in his hands—the South will not touch him—and the Administration will fight him. He will be defeated in Illinois for re-election to the Senate. Kansas will be admitted. The next House of Representatives will be Black Republican, and in 1860 we shall see—what? Things are drifting to confusion. The defection of Douglas has done more to shake the confidence of the South in Northern men, than everything that has happened before. If he proves false, whom can you trust? The Mercury is right. Our failure to sustain our rights, has prostrated our friends at the North.—Charleston Mercury.

FYZABAD, the place which is now rallying point of the Sepoy rebels, driven from that place, is a fort on the right bank of the Ghogra, eighty-nine miles north of Lucknow, and ninety-five from Allahabad. It is hard by the ruins of old Oude, and, in connection with them, stretches ten miles along the bank of the Ghogra, and is two miles in breadth. It was founded about a century and a quarter ago, by the Nabob Vizier of that time, whose successors enl
