PITTSBURGH:
SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. 20, 1858.

☞ Do not neglect to read the article from FORNEY's Press, which we publish on our first page.

MEXICAN REVOLUTIONS.—When we read of revolutions in Mexico, and other Spanish American States, we are disposed to regard them solely as public events, and as such, national in their results. We never take into account the destruction of human life—the reckless waste of private property—and the individual suffering which follow in their wake. Mexico has just passed through one of those chronic outbreaks, to which that nation has been subject ever since it has an organized existence, and it is painful to contemplate the havoc which has been made by the contending factions. It is not the loss of Comonfort, who is now in exile in this country, which the people of Mexico are called upon to deplore. Their ruined homes, their dismantled public edifices, their pillaged store houses first claim their regrets and their sympathies, and should cause many a lover of his country and its people to ask, "When will these things end—when will these ravenous vultures cease preying upon the oppressed and downtrodden people? How long will poor distracted and dismembered Mexico submit to the cruel domination of mercenary priests, corrupt statesmen and blood-thirsty generals?" More property is destroyed in one of these spasmodic "revolutions" than years of peace and prosperity could restore, even if Mexicans were more enterprising, thrifty and industrious than they really are. Destruction, rapine and bloodshed seem, however, to be the favorite pursuits of its statesman and leading men; and as long as this state of affairs exist, so long will Mexico be what it is—a weak and inconsiderable state, without order at home or power abroad.

The 20th of January, the day previous to the abdication and flight of Comonfort, who, by the way was a good enough ruler, as times are, the decisive battle was fought in the streets of the city. The Convent of Arcordada, where the government troops were quartered, was attacked by the insurgents, and was soon compelled to yield, though not until after a severe engagement.—This decided the day in favor of the Revolutionists, and Comonfort fled. The damage done to the city is what claims our attention, however, and we therefore quote from an account of the sad work of that memorable day:

"In the church of San Francisco, on the further side of the Boulevards, three bomb-shells, which were thrown into the church, exploded, and did considerable damage to the organ, breaking a great number of its pipes. In Minerin the hand grenades did a great deal of damage. They were thrown from the fortress with such a well directed aim that four of them fell upon the observatory, when the enemy had taken a position in order to fire down upon the church of La Conception. One side of the hospital of Terfecua felt the marks of five different volleys of cannon, some of which made a breach in the wall and penetrated as far as the shop of Senor Penunuri.

Several hand grenades were thrown, with admirable skill in pointing, from the towers of the governmental palace. One of these, which was thrown upon the church of St. Francisco, fell inside the steeple of the church, and killed instantly from ten to a dozen soldiers who were there, completely clearing away all the sand bags which had been fixed up on the tower for defence, not leaving so much as one of them.

"Besides various other damages, there are quantities of whole blocks in the city which have been fired upon and large breaches made in the houses, by the special orders of Senor Comonfort."

THE KANSAS QUESTION AT WASHINGTON.—The intelligent and observing correspondent of the North American, (Philadelphia,) in his letter from Washington, dated Feb. 17th, thus notices the present phase of the Kansas question. It will be observed that the administration is marshalling its forces, and resorting to all the trickery at its command to consummate the great fraud on the majority of the people of Kansas. Mr. Buchanan having made the fatal step seems determined to leave no means untried to accomplish his purposes, which are those of his Southern masters, even though the act covers his name with everlasting infamy

"Whom the Gods would destroy they first make mad," is illustrated in this instance in a striking manner. The correspondent says:

"Behind the scenes, where the Kansas drama is usually rehearsed for the amusement of the initiated in personages only, there is an inclination to repeat the part which was tried at the compromise of 1850, by uniting Minnesota to Kansas, and thus consigning both to the fate. There are there is both the "will to do and the soul to dare" in that Chamber. The majority, too, is likely to be larger than was anticipated in my estimate some weeks ago, produced by changes which then could not be foreseen. It will probably be six in a full Senate, and may even reach seven or eight. General Houston, who led off so gallantly at the opening of the session, has receded from his position, and will vote to admit Lecompton under cover of instructions from his Legislature. There is some reason to hope, on the other hand, that Mr. Allen, of Rhode Island, who was counted affirmatively, will obey his instructions in the opposite direction. Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Pearce, who were regarded as doubtful, are now confidently counted on the Administration side.—Mr. Bell is not intimidated by the instructions of political opponents at home, and will continue early and practically adhere to the course which he marked out for himself, when his moral influence was invoked to stay the hand which sundered the compact of perpetual peace between the North and the South in 1854. Let the country hope and remember his devotion to the Union. Mr. Crittenden has signified his intention of co-operating with Mr. Bell, and his colleague, Mr. Thompson, will probably imitate the example, as the sentiments of the leading journals of both parties in Kentucky is outspoken and unmistakeable.

Of the movement of that delectable specimen of a modern democratic politician of the Buchanan school—the notorious and thrice-infamous Calhoun—we have the following. He is also true to his vocation, and shows himself worthy of his distinguished conjutor in the White House:

"Mr. Calhoun has submitted a statement to the Committee on Territories of the Senate, embodying his version of the facts connected with the Lecompton convention and constitution. Such a document must be highly important. His so-called vindication is also prepared, and may be published to-morrow, or on Friday. In regard to the complexion of the Legislature, he will say, if the affidavits of the judges of the election at Delaware Crossing—his own judges—which, it now appears, were communicated by Gov. Denver to the Secretary of, the Interior in print, as cut from a newspaper—are verified to be genuine before Gov. Denver, and made without compulsion, then the proof will be conclusive as to the right of the free State men to the majority, and certificates will be issued accordingly. This is the last card to be played for Lecompton, and would have been dealt a week ago, but for the duress to which the federal official was subjected by our "southern brethren."

The Lecompton managers in Kansas are now in Washington in a body. Calhoun, Henderson, Elmore, and a number of others of the same stripe, may be seen daily walking the Avenue, with a bold and swaggering air. They have been summoned to aid in carrying out in Congress the fraud, which they commenced in Kansas. Their associate and co-laborer, M'Lean, who figured in the Delaware Crossing return, is daily expected, having been reported as on his way to the Federal City.

It will be observed by the telegraphic summary of foreign news, in another part of this paper, that the French have taken an important step towards perpetuating the Bonaparte as the ruling family of France. They have declared the Empress Eugenie Regent, so that should the Emperor die during the minority of his child, his consort will be entitled to hold the reins of government. So much for the recent attempt at his assassination.

A COOL RECEPTION.—In the lower house of the Tennessee Legislature, a resolution tendering the use of the hall to Gen. William Walker, and calling upon him for a public address upon Nicaraguan affairs, was tabled by a vote of 31 to 23.

OFFICIAL EXPOSE OF THE OXFORD FRAUDS.—Lawrence, K. T., Feb. 8, 1858.

To the Editor of the St. Louis Democrat:

The undersigned was appointed by the territorial legislature, one of the commissioners to take the census of all the white male inhabitants over twenty-one years of age, in the townships of Oxford and Shawnee, in the county of Johnson; and having discharged that duty, has reported to the governor as follows:

Of which only fourteen dated their residence prior to April 5, 1857.

Whole no. of inhabitants over 21 years of age, in Shawnee..... 115

Of which only forty-eight date their residence prior to April 5, 1857.

The vote returned from Oxford township at the January election was about 750.

The vote returned from Shawnee township at the January election was 894.

CHARLES MAYO, Com'r.

The Great Holland Remedy.—BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—Persons subject to nervous or sick headache, will find in Boerhave's Holland Bitters a sure, safe and pleasant remedy. It soothes the throbbing head, corrects acidity of the stomach, assists digestion, and creates a healthy appetite. It is, without doubt, a most delightful preparation, and an effectual remedy. The fact that it is now a very popular medicine throughout all the Holland settlements in Wisconsin, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana, speaks volumes in favor of its merits.

CAUTION!—Be careful to ask for Boerhave's Holland Bitters. The great popularity of this medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

☞ Sold at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by the proprietors, BENJ. PAGE, Jr., & CO., Manufacturing Pharmaceutists and Chemists, 27 Wood street, between 1st and 2d sts., Pittsburgh, Pa., and Druggists generally. fe16d&wT

One of the most pleasing, at the same time effective remedies for Dyspepsia and all other diseases arising from a morbid condition of the stomach and liver, is Dr. Hostetter's Bitters. It not only removes the disease from the system, but by giving tone to the organs of digestion, aids them in their functions. All who have tried it acknowledge its excellence and superiority, and we therefore commend it to the sufferer. Dr. Hostetter's Bitters as a tonic is too well known to need praise. It is therefore scarcely necessary at this time, to do more than direct attention to this preparation which is certainly unequalled by any before the public, satisfied as we are that its wide spread reputation must prove sufficient to satisfy all of its excellence as a relief and remedy for all diseases of the stomach.

Rock's Remedy for Pulmonary and Tubercular Consumption.

HAVING been appointed sole Agent for the sale of DON GIOVANNI ROCA'S celebrated CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, the public will now be put in possession of one of the most valuable remedies for that fatal malady heretofore been considered an incurable disease.
I have the more readily undertaken the agency, from the fact of its extreme simplicity—being an outward application, the patient has no nauseous drugs to take, and has having none of those attributes which make up the numerous compounds now in general use.
With the utmost confidence in the success of this remedy, which has heretofore been used in private practice with great success, as is shown by numerous letters and certificates, is now offered to the public.
A pamphlet, containing directions, letters from distinguished individuals, and documentary evidence from the physicians of the hospital of Havana, Island of Cuba, &c., will accompany the remedy.
These epoch volumes in its praise, and publicity is only required to render it as popular as it is beneficial. Address

THE RESTORATIVE OF PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt: read also the following:

THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads, and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds—by all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was about to need the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater profusion than it ever had been before.
It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.
It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it, but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object lunch to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.
