Governor Denver to produce the sworn statements, so ments of the judges of this controerted previous and to have them taken under such circum-stances as will scoure a free and unbiased exhi-bition of facts. By the sworn statements, so procured, I shall be governed in giving the cer-tificates of election to the members of the legis-lature from Learemorth county." In connection with the above statement we may mention that Mr. Calhoun remarks in an-other portion of his address that before opaning the returns for and under the Constitution; whilst in Kansas, he was called upon by "Dr. or Governor Robinson" and olycess which he assured them should be fully investigated before issuing the certificates, and that he authorized for: Denver to stato if the election judges would furnish him with an affidavit that the authorized fraudulent, he would treat it as a corrected re-turn, and be governed accordingly in giving the certificates. After making theso declarations, and having, too, a personal knowledge that the precinet in contest contained less than fifty voters, he proceeds to state: "I came to Wash ingtion with no particle of douid on my mind as to the result," which was that the legislature was carried by the pro-slavery party, through the 379 frandulent votes at Delawarie Crossing, which decided the context in Leavenworth Staverny us Linnois.—A While Man Seid.—
