IT is the height of radicalism to argue that when a large majority of the people think one way, then and therefore a majority of the Judges should think with them. This is the argument,

By means of an artificial forum, the power of hearing is affected, and all the circumstances that attend trumpets and tubes, are eating thispensed with. They are worn by ladders or as ROBERT HUTCHINSON, COMMISSION MIARLES B. LEECH, FORWARDING cter, public policy would repute that a majority the Court should come from the MINORITY of the propte. We say policy would require this, or a popular majority used a check of this kind, uch is the principle of our government.—N. Jour. Con. WATT & WILSON, WHOLESALE GRO Dr. G. H. KKYSKR, 140 Wood at Union Foundry, MITCHELL, HERRON & CO. MAGLE WAREHOUSE JAS. GARD-Such is the principle of our government.—N. Y. Jour. Com.
We are not yet acquainted with the particular features of Senator. Saward's slam for the reorganization of the Federal Supreme Court, and therefore cannot yet commit ourselves either for or against it. But we protest at once against the doctrice above advanced. It is an affront to Republican institutions. It strikes at the very central principle of all Republican government. It is a simple declaration that henceforth and forever the slaveholding States (the "minus 15" should peases a majority of the Supreme Court, and that the Southern expention of the Constitution should in all cases prevail. Of all the extreme doctrines engendered in the rankness of Northern subservioncy, we have not seen one so uterly discorpanizing and degrading as this. It needs to be mentioned but to be repelled by overy right-spirited freeman.—N. Y. Cour. 4" Enquirer. Produce generally, No. 5. Seventh and Smithfield, Pittsburgh, Pa.
